Washington, D. C., Dec. 3.—Representatives of Women's clubs, churches and similar organizations meet this afternoon for the purpose of formulating a program for the contest against Senator Reed Smoot, senator from Utah. The women of the country seem to have been worked up to a frenzy against the junior senator from Utah. They will get together today to protest against polygamy and urge the senate to refuse to seat a senator who has been elected according to law and against whom the charge of polygamy does not lie. There is an old story of a visiting minister who was advised not to preach against brewers and distillers because those gentlemen were pillars of the church. When he asked whom he could attack, the deacon responded, "Jump on the Mormons. They have no friends."

It would seem this is the theory upon which the opposition to Mr. Smoot is proceeding. All efforts to show that he has more than one wife, thus far have proved futile. He is admitted to be an upright citizen, an able and successful man, a man of high moral character, and a man who has done much for his country. But he is a "Mormon" and that seems to be enough to stir up opposition to him. One of the chief opponents of Mr. Smoot is a lawyer from Salt Lake, named Owen. Mr. Owen led the opposition to the seating of Roberts in the house four years ago, and that opposition was successful. But many members who voted against Roberts were recently swayed by a score of passengers, including several women.

ARSENIC IN FOOD.

Royal Commission Makes Recommendations About It in Liquids.

London, Dec. 3.—The royal commission on arsenical poisoning from food and drink recommends the prohibition of the sale of beer and other liquid food, or of any liquid entering into the composition of food, which contains one-hundredth of a grain or more of arsenic per gallon, and the prohibition of the sale of solid food containing one-hundredth of a grain per pound, "no matter whether habitually consumed in large or small quantities or whether consumed alone (like golden syrup), or mixed with water or other substances (like chutney, etc.)."

The commissioners find there are serious defects in the present machinery available to safeguard the public and urge that more extended powers be given to the authorities to condemn unwholesome food, the establishment of official "standards" and the creation of a "board of reference," to which could be referred specific points and whose decisions should be carried out by the department concerned, the latter's action being subject to the control of parliament.

Dowie Made Manager.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Federal Judge Kohlstedt has appointed Dowie temporary manager of Zion City's industries.

It is the idea of the court and receivers to interfere as little as possible with the established order of Dowie's industries. Dowie will be the agent of the receivers and the arrangement will be discontinued, if it is found that the interests managed by him are not made to pay.

MURDERED FOR THEIR MONEY.

Decomposed Bodies of Franz Frehr
And His Wife Found Buried
In Their Backyard.

SKULLS HAD BEEN CRUSHED IN

Weapon Used Was a Hammer—Aged Couple Kept Large Sums of Money in Their House.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 3.—The decomposed bodies of Franz Frehr and his wife, an aged couple, who disappeared from their home, 339 Jefferson street, on Nov. 20, were found today buried beneath a wood-shed in the yard back of their house. They had been murdered. The skulls of both had been crushed and a hammer such as would have inflicted the blows, was found in the shed. Several hairs were found clinging to the head of the hammer.

A search for Charles Bonier, who moved into the house of the Frehrs on the day of their disappearance, had begun hours before the finding of the bodies, but the hunt was renewed by the entire staff of headquarters detectives as soon as word came that the bodies of the Frehrs had been found. On Tuesday Bonier appeared at police court in response to a summons in a John Doe proceeding regarding the disappearance of the Frehrs. The case was adjourned and Bonier was ordered to appear in court yesterday, but he did not come. It was thought then that the suspicion of foul play grew stronger with the police who had believed up to that time that the old couple had been taken away by relatives who hoped to inherit their money. Descriptions of Bonier were sent by broadcast, and this morning Police Supt. Bull received a telephone message from Erie, Pa., stating that Bonier had been arrested there. Bonier is 65 years old.

Bonier's housekeeper, Louise Lindholm, is in custody in this city. The police found on her person gold pieces to the value of $75. The Frehrs were supposed to have a great deal of gold in the house. The woman says the money was given to her by Bonier. Kate Kahn, a relative of the Lindholm woman, was also taken to a police station, a trunk and some stuff which had belonged to the Frehrs having been found at her home.

BURGULARS IN COURT.

Men Accused of Stealing Gold from Dentist's Office Before Diehl.

In Judge Diehl's court today, Ed Todd and John Harmon, the men accused of breaking into the office of Dr. Cook and stealing therefrom four ounces of gold, are having a preliminary hearing on a charge of burglary. The men pleaded not guilty and stated today that they were ready for trial. The prosecution is in the hands of Asst. County Atty Smith, while Atty. Kinney is conducting the defense. The case will not be concluded until a late hour this afternoon.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

Committee of Teachers Meets to Discuss Establishment of Class.

