

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The day is still overcast and the prospects are that the Conference will not yet open.

Most of the people down to Conference have left town, but many still remain to finish up business.

These are necessary at the Western Union Telegraph office for Leonard Sawyer, James Goldie, J. McFarland and one at Deseret for Simon Walker.

We received a pleasant call to day from W. H. Hurlbut, General Western Messenger Agent of the Salt Lake. A very pleasant surprise.

One of the largest congregations assembled within the walls of the Salt Lake Tabernacle, attended the closing hours of Conference yesterday afternoon.

W. F. FIDELER, Esq., manager of the Palace Repository of Chicago, and son of Mr. F. S. Fidler, is in the city, and made us a pleasant call to day.

At Wanship, Summit County, on Saturday night, a house or store was burglarized, the safe broken open, and several hundred dollars and some security warrants stolen. Particulars have not been received.

At the Theatre on Saturday night, during the closing scene of the last act of the "Green Lanes of England," a lady in the audience became hysterical and had to be removed. The excitement attending the top-curtain scene and its realistic portrayal was too much for her sympathetic nature to endure.

Most of the words and all of the music sung during Conference are the productions of home authors and composers. This is the first time since the organization of the Church that such has been the case. That of the soloists were Utah boys and girls, and some of the anthems were unexcelled for grandeur and richness.

On Thursday last, at a planning ball in this city, several men were handling some dogs, one of them thoughtlessly gave a leg a push, causing a lever with which he was hitting to fly around, striking Mr. J. M. Cowley a heavy blow on the right side of the head, severely wounding him, and cutting a gash alongside of the eye.

An impatient fire in Gallagher's Restaurant, in the rear of Clabber's saloon, was extinguished about 4 o'clock this morning by night-watchman Holcomb. The fire caught the roof and an adjacent table from the kitchen range. Mr. Dobson's service was quite timely and should be appreciated by proprietors in that vicinity.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Convention.—The Constitutional Convention will meet, pursuant to adjournment, to-morrow, Tuesday, at 10 a.m., in the City Hall. Delegates, take notice.

Z. C. B. T.—There will be a meeting of Zion's Central Board of Trade at 8 p.m., to-morrow, in the Social Hall. A full attendance is greatly needed.

Get Your Pay.—All registration officers, deputies, and judges of election are requested to send in their claims for services rendered, to the Utah Commission, within the next thirty days, or it will be too late for payment.

"Green Lanes" to Night.—Owing to the immense popularity of this play, produced by the Home Dramatic Club on last Thursday and Saturday nights, and the fact that at the latter performance many people were unable to gain admittance, the management has decided to repeat the drama this evening for the untimely. It has been noticed before these columns and can be confidently recommended as a fine performance. Grand and see it.

Death of Henry Malben.—The many friends of Brother Henry Malben will be pained to learn that that most excellent gentleman died at his residence in the 15th Ward shortly after 10 o'clock to-day, from pneumonia. This news will be received with surprise, as but few people were aware of his sickness, which only extended over a period of a few days. Much sympathy will be felt for the bereaved family.

The deceased was one of the most sensible and conscientious men in the community.

The funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. to-morrow, at the 15th Ward Chapel. Friends of the family are invited.

Found Dead in Bed.—This morning, Ohio J. Herr, who was boarding at the Overland House, was found dead in bed in his room, at 8 o'clock. An inquest was held over the body to-day by Coroner Taylor.

When it was found that the deceased died from asphyxiation, with which he had been afflicted for some time, and for the last few days had been afraid to go to bed on account of the difficulty experienced in breathing. He was an Irish-American, aged about forty years, and was a miner. He was a small man, of light complexion, and short sandy beard. It was discovered from letters found on his person that he had relatives in Ohio and Maryland. His effects consisted of $14.60, found on his person.

Death Not Divided.—The funeral of Mother Woodbury, whose death was chronicled in Saturday's issue of this paper, was postponed from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., to-day in consequence of the demise of her husband, Father Jeremiah Woodbury, who died during Sunday night. They were both old settlers of the Valley, and were highly respected wherever known. Father Woodbury was born March 9th, 1791, in the State of Massachusetts. It is worthy of note that the old family Bible records the fact that the deceased was married June 30, 1818, and consequently had lived in the wedded state for a period of three score and ten years. A very unusual occurrence. The funeral services were the remains of the worthy and veteran couple took place in the Seventh Ward Meeting House.

A COPIOUS FLOWING WELL.

MR. GROESBECK MEETS WITH ANOTHER SUCCESS.

This morning our eyes were greeted with a refreshing sight, on the farm of Mr. Henry Dinwoodey, a short distance southeast of the city. During the past few days the artesian well-boring machinery of Mr. John A. Groesbeck has been busily at work, and on Saturday evening a stream was struck the like of which has never before been seen in this part of the country. A full and copious flow of water leaps up from the mouth of the pipe and runs over the land. We gauged the quantity with the eye, and could of course only give a rough approximate, but believe that the stream gives out about 200 gallons a minute, which would amount to 288,000 gallons in the 24 hours, a supply, considering that it is uninterrupted, sufficient to irrigate Mr. Dinwoodey's entire farm of 49 acres. It is better than a good mine to that gentleman, and to state he is delighted at the success of the experiment gives but a faint idea of his feelings.

Mr. Groesbeck, who is assisted by a couple of experts in the business, Mr. Wells and Mr. Hadden, is meeting with the most gratifying success, and his enterprise will be a great blessing to many who are now debarred of an ample supply of water. Mr. Wells had an extended experience in well-boring in Kansas. Mr. Hadden states that Mr. Dinwoodey's well is equal to the majority of those of Lower California, where he has resided.

