

FRAGMENTS.

SEN. JOSEPH F. SIMMONS' notice of cheap lots for sale.
 HON. SHERMAN, JR., left for Denver this morning.
 JOHN TIMMS, for drunkenness and profanity, was to-day fined $25.
 MR. SAMUEL WOOD, U. P. Attorney at Butte, went east this morning.
 ROBERT GEORGE was arrested by the police to-day, on a charge of larceny.
 ASSISTANT General Manager P. P. Shelby left for Denver this morning.

The case of John Lake vs. Order & Jones was retaken in the District Court to-day.

The Eleventh Quorum of Elders met at the central hall, on Monday evening next, at 7:30.

In the case of John S. Ballin & Co. vs. Simon Bamberger, the Third District Court to-day found for the plaintiff.

The suit of Lula Horrocks vs. John W. Horrocks, for divorce, was being tried in the Third District Court to-day.

We have received from J. H. Pamy & Co., the English Family for March, and for March 3. They have all the latest papers.

In the suit of P. Auerbach vs. Robert Mulhall et al., in the Third District Court to-day, the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff for the amount sued for and interest.

The number of passengers that arrived in Ogden this morning, from the west, was 351; of these 245 continued their journey over the Union Pacific, and 106 via the D. & R. G.

In consequence of the funeral service of Sister Newman being held in the 10th Ward meeting house to-morrow morning, there will be no Sunday School in that ward to-morrow.

A LETTER from a New England non-"Gormon" giving his view on the rights and practices of the Saints, which was briefly referred to editorially in our Thursday's issue with the supposition that it was in that day's paper, will be found in this issue.

JOHN ACORD, under sentence for robbing the mails, Al. Palmer, for placing an obstruction on the D. & R. G. track, and James Taylor, for cattle stealing, were released from the penitentiary to-day, having served their terms of imprisonment, less the reward for good behavior.

A variety entertainment will be given in the Third Ward meeting house on Friday evening next, under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement Society of the ward. The program consists of "The Good-for-Nothing," a good olio, and the Fourth Ward Dramatic Association will appear in a "Lively Job."

LOCAL NEWS.

Runaway.—An exciting runaway occurred this morning near the corner of East and South Temple streets. Mr. Nathan Tanner, of South Cottonwood, had his team on East Temple Street, when the animals became frightened and started to run. Mr. Tanner, who is an aged gentleman, held on to the lines with all his strength, but was unable to control the frightened horses. He was thrown out of the seat into the bed of the wagon, and still clung on to the lines, when a portion of the harness gave way, and the animals became partially detached from the wagon. They then began kicking most viciously, and finally ran into Mr. Joseph Boyer's wagon, where they were stopped. No serious damage was done, though the horses' legs were considerably cut up.

Home from the "Pen."—Brothers John Nicholson, George Romney and Wm. A. Rossiter this morning emerged from the Penitentiary, after having served the term of six months for which they were sentenced, less the discount for good behavior, and paid their fines and costs of trial. Brother Nicholson's sentence commenced three days later than those of the other brethren and his release to-day is due to his getting the benefit of the new copper act which went into effect yesterday. They all look well, and will, we report the brethren who left with the prison as being quite hearty and in good spirits. We are glad to see them once more at liberty, as all their friends doubtless will be, and honor them for the firmness with which they have endured the penalty imposed upon them rather than be untrue to principle.

