

ment of the "oldies" indignation mass meeting, on the 19th instant. The meeting was opened by prayer by Mrs. Abbott. Mrs. Mary West was chosen to preside; Mrs. J. C. Brown was appointed secretary. The committee on resolutions consisted of Mesdames Mary Kay, Mariah Ballantyne, Sarah Harrier and Sanford Bingham, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Mary Ann, Mrs. H. C. Brown, Mrs. Mary M. McGowan, Mrs. Mary J. Hammond, Elizabeth Boyle, Mrs. Sarah Ann Fielding, Mrs. Mariah Ballantyne, Mrs. Rachel N. Burton, Mrs. Ameline Graham, Mrs. Lucinda Brown, Mrs. Ann Odo, and some twelve or fifteen others, and the same announced that previous production of Pettibarger-Buckham, K.L.P.S. was a caution. The speeches were delivered and worthy of their authors, and we are ready to confess that if we had never had the benefit of the analysis of the leaders of Weber County to the effect of "patrilateral marriage," a formal of these speeches would entirely dispel them.