There was a meeting this morning in the office of Oscar W. Meade of a committee of teachers to discuss the establishment of a physical culture class in the high school. It was thought that such a class could be organized, each member to pay 10 cents per lesson, and that it would be a good thing for the pupils. There was some discussion as to whether or not to what room would be the best adapted, but the opinion was that the room in the museum building was the most desirable. The matter was referred to the building committee, which will report later, after investigation.

ECHO OF HODGE CASE.

The criminal record of the Third district court was this morning cleared of the case of the State of Utah vs. Aurora Hodge, charged with murder in the first degree for the killing of William X. Ryan near Murray on July 11 last, by the dismissal of the case by Judge Moore upon the motion of Dist. Atty. Elchorn. In his statement to the court, Mr. Elchorn said that the defendant died at the Holy Cross hospital on Dec. 1 and he respectfully asked that the information against her be dismissed. The order of dismissal was then made by Judge Moore.

TRINIDAD, COLO.

Trinidad, Colo., Dec. 3.—President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America, and the national organizers and officials of district 15, resumed this morning the conference in regard to the strike situation which was begun last evening. It is reported that it has been decided to insist that the miners shall be permitted to select pit bosses and camp physicians. If the operators refuse to grant a conference or in the event that a conference is granted and no agreement is reached, it is understood to be the intention of the mine workers' officials to tie up all

BISHOP LEONARD ENTERS INTO REST.

Episcopal Divine Passed Away
At St. Mark's Hospital at 3:50 This Morning.

FELL LIKE A CHILD TO SLEEP.

Remains to Lie in State in the Cathedral Saturday Morning—Funeral
In the Afternoon.

Bishop Leonard passed quietly away at 3:50 o'clock this morning, at St. Mark's hospital. He was like a child falling into peaceful slumber, and he was gone hardly before he was realized. For the last week the sufferer has been mostly in an unconscious state, and apparently entirely free from pain. The family were by his bedside as the good man's soul peacefully took its departure.

The funeral will be held from St. Mark's cathedral at 3 p. m. Saturday next, with interment in the family plot at Mt. Olivet cemetery, and at some hour on Saturday morning, to be named and stage, confirming 120 persons in the cathedral, where the public may view them. All of the bishops west of the Missouri river have been notified of the old cardinal's death, and the clergy generally in the far west, and a large attendance is expected. The senior bishop present will conduct the services. The remains will be removed to the cathedral tomorrow evening. It will go without saying that the funeral will be one of the largest held in this city.

Bishop Leonard was a great worker during his life in the west, and in the first six months of his first year as bishop, he traveled 10,000 miles by rail and stage, confirming 120 persons in the cathedral, where the public may view them. All of the bishops west of the Missouri river have been notified of the old cardinal's death, and the clergy generally in the far west, and a large attendance is expected. DANCES DON'T GO.

So Says Supt. Nelson When It Comes To Using the Schoolhouses.

State Superintendent of Schools Nelson has received a communication from the trustees of the Green River school district in Emery county inquiring whether or not the people have a right to use the schoolhouses for public dances. The letter is signed by George A. Stanton, clerk of the board of trustees of that district, and is as follows: "We have a question to inquire of you. Can the school building be used for dancing purposes? If the benches are not fastened down? There was a gathering and performance of school children on date of 26th, and after it was over there was a number of people who deliberately took charge of the house, moved all the seats and then danced until 12:30 or 1 a. m. The majority of the board ruled against it. We are only inured as a school building. This being the only public building here, the majority of taxpayers claim they have the right to dance in the building. The school is a place where some people get very rough sometimes in said building. Your early opinion in the matter will confer a favor."

STIFF SENTENCE.

Lock Trick Grafter Gets 200 Days in County Jail.

Harry McClellan, the man convicted of working the lock trick on a stranger here a few days ago, has been sentenced by Judge Diehl to pay a fine of $200. Not having the money, McClellan will be in the county jail, where he will be a guest of Sheriff Emery for about 200 days.

IDAHO SUGAR RUN.

(Special to the "News.")
Idaho Falls, Dec. 3, 1903.—The first factory of sugar from the new bag of the Idaho sugar company will be turned out today. Everything is running smoothly at the mill. It is expected that the board of directors of the company will visit the factory in a body next week.

IDAHO SUGAR RUN.

Colorado mining industries in a sympathetic strike if possible. Runners have been sent to the surrounding camps to spread the news that President Mitchell will make a public address here this afternoon. Thousands of miners will attend the meeting. Mr. Mitchell and other mine workers' officials were served today with papers in a damage suit for $5,000 filed by the Victor Fuel company. Governor Peabody has invited President Mitchell to a conference with him on the subject of settling the strike.

OFFICER JOHNSON AS KING SOLOMON

"Whose Baby Are You?" is the All Important Question at Police Headquarters.

MRS. COSTER BORROWS INFANT

Then the Complications Follow Which Are Not Yet Straightened Out by Unbiased Witnesses.