Deputies' Doings.—This morning Deputies Greenman, Vandercok, Smith and Cadogan went to the Cannon Farm, and searched the houses of President Geo. Q. Cannon, claiming that they were looking for Mrs. Eliza Cannon, who was not there. Just as they got through, Mrs. Edna L. Smith came to the farm, accompanied with a Hawaiian lady, and was detained by the deputies. Mrs. Smith had, at the very first solicitation of the Hawaiian lady, consented to take her on a visit to President Cannon's family. When they reached the gate, they were stopped by the deputies, who demanded Mrs. Smith's name. This she refused to give, when she was informed that she answered the description of Mrs. Eliza Cannon, for whom they were looking. She then informed them that she was not Mrs. Cannon, nor a member of the family, nor did she know anything of the family affairs. She was, however, against her earnest protestations, compelled to turn back, the deputies saying they would take her along anyway. She headed her horse for the city, and on the way up the four deputies surrounded her, a though they were conducting some great captive, and paid no heed to her request to ride either before or after. When she reached the street leading to her home Mrs. Smith refused to accompany the deputies farther, as no service of any paper had been made upon her. Her name was demanded, but she refused to give it except on condition that she should then be permitted to go at liberty. This was not granted, so the deputies read an improvised subpoena, inserting a fictitious name, and compelled the ladies to accompany them, while they rode on either side of the buggy. Mrs. Smith was then taken before the grand jury and severely catechized, and when she was recognized as the wife of President Joseph F. Smith she was informed that unless she remained in the Marshal's custody, after some hours her father would have information of her situation, and D. L. Davis and Geo. Stringfellow were secured as bondsmen, and Mrs. Smith was released, as was also the Hawaiian lady, after she had been before the grand jury, where Mr. H. P. Richards was called to act as interpreter.

TESTIMONIAL.

TO HON. W. W. RITTER, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TERRITORY OF UTAH, THE 27th Session, 1886.

Yesterday afternoon the members of the House branch of the Legislature presented the Speaker, Hon. W. W. Ritter, with a testimonial of the respect and esteem in which he is held by them. It consisted of a very handsome gavel, mounted with gold upon which was inscribed the name of each member and of the Speaker—the latter engraved in a beautiful scroll in the center. There are 11 old and 15 new members of the House, including the Speaker.

The presentation was made by Hon. Samuel R. Thurman, in the following elegant address:

MR. SPEAKER.—As the hour approaches for the dissolution of this Assembly, we cannot refrain from expressing the regret that the obvious meaning of the dissolution is the separation of those who have labored together in this, the crisis of our history.

We have met here upon common ground—the representatives of a free people, according to the light which God has given us we have each labored in the honest discharge of our sacred duty, and in the discharge of that duty, smooth and friendly. It cannot be justly and truthfully said that any member of this House has ever owed to another a single grudge or harbored in his soul a feeling of envy, hatred or malice.

The speaker, in his address, broke the bonds of our association, and I have a pleasant duty to perform. I do but voice the sentiments of this House and each of its members, in expressing to you our admiration, gratitude and thanks for the able, patient and impartial manner in which you have presided over the deliberations of the House of Representatives. The feeling is unanimous, and there is not the slightest reservation in the minds of any here as to this expression of lasting gratitude and admiration.

Mr. Speaker, if any member upon the floor of this House has at any time by word or deed caused you to feel a momentary pang, be now, while the golden opportunity is before us, to express our sincere apologies and our regret. Your kindness and patience will for ever be fresh in the memory of all. We desire that you, your fellow members, may one and all, while our hearts continue to throb with life, have a place in your memory that may never be obliterated by the revolutions and changes of time.

Mr. Speaker, we present you with this little memento of our kind regard. When you look upon the names inscribed upon this gavel, remember your friends, whose devotion is as pure as the gold upon which their names are engraved.

I take pleasure on behalf of the members of this House in presenting to you this testimonial.

A profound silence prevailed while the Honorable member from Utah read the address.

The Speaker in a brief, but neat, feeling, fervent speech responded to the address. He said what he felt the need of at this time was the power of speech to give utterance to the feeling of his heart. He heartily, and eloquently thanked them for the kind treatment he had received from the members of the House.

BREAKER ITEMS.

ARRESTS FOR LIBEL—MORE INDICTMENTS.

We have received the following as a special per Deseret Telegraph line:

Mr. Maeser, editor, and George Hales, business manager, of the Southern Utahian, have been arrested on the charge of publishing libelous articles in the issue of the 10th inst. of the Southern Utahian, and Thomas by deputy marshals. Each was put under bonds for the sum of $10,000.

Watson, of Parowan, was indicted a year ago for unlawful cohabitation with his wife, and now the grand jury just discharged has found two more against him.

One thousand dollars was required as security for his appearance for trial on one indictment and $500 on the other.

The court met this morning and adjourned till 2 p. m. The deputies have not yet returned with the jurors.

