

STRIKERS ARE DRINKING WINE.

Sixty Barrels of Grape Juice Distributed Among the Italians at Clear Creek.

ANARCHISTS IN THEIR RANKS.

They Are Threatening Their Loyal Countrymen—Gain in Output at Clear Creek.

Special Correspondence.

Scottsdale, Dec. 7.—Notwithstanding the fact that the coal company is gradually filling the places made vacant by strikers, the strike at Winter Quarters and Clear Creek is by no means settled and it is believed by the observers that many weeks will pass before the difficulty can be said to be adjusted. It is now clearly understood that the issue is unionism and that the company will never consent to submit its decision upon this important question. On the other hand with the departure of each delegation of organizers a fresh lot of local strikers take up the agitation and work zealously for the preservation of their cause. Manifestations of ill temper are becoming more frequent than during the early part of the struggle and open threats are frequently made against the men who have filled the places of strikers.

RED-HANDED ANARCHISTS.

The fact is indisputable that among the strikers are many red-handed anarchists who respect no law and feel it a sort of religious duty to exterminate and destroy all opponents. This class of men would meet with slight toleration under ordinary circumstances, but their assistance is welcomed by the strike leaders and it does much to terrorize men who would otherwise resume work. So long as this class has a respected voice in the strikers' councils the presence of the militia will be necessary to prevent a reign of terror.

SIXTY BARRELS OF WINE.

Today 60 barrels of wine were distributed among the various Italian strikers at Clear Creek and the idle men will attempt to add hilarity to their vacation if there is any merit in the grape juice.

At the saloon of Dominick Chiari, where the red flag of Anarchy was formerly flaunted, the Stars and Stripes are now hoisted and it is believed that no more parades of the gory rag will occur here.

SOME LOYAL ITALIANS.

A small force of Italians have continued loyal to the company at each of the mines and have been subjected to intolerable filibustering and threats made by their countrymen against them.

Yesterday two Italians were arrested at Clear Creek for threatening to kill John Mayo and other of the Italian workmen if they did not join the strikers. One of the men plead guilty and both are now in jail here awaiting facilities to convey them to the county jail.

FINNS ORDERLY.

The Finns have so far conducted themselves in a quite orderly manner, and it is believed that they will not join in the unlawful methods of their more hot-blooded associates. The Finnish Temperance society does much to restrain them and but a small percentage of the Finns now residing here are saloon habitués.

The strikers appear to be making very little gains among the workmen, and the constant endeavor of the company to keep its mines running and to fill the places of strikers is an apparent success, as the daily output of coal attests.

AT CLEAR CREEK.

Everything is quiet at Clear Creek, there being no parades or gatherings of any kind.

The headquarters of the detachment at Clear Creek has been removed from its former quarters, to the board-house of the company. This will establish them in warmer quarters, it being very cold at nights here, the thermometer ranging from 10 to 15 degrees below zero. All the tents of the guard are supplied with stoves, so the boys do not suffer much from the cold.

WINNING OUT.

At Clear Creek yesterday there were 24 men at work, this is the largest number since the strike began, and the output was considerably larger than heretofore. The company at this place is satisfied with the condition and feels sure of winning out.

The condition at Winter Quarters remains unchanged.

GUARDS LAID OFF.

Militia Called Upon to Collect Coal Company's Rent, but Didn't.

The number of guards hired by the Fuel company to protect their property is being steadily diminished, as the militia is found sufficient to protect the same. A strong force of guards was summoned yesterday to the Scottsdale depot as it was reported that Demoli, Kellher, Price and other agitators were about to make a descent on the town, and it was proposed that they should not make a landing. But they failed to show up.

A guard appealed to Captain Williams of H company yesterday to help him collect rent for the company from a Finn who was in arrears, but the captain merely referred the guard to a collection agency, as he was not in a business. F company has been transferred to Winter Quarters, and H company to Scottsdale, the latter command with G company are to be stationed at Castle Gate, the new regimental headquarters.

Not a few of the militiamen are resorting to sundry and various devices to escape and go home, and one member of G company who recently was married had his father write General Cannon a request for the young groom's release, quoting the following from Deuteronomy 24:5: "When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business; but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he has taken."