"Whose Baby Are You?" This should be the title of a little comedy-drama, the third act of which was enacted this morning. The curtain arose three weeks ago and has not as yet been rung down on the final act. The characters in the drama are Mrs. A. E. Coster, residing at 61 West South Temple; Mrs. R. A. Jenkins, a washerwoman of East Jordan; a blind man living at Mrs. Coster's, name unknown; Officer Emil Johnson and two newspaper men.

The plot was laid three weeks ago, as before stated, and has thickened until the present date. It is now jammed in several mixtures of deep mystery and will probably not be solved until one of the judges of the district court steps in and unravels the tangles for ever and aye the question—"Whose baby are you?"

The first act was at the home of Mrs. Jenkins at East Jordan, where she was busily engaged in washing clothes and keeping her five children, the youngest of whom is only a year and 10 months old, out of the river. Enter Mrs. Coster with the request: "I would like to borrow your baby for a week. I need him for company."

Mrs. Jenkins at first demurred, but on the matter had been debated for some time she agreed to allow Mrs. Coster to borrow the child. In a happy frame of mind Mrs. Coster took the little one to her home, but what was her horror on arriving there, to find that the little one's clothing was reeking with vermin. She declares that that is what she found. The second act occurred a week later when Mrs. Jenkins called at Mrs. Coster's place and called attention to the fact that the week had expired, and that she had come to claim her own, as per agreement. Her surprise knew no bounds when Mrs. Coster blandly informed her that she could not have the little one, that it did not belong to her, that someone else claimed an interest in it, and furthermore, that she (Mrs. Coster) would not give up the baby until compelled to do so by the courts. The two women then engaged in a wordy war, but without satisfactory results.

Third act: Enter Mrs. Jenkins, Officer Johnson and the newspaper men, at the home of Mrs. Coster. The mystery thickens. Mrs. Jenkins makes another demand for her baby and Mrs. Coster refuses to give it up. The two women engage in another verbal scrap which is settled by Officer Johnson after much persuasion and travail. Mrs. Coster then puts forth her claim to the baby, and the debate goes on over the question: "Whose baby are you?"

STODDART REMINISCENCES

The Famous Actor Writes of His Experience with Salt Lake Home Club.

Mr. J. H. Stoddart, the veteran actor and star of "The Bonnie Brier Bush," in his book published by The Century company, entitled "Personal Recollections of a Player," entertainingly writes of a special stock engagement which he filled in this city in 1894, as follows: "I received a letter from Salt Lake asking me to go there and play for a week with an amateur organization in 'Saints and Sinners.' As the offer was a liberal one, and Mr. Palmer presented, I went. 'Saints and Sinners' had always been a favorite play in Salt Lake. Although it was quite a long journey to take for a week's engagement, I was amply repaid by the warmth of my reception and the kindly courtesy extended to me during my brief visit. We had only two rehearsals and it really would have astonished many old professionals to have seen the careful attention, earnestness, and ability displayed by my Mormon as- sociates. The play was excellently staged and well performed. The parts of Little Fletcher and Hogard were acted by near relatives of Brigham Young, and Ralph Kingsley was played by Mr. Heber Wells, the present gov- ernor of Utah, and in a manner that would have been creditable to any experienced actor. Mr. B. G. Whitney, then of the Salt Lake Herald, was stage manager, business man, and in fact general factotum of the enter- prise.

"Mr. Palmer had played his company for a great many years in Salt Lake while on his way to the coast, and it has always been to him a source of pleasure to visit this city. The company's visits had ever been anticipated and arrangements for their stay made, so as to render their visit as pleasant and agreeable. Much was done for our amusement, including organ recitals at the Mormon Temple, excursions to the Lake, social excursions, etc.

QUESTION OF THE MONTH.

What Shall We Buy for Christmas?
Christmas Shoppers Are Busy.

The burning question of the month of December is "What shall I buy for Christmas presents?" "What shall I get for Mary and John, for father and mother, sister and brother, and all of the rest of the family?"

Thoughtful folks desire to secure something of permanent value and that will be an enduring reminder of the giver. Such presents are few and far between, however, for there seems to be a sort of mania for riotous expenditure at Christmas time for frivolous presents. In the matter of books—those known as gift books in the book trade—are manufactured largely with a view of appealing to the eye. They are made pretty and attractive, and usually not much attention is paid to what is inside of the covers.

An incomparable Christmas present for the entire family is an encyclopaedia. In the first place, it is attractive. In the second place, it is durable. In the third place, it will be used almost daily by everybody in the family for years, and be a constant reminder of the giver. Fathers and mothers can hardly give their children anything more practical. They, no doubt, desire to give their children the best and most liberal education in their power to make them good men and women, to be possessed of refinement. Nothing will have more influence upon their future than what they read, and they will read something, either good books or bad books. The safe way is to put them in contact with good books when young, then their tastes throughout life will be for good books.