The Mendon Suicide.—The Ogden Herald has the following particulars of the suicide which occurred in Mendon Cache County, March 10th, as stated in the News at the time:

"About 6 o'clock in the morning the deceased, John K. Bird, got up as usual and went to his barn to feed his horses and cattle. He took off his coat and hung it up in the barn and then went to the hay stack and decked his shoes. The day before he borrowed from his brother a Spencer carbine, and he had been using it for some time past. On making the usual discovery the boy Hyrum raised the alarm and soon relatives and friends were on the spot. The deceased was lying on his back and the gun was resting at his feet. A verdict of suicide was returned. John P. K. Bird was a son of Charles Bird, and was about 30 years of age. He leaves a wife and eleven children, and was a member of the Mormon Church. From all that can be learned domestic trouble appears to have been the cause of the commission of the rash act. The sad affair has cast a gloom over the quiet little settlement of Mendon, this being the first case of the kind that has occurred there."

HARRY TURNER, a vagrant, stole a chair last night and sold it for 30 cents. He is now in the city jail awaiting trial.

THE LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE MARCH 11.

The Herald compaignant a receipted bill for the copies of that journal published during the session of the Legislature. This action was inspired by the withholding by Government of the per diem of said officers and members, and was received with thanks.

By unanimous consent, Mr. McLaughlin presented a bill amending House bill 82, for the purpose of read the first time and referred to the committee on judiciary with instructions to report at its earliest convenience.

The sergeant-at-arms was instructed to furnish each member of the House with a bill for stationery, etc., and require each to pay the amount of his individual bills, and thus release the sergeant-at-arms.

The substitute for House bill 82 was killed in committee.

At 5 o'clock a. m. the House recessed till 9 o'clock and at that hour resumed session.

A message was received from the Governor vetoing House bill 29.

Mr. Thurman presented a joint memorial of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, petitioning for a grant of land adjacent to the Territorial Insane Asylum to be made to that institution; adopted.

Another message from the Governor was read, vetoing House bill 65. The amendment suggested by the Governor was concurred in and the bill repassed by the House.

Mr. Thurman, by unanimous consent introduced a bill for the benefit of prisoners confined in the Utah Penitentiary, the full text of which will be found elsewhere; referred to the committee on reform school.

The Governor, in another message, returned House bill 82, suggesting an amendment, which was concurred in by the House.

A message was received from the Governor vetoing House bill 29.

Mr. Thurman presented a joint memorial of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, petitioning for a grant of land adjacent to the Territorial Insane Asylum to be made to that institution; adopted.

Another message from the Governor was read, vetoing House bill 65. The amendment suggested by the Governor was concurred in and the bill repassed by the House.

Mr. Thurman, by unanimous consent introduced a bill for the benefit of prisoners confined in the Utah Penitentiary, the full text of which will be found elsewhere; referred to the committee on reform school.

The Governor, in another message, returned House bill 82, suggesting an amendment, which was concurred in by the House.

A message was received from the Governor vetoing House bill 29.

Mr. Thurman presented a joint memorial of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, petitioning for a grant of land adjacent to the Territorial Insane Asylum to be made to that institution; adopted.

Another message from the Governor was read, vetoing House bill 65. The amendment suggested by the Governor was concurred in and the bill repassed by the House.

Mr. Thurman, by unanimous consent introduced a bill for the benefit of prisoners confined in the Utah Penitentiary, the full text of which will be found elsewhere; referred to the committee on reform school.

The Governor, in another message, returned House bill 82, suggesting an amendment, which was concurred in by the House.

A message was received from the Governor vetoing House bill 29.

Mr. Thurman presented a joint memorial of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, petitioning for a grant of land adjacent to the Territorial Insane Asylum to be made to that institution; adopted.

Another message from the Governor was read, vetoing House bill 65. The amendment suggested by the Governor was concurred in and the bill repassed by the House.

Mr. Thurman, by unanimous consent introduced a bill for the benefit of prisoners confined in the Utah Penitentiary, the full text of which will be found elsewhere; referred to the committee on reform school.

The Governor, in another message, returned House bill 82, suggesting an amendment, which was concurred in by the House.

A message was received from the Governor vetoing House bill 29.

Mr. Thurman presented a joint memorial of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, petitioning for a grant of land adjacent to the Territorial Insane Asylum to be made to that institution; adopted.

Another message from the Governor was read, vetoing House bill 65. The amendment suggested by the Governor was concurred in and the bill repassed by the House.