PATRIOTIC CITIZEN.

C. P. Mason has written the governor the following letter relative to employers' discharging clerks who are in the guard: Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 5. Hon. Heber M. Wells, City, My Dear Governor—I notice in the morning papers that some of the business men of this city feel that it seems necessary to engage permanently the services of employees to take the places of the boys at the front belonging to the national guard. It may interest you to know that a young man employed by this firm belongs to the national guard, and when leaving for duty he was assured that his position was secure; that on his return his place will be open for him. It seems to me that it is the duty of a business man at this time to pursue a similar course.

I know of instances where some of the boys who went to the Philippines from Utah, after having been absent for a long while, on their return were re-engaged in the same positions occupied at the time of their enlistment. We must all be patient and sustain you in this movement, and if this letter will aid you in influencing others to do as we are doing, I shall be gratified. Yours very sincerely, C. P. MASON, Manager Fairbanks, Morse & Co.

HIGHER ORDERS.

Demoli Says He Will Only Leave The State if Mitchell Says So.

In reply to the advice of Governor Wells to leave the state, Agitator Demoli replies that he will only go on orders from John Mitchell. The governor remarked after the conference: "There really has not been much accomplished, except that I shall take into consideration the facts that have been related to me. I shall continue my efforts to secure a settlement of the strike."

"I appreciate the way the governor has received us," said Demoli. "He has listened to all we have to say, although I see he is tied up against the union. For all that I believe he means to do right if he can." Demoli left for the coal camps of Carbon county at 2:35 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

DEMOLLI AT HELPER.

Says He is Pleased at Reception By Gov. Wells.

Agitator Demoli is back at Helper where he expresses himself as pleased with the reception by the governor, and hopes that his colleagues will be able to visit the coal camps and investigate for himself. The Italian, with other agitators, proposes to visit Sunnyside today or tomorrow, with a view to provide the families of strikers with the necessities of life.

Attorney W. D. Riter of this city has been summoned to Scottsdale by the officials of the Fuel company for consultation. Sixteen cars of coke and two of coal came up last night for the Salt Lake smelters from Sunnyside.

WHAT GEN. CANNON SAYS.

Gen. Cannon reports the quietness of a summer's day at Scottsdale, also that the first trial of Demoli was fair enough, and was not present at the second. The officer was told that Demoli was going to Clear Creek merely to get a change of venue, and was taking some of his agitators along, calling them witnesses merely as a ruse to get them into camp. They were stopped by the deputy sheriffs for that reason.

Gen. Cannon further says that in some instances the deputies had been carrying things with a high hand, and that they have no right to stop peaceable citizens on the highway. Indeed the military will protect inoffensive persons from molestation by the deputies. The general further said: "The company is steadily getting more men to work. I think Saturday there were about forty more. Some of these are old men going back, some are coming from outside and some are farmers from different parts of Utah. The company is making gains right along, and I think it will win the strike."

The average wages are from $3 to $5 a day. Of course the $5 is an extraordinary case, but they are practically all getting over $2 a day. They really have no complaint there. All they want is recognition of the union."

TO HATCH TROUT EGGS.

State Commissioner Sharp's Unique Scheme to Save Money.

State Fish and Game Commissioner John Sharp proposes to install a nursery for the hatching of trout eggs at the state fish hatchery. It is the intention to go into the fish business on a much larger scale than in the past, and it is believed that the state will save a large sum of money on the cost of native and eastern brook trout by the proposed nursery and in a few years it will be deriving an income from the sale of eggs and fry to other states in the west as well as to private parties.

The eastern brook trout eggs cost the state at the present time $1,000 for every 1,000,000 purchased from Boston. When the new nursery is in operation all the eggs will be supplied here and also trout will be raised for sale. According to the scheme of Commissioner Sharp, there will be four or five ponds stocked with fish which will be kept simply for eggs. As these fish grow old they will be supplanted by young fry. It is estimated that it will take 20,000 grown trout to keep the state supplied with eggs each year. It is expected that it will be two or three years before the nursery will be prepared to furnish all the eggs required. Several hundred trout have already been selected by Mr. Sharp to be placed in the nursery.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and retain strength are those who use German Syrup.
