

SOCIETY

Conference week brings its own general bustle and cheer, and many are the enjoyable though informal social events given in honor of visiting guests which have contributed to its social activity. The Conried concert was the occasion of several of these, and there have been a number of small home affairs besides the general entertaining of visitors.

The musical at Mrs. Ritters, the University club musicale, the dancing parties given at Unity hall and at Saltair, were the larger events of the week, and there has been a sprinkling of lesser ones to relieve the usual Lenten dearth.

The visit of Riber Haggard was the occasion of an elaborate luncheon at the Alta club during his stay, the host being Mr. A. Chester Peirce and the guests being Messrs. William and C. K. McCormick, A. Holden, F. J. Cannon, C. O. Whittemore, and Hanson Caygill of London.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the wedding of Miss Cora Snow and Mr. Lafayette Johnson of this city, the event taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Snow, on Wednesday at noon. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the parlor in which the ceremony was performed being done in green and white, the bride party standing in a bay window which was arranged in bow-like effect. The party entered the room to the strains of music, and Mayor Morris performed the ceremony, Miss Eva Snow, Miss Lulu Morrison and Miss Aline Yard acting as bridesmaids, and Mr. Lyle Snow as best man. The bride wore an exquisite gown of ivory white, and carried bride's roses, and her bridesmaids were also gowned in white and carried pink flowers. After the ceremony an elaborate luncheon was served, the dining room being beautifully decorated in pink and green. From 2 to 5 o'clock a reception was held, after which the newly wedded pair were driven to their own home at 467 First avenue, where they will be at home to their friends next week.

At his home on Seventh East street last Wednesday evening, President Hugh J. Cannon of the Liberty stake, was tendered a very enjoyable reception by the missionaries who labored under his jurisdiction in the German mission. There were about 90 present and a very pleasant time was enjoyed. The parlors were artistically decorated with smilax, carnations and potted plants, and the American, German and Swiss flags were used to good effect. During the evening a musical program was rendered by Prof. Baurle, Coop, Tracy Y. Cannon, Agnes Dahlquist, T. Albert Hooper, Herman Schettler, Edwin Braby, Frank Chamberlain and Walter Wallace. Later in the evening several toasts were responded to by Prof. L. E. Young, Ben Barker, Scott Weller and Will Wetzell. President Cannon responded in a very happy vein. During the evening delicious refreshments were served by Misses Grace Cannon, Rhea Nibley, Lulu Penrose, Ethel Rogers, Hazel Beattie and Edna Barker.

One of the largest of the season's parties will take place right after Lent, at Christensen's, on the evening of April 28. The dance will be given by the Stroller's club for the benefit of the University gymnasium, where all the societies of the University will help to make this one of the largest affairs given. The cadets of the East and West Side high schools are expected to lead the march. The announcement cards will be out next week.

On Monday Mrs. Abner Luman entertained in honor of Miss Fox of Philadelphia, her function being a luncheon given at the Knustford. Spring flowers were the decorations.

The musicale given at the home of Mrs. W. W. Ritter on Monday night for the benefit of the gymnasium was a success in every way, the program being a notably enjoyable one, and a large number being present.

The juniors of the U. of U. gave a banquet last night at the Emery-Holmes for the seniors, the students having an enjoyable time.

A masquerade ball was given last night at Woodman's hall, by members of the order, and the affair was successful in all details.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Meakin are at home at 825 First street.

The last Wednesday informal soiree of this season will be given at Christensen's next Wednesday. Announcement cards have been mailed to the many patrons of these much enjoyed informal affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jennings entertained informally at dinner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Briant H. Wells will entertain next Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Guy Palmer.

The High School Alumni association gave their ball tonight at Unity hall. The dance will be given under the patronage of Mrs. Frank B. Stephens, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. Russell G. Schallert, Mrs. E. A. Hise, Mrs. Louis Schoppe and George A. Eaton.

Judge and Mrs. W. H. King gave a concert party on Tuesday night at the Tabernacle, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lyman, Mrs. D. D. Houz of Provo, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Gosden and Mr. and Mrs. A. King of Provo.

Mrs. W. J. McIntyre entertained informally at her home on Tuesday.

Miss Edith Hale entertained at a delightful afternoon party on Monday in honor of Miss Nellie Cullen. The rooms were prettily decorated, and late in the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

A dancing party will be held in the Museum building at the University next Wednesday night, for the benefit of the gymnasium.

Last night the members of the University Choral staff entertained the Agricultural college students of the Dramatic club at Saltair, and besides the school people a large number of outside guests were present, all spending a delightful time at Saltair pavilion. Christensen's orchestra rendered a program of delightful music and the event was in every way enjoyable.

Mrs. Wm. Bartling will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday at her home.

WHY OUR GOODS ARE SO CHEAP.

IT IS NOT that we are cutting standards of excellence in materials used or styles adopted. Consult your Fashion Journals, then investigate our stocks; compare our prices and goods with others. We want to establish a large wholesale business in Salt Lake and divert trade to this city that now goes to St. Louis and Chicago.

Unless the ladies of Salt Lake reflect in their daily attire, the standards we adopt, as soon as they are adopted by the best establishments in New York, confidence in this city as a market is destroyed.

To encourage the adoption of our styles by the masses, the price of the goods are made within their reach.

An increased demand enables us to buy abroad and also direct of home manufacturers, thus cutting out one or two profits the smaller dealers have to pay.

Giving our patrons the savings in this progressive method is repaid by an increased volume of business from outside cities.

To introduce these advantages here, heavy buying has been necessary. Our stock is now the largest ever seen in any exclusive millinery store in Utah.

The proof of our claims is in the goods offered for sale. When we bought of jobbers we paid them a profit and worked on the same margins we are selling goods for now.

We have assumed the more important role of jobbing goods ourselves, placing our Salt Lake store on the same footing a Chicago or St. Louis house would work on, and have not increased our own percentage of profits.

THAT'S WHY OUR HATS ARE SO CHEAP.
