OBITUARY.

Sister RHODA H. FORD RICHARDS. daughter of Caivin Poss and Sarah R. Carter, was horn April 19, 1830, in the town of Saco. in the State of Maine: was hantized into the of Jeans Christ of Latterday Saints, by President Wilford Woodthe autumn of 1844. and gathered with her mother, brother and sigters to Salt Lake City in the year 1850. On the 30th of November. 1951, she was married to the late President Willard Pichards and hy him became the mother of Calvin W. Richards, who married Pmma I. Walker. a grand-daughter of Patriarch Hyrum Smith. and a respected citizen residing at Farmington, in Davis County.

On March 8th, 1857, she became the wife of Annetle P. D. Richards, and located with other members of her family in Farmington: and there has home three some and a daughter. Hyrum and Tra have denarted, Ezra and Sarah remain to mourn her loss.

Sister Rhoda Richards won the love and esteem of those who knew her by her dutiful and consistent life as a Latter-day Saint.

She accented and obeyed every doctrine and ordinance of the Church that was required of her and lived in dutiful conformity therewith. She taught her children the principles of the Gosnel and had the great satisfaction to see them walk in the way of the Lord while they Hued, and those who sleen to depart in the faith.

The illness which terminated her earthly a motracted and serious character which has confined her to her room and hed for more she manifested the faith and ratience which are the fruits of an abiding hone.

When but a few days before her death, her husband inquired how she felt about his going with others of the Apostles and Presidency on a short mission to the Southern nert of the Territory, she renlied, Go. Prankin and do your duty, all will be well

She has ever been an obedient, dutiful child, a faithful and affectionate wife, a loving and indulgent mother, and an exemplary confiding Latter-day Saint. May her

When Sister Rdoha Richards' death occurred, her husband was on a missionary tour through Southern Wtah, with President Tavfor and narty. Had he been on the direct line of communication with the north he would have at once left for home. The news reached him during the prevalence of a heavy snow storm, and it was deemed by President Taylor and other brethren, to be dangerous for him to undertake the iourney comparatively alone. In consequence of this Brother Richards, much to his regret, had not the privilege of ren lering the last sacred offices to the respected dead.