It is astonishing in view of these facts, how many parents fail to appreciate the value and importance of a good encyclopaedia at the elbow of every growing child.

The habit of research—of looking up things—is established early in life and its value is incalculable because it means a continuous education through life.

Superintendent Bright of Cook county schools, Chicago, who superintends the education of 300,000 children, has said: "The child using an encyclopaedia at home in connection with school work will profit 33-1/3 per cent more than one without it."

The Deseret News is forming a club of money-saving buyers of the new Americanized Encyclopaedia Britannica, the latest and most practical encyclopaedia on the market.

Through a fortunate arrangement the Deseret News can not only save you about 40 per cent of the usual cost, but in addition, you can secure delivery before Christmas on the payment of a single dollar. The balance in little monthly payments next year.

The Encyclopaedia will be shown you at the Deseret News book store, and the Club Plan explained. Don't delay. Call at once. If you cannot call, write to the Deseret News, and printed matter will be sent you.

MEN GOING TO THE COAL CAMPS.

Diggers Are Being Shipped to Carbon County to Replace
The Striking Miners.

TWENTY LEAVE THIS MORNING.

Eviction Notices Are Being Today
Posted at Sunnyside Ordering Malcontents to Quit.

THE OUTPUT OF COAL IS GAINING

Yesterday There Were 470 More Tons
Mined Than on Previous Day—
Will Pay Board Bills.

(Special to the "News.")

Sunnyside, Dec. 3.—Yesterday's output of coal from the mines here exceeded that of the previous day by 470 tons. Today there are 147 miners at work. Strikers are combating the arrival of new men into the camp by now offering to pay the board bills of the newcomers, provided they will not go to work until the strike is over and will join the union.

The following notice is being served in this camp today to strikers:

Carbon County, Utah, Nov. 30, 1903.—To John Doe—Please take notice that you are hereby required to quit, vacate and surrender up to the undersigned lessor on or before the 31st day of December, 1903, those certain leased premises heretofore and now held and occupied by you as lessee of the undersigned situated near the lessors' mine in Sunnyside precinct, Carbon county, Utah, the same being more particularly described as house No. 1 and the tract or parcel of land upon which said house and the adjacent outbuilding appurtenant thereto are situate.

J. R. SHARP, Supt.

All is quiet and the health of the troops is good.

The only development of note in the coal strike situation this morning was the fact that the Utah Fuel company has begun active substitution of English speaking help for the foreigners who have stopped work. Some 20 Americans were recruited and sent down this morning, on No. 6, to be located where they can be used to best advantage, more are going down on No. 2 this afternoon, and there will be others along. The company does not apprehend any serious difficulty in filling the places of the strikers with a more tractable and less turbulent element.

Traveling Passenger Agent Ridd of the Rio Grande has returned from down the line, and says that a large number of the young Italian and Austrian coal miners who are unmarried, are leaving for the Pennsylvania coal regions.

The number of coal miners who went to work this morning at the three coal camps were reported to be 18 more than the number going to work the morning previous.

HEINZE HAS A GREAT LOBBY.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 3.—F. Augustus Heinze will have perhaps the greatest lobby at the extra session of the legislature called to enact remedial laws as a result of the Amalgamated copper suspension, in recent history. Reliable report last night says there are about 80 Heinze lobbyists now in Helena, and within several days the number will be almost doubled.

The Amalgamated Copper company, it is said, has a small army of lobbyists at the session. In view of the threatening situation the legislature yesterday afternoon unanimously adopted a resolution ejecting all from the lobby, excepting newspaper men and employees.

Helena is filling up with Heinze men to attend the convention called by Mr. Heinze for the purpose of organizing a new political party to fight the Amalgamated Copper company. This party will be known as the "Anti-Corporation Republican and Democratic" party. Heinze's agents have canvassed every section of Montana in search of adherents to fight against the corruption and it is expected that about 300 delegates will attend the convention, which is called for Dec. 7.

It is believed now that delegates are assembling in Helena to make a demonstration before the legislators when action is to be taken on the "fair trial" bill, which enactment is sought by the Amalgamated and for which the extraordinary session of the legislature was called.

At the last regular session of the legislature violent scenes marked the passage of the "fair trial" bill in the closing hours of the session. Electric light wires were cut, the assemblage left in darkness and a small sized riot precipitated, it is alleged, by the Heinze people in an effort to defeat action on the measure. To prevent a possible recurrence of the stormy scenes the legislature decided to elect all spectators during the sessions of the body. The "fair trial" bill which was later declared unconstitutional by the supreme court provided for the removal of judges where bias was shown and was purely an Amalgamated copper measure designed to remove the hearing of its mining cases involving millions of dollars, from the alleged coteries of Heinze judges in Silver Bow county.