A WICKED AND CONTEMPTIBLE OUTRAGE.

A NUMBER OF ANIMALS TAKEN FROM THEIR OWNERS' STABLES AND CRUELY MUTILATED.

At Pleasant Grove, Utah County, on last Friday night, a cruel and malicious outrage was perpetrated, particulars of which have reached us and are as follows: Some person or persons took from the stables of Mayor Hiram Winters a buggy-horse belonging to him and mutilated the animal by cutting off its tail and one ear. About the same time Marshal Jacob Fortz's mare was led out of his barn and had her tail taken off in like manner, and Alderman James O. Bollock also had a fine mare taken from his stable and treated in the same way as Mr. Winters's animal. The citizens are very much excited over this diabolical conduct, which was evidently the result of pure, unadulterated spite. Suspicion attaches to some of the young "bloods" of the town, quite a number of whom have recently been fined for violating the local ordinances, and it is presumed that they chose this cruel and contemptible method of "getting even" with the municipal authorities. It is to be earnestly hoped that the guilty ones will be caught and punished as they richly deserve.

Attempted Suicide.—A case of attempted suicide took place at the residence of Mr. E. N. Rideout, on Jordan River, last evening. A young man named G. N. Whipple, who works on the farm and has lived with the family for about eight years, while under the influence of liquor took strychnine and but for the active exertions of his friends, would have undoubtedly lost his life. He had been up to the city with Mr. Rideout's buggy taking his daughter and wife's stater up to Conference, and while in town got to drinking. On returning homeward with the ladies, he drove rather furiously, inasmuch that they threatened to tell their father. Whipple begged them not to do so, and said if they did he would take strychnine. They paid no attention to this and still assured him that they intended to report his conduct. He got out of the vehicle before they reached home, to open the gate, and they drove on and left him. On reaching home they told on him, as they had said they would, and Mrs. Rideout, soon afterwards, went out upon the porch where the strychnine, used for killing mice, was kept. To her horror, she found it gone, and informed her husband. He immediately went out in quest of Whipple, whom he found lying out in the orchard, rapidly sufficing and in spasms. He was made to swallow a quantity of lard, which caused him to vomit, and this was followed by the administration of ten emetics within 30 minutes. This undoubtedly saved his life. He was very weak this morning, but it was thought the danger was past. Whipple is an unmarried man, and attempted his life in the same way nearly two years ago.

Returned from Kentucky.—To-day we met Elder Lewis Kelsch, who has just returned from a mission to the Southern States. He left here Oct. 8th, 1881. His field of labor was in Kentucky. He and associate Elders succeeded in opening two new fields. In Grayson County, 25 persons were added to the Church and several others have lately applied for baptism in Harden County, where the work is beginning to open up. The prospect in Warren County is also very encouraging. During the last seven or eight months of his ministry, Elder Kelsch presided over the Kentucky Conference. He is a resident of South Cottonwood. As a rule, he and the other brethren were very kindly treated by the people in Kentucky.

Dangerously Ill.—Brother Lewis Robison went up to Montpelier a few days ago to attend the funeral of his son, the late Bishop Robison. While there he was taken ill, and in consequence was unable to return to the city with H. M. D. H. Wells, who came back from Montpelier on Saturday morning. News comes from there now that Brother Robison was so feeble that but faint hopes of his recovery were entertained.

The Theatre and the Opera House were both jammed on Saturday night. Many were turned away unable to gain admittance.

From the Southern States.—

Elder John M. Easton, who left here on a mission to the Southern States, October 25th, 1881, arrived back on the evening of the 6th inst. He accompanied the body of Elder Charles E. Robinson, who died in York County, South Carolina, on the 28th of last September, from Whitaker station in that State to Montpelier, Idaho, where the family of the deceased reside. He reached there on the evening of the 3rd inst., and after delivering his charge to proper hands came down to the city in time to attend the closing part of Conference. While on his mission he labored in North and South Carolina, part of the time with Elder W. C. Burton, with whom he went soon after his arrival there, to open up a new field of labor in York County, South Carolina. He also labored in York and Cleveland Counties. During his mission 43 were added to the Church in that field, 19 of whom he baptized himself and assisted in baptizing 18 others. He enjoyed his labors and had good health, with the exception of about ten months in 1882, when he suffered considerably with chills and fever.

Elder William H. Joseph, of Adamsville, Beaver County, also called in this morning. He left home on the same date as Brother Easton and labored altogether in the State of Tennessee, in Claiborne, Campbell and Union Counties. He enjoyed good health most of the time. Last May he was attacked with pneumonia fever but was restored to health through the ministrations of the Elder. Spiritually he enjoyed his mission throughout. He operated successfully in conjunction with Elders James J. Adams, Joseph S. Hunter and Thomas Griffin. He strove diligently and did all he could, but the field was a hard one, and only six souls yielded obedience to the Gospel during the period of his ministry. When he left there, the prospects were somewhat brighter than before. He reached here on the morning of the 5th inst., and will start home this evening.

A Southern Trip.—Brother Wm. Bramall will shortly leave on a business trip through the settlements of Southern Utah in the interest of the News. We commend him to the good people of that section. Any courtesy shown that will aid him in accomplishing the object of his visit will be appreciated by this office as well as himself.

JOSHUA DAVIS'S TROUBLE.

Joshua Davis, No. Middletown, Ky., writes:

I am now using a box of your Henry's Carbolic Salve upon an ulcer, which, for the past ten days, has given me great pain. This salve is the only remedy I have found that has given me any ease. My ulcer was caused by varicose veins, and was pronounced incurable by my medical doctors. I find, however, that Henry's Carbolic Salve is affording a cure.

Baker's Pain Panacea cures pain in Man and Beast. For use externally and internally.