Mr. Thurman, by unanimous consent introduced a bill for the benefit of prisoners confined in the Utah Penitentiary, the full text of which will be found elsewhere; referred to the committee on reform school.

tion to water rights, etc., a substitute for H. R. 14, which was lost. Read and under suspension of the rules passed.

The committee on penitentiary and reform schools recommended the adoption of amended H. R. 84, striking out the words "for good conduct."

The bill passed by a vote of 16 to 4. Mr. Thurman introduced a joint resolution for the redemption of jurors' certificates for the years 1885 and 1886, authorizing the Auditor to issue warrants for this purpose. Read once, then second time by its title, and under suspension of the rules, the third time and passed.

The substitute for H. R. 35 was adopted and the bill passed.

The committee on livestock reported back House bill 29, as amended to meet the objections of the Governor, and the bill passed again.

The Council having passed a substitute for H. R. 43, it was sent to the House, and passed.

Messages were received from the Governor, announcing his approval of House bill 71, and his veto of House bill 50, the last of which read as follows:

Hon. W. W. Ritter, Speaker of House of Representatives of the Territory of Utah, No. 50 without my approval. Prohibit the members of the territorial assembly from being equalized and therefore are the most disqualified of all others, officers or citizens, to conduct a territorial election.

The bill names a Territorial Board, to consist of seven persons, six of whom are to be appointed by the Governor, and one to be constituted as the bill proposes. This subject is an important one, and the necessity of its being considered is very urgent, and we must yet perfect, an inexpensive and well guarded law.

Very respectfully,
 L. H. MURPHY, Governor.

The bill was referred to the committee on ways and means to obviate the objections, if possible, and later on was with the veto message tabled.

COUNCIL—MARCH 12, 3-15 P. M.

A message was received from the Governor announcing the Governor's approval of five House bills.

A communication was received from the Governor, announcing his approval of C. P. No. 4, a bill amending sec. 70 of the code of civil procedure; and C. P. No. 4, a bill amending sections 24, 25 and 26 of the compiled laws of Utah.

A message was received from the House containing the report of the joint committee appointed to consider the Governor's veto of House bill 29, and the Governor's report thereon.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

575. A FINE ORGAN FOR 575. H. J. HILL, Teacher of Music, No. 26 s. West Temple.

CARPETS.

Henry Dinwiddie has just received the largest and most elegant stock of CARPETS, genuine Wilton and other grades, even seen in this city, selling at bottom prices. Give him a call.

BABY CARRIAGES.

THE FINEST AND CHEAPEST, AT DINWIDDIE'S.

"Safe, reliable and pleasant to take," that excellent preparation, Dr. Henley's Celery, Beef and Iron. For sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, and All Druggists.

FERNET-BRANCA.

Photographs at Fox & Symons.

An Entertaining, Reliable House. Z. C. M. I. can always be relied upon, not only to carry in stock the best of everything, but to secure the best for such articles as have well-known merit, and are popular with the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always enterprising, and ever reliable. Having secured the Agency for the celebrated Dr. Henley's Celery, Beef and Iron, it will surely cure any and every affection of Throat, Lungs, and Chest, and to show our confidence, we invite you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

"It's No Use," says the despondent dyspeptic. But it is of use. Your sufferings can be relieved; thousands have been cured, and so can you. Broken down, desponding victims of dyspepsia and nervous debility will find relief when it is known that the specific which reaches the source of the trouble and effects an absolute and permanent cure. It regulates the liver, dispels dyspepsia and restores health.

The Value of Prunes as a Laxative. A remedy for constipation, liver, bowel and stomach troubles, may be inferred, when it is known that the Syrup of Prunes is added the extract of a valuable and highly medicinal Laxative plant from the root-bark, which with the gentle and soothing laxative properties of the prune, is an active agent for the liver and blood, and remedy for stomach and bowel complaints, which demands accuracy. Chapter 28, act in relation to the manufacture and sale of liquor, etc., was approved.

A communication was received from the Governor, announcing his approval of C. P. No. 4, a bill amending sections 24, 25 and 26 of the compiled laws of Utah.

A communication was received from the House containing the report of the joint committee appointed to consider the Governor's veto of House bill 29, and the Governor's report thereon.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the bill reported that the bill was amended and passed.

The committee on the