Con-tinuing, the speaker added that the con-tents of the third Book of Nephi were worth far more to God's children than any new parables that might have been blaced within its folds. aby new parables that might have been placed within its folds. So important were they, in fact, that God saw fit to reveal them unto His children. The Book of Nephi recorded the fulfilment of the prophetic declarations of the Book of Helaman, which utbrances had special reference to the coming of Christ and to the convulsions of nature which should characterize His crucifix. The birth of the Savior was to be marked by a dispersion of darkness, a pleture which the speaker thought was not excelled in its appropriateness by anything in the former Gospels of the New Testament Testament.

New Testament. Elder Roberts cited some of the au-thors in support of Book of Mormon statements, and called attention to a picture which added much, he thought, to the story of Jesus Christ. This was His appearance to the Nephites in the land Bountiful in the northern part of South America, at which time a voice from heaven introduced Him as the Son rom heaven introduced Him as the Son if God, the Savior of the world. When He had spoken to them and announced mission they fell to the ground, for realized that His coming was in This, the speaker contended, was one of the most important pictures was one of the most important pictures ever drawn of Jesus Christ. $662 damages for the failure of defend-ant to deliver certain telegrams sent by plaintiffs within a reasonable time after-they had been received. By the neg-ligence of defendant in that respect plaintiffs were prevented from consum-mating the sale of some houses upon which they would have made $562. Judgment was rendered in their favor for that amount and this judgment has, for the second time, been affirmed by the supreme court.

CREDIT MEN'S ANNUAL

Business Meeting and Banquet Held In This City Saturday Night.

The annual meeting of the Utah Association of Credit Men was held Saturday at the Commercial club and résulted in the promulgation of extensive plans for the next year, for the good of the association.

The credit men contemplate chang-ing the law so that a merchant can-not sell out without notifying his creditors. They also desire changes that will make it easier to attach property will make it easter to attach property than it is at present. At the business meeting, the follow-ing officers were elected for the ensu-ing year: Orson H, Hewlett, president; John E. Clarke, Jr., vice president; C. L., Crockwell, treasurer; Leon Sweet, secretary; A. H. Parsons, Ed Rosen-baum, T. R. Black, John W. Delano and Willard Scoweroft, directors.

"Finally a doctor who is the most prominent physician in this part of the state told me medicine would do me no good only irritating my stomach and making it worse—that I must look to diet and quit drinking coffee. "I cried out in alarm, 'Quit drinking Coffee! why, what will I drink?" "Try Postum,' said the doctor, 'I drink it and you will like it when it is made according to directions, with cream, for it is delicious and has none of the bad effects coffee has." "Well, that was two years ago and I am still drinking Postum. My stomach is right again and I know doctor hit the nall on the head when he decided coffee was the cause of all my trouble. I only wish I had quit it years ago and drank Postum in its place." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Never too late to mend.
