NEWEST IDEAS IN LEATHER COODS.

There is just as much style to hand bags and purses as to a mushroom pattern bedecked in plumes and autumn trimmings.

The styles change. Some of the designs are extreme; some are conventional all are interesting.

Selection is largely a matter of taste. For a dollar and a quarter, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50 a very pretty assortment is offered. At $10.00, $12.00 or $15.00 beauties can be had—as striking as are to be seen in an afternoon's walk on Fifth Avenue.

There's never been a more exquisite assortment of styles.

We show French creations, New York adaptations from the French, domestic masterpieces and our own ingenious designs.

Many of our own workroom inventions are winning the admiration of neat dressers who are content with a hat moderately priced.

We make a special hat at $10.00. It has the style of a $15.00 model. Shown in navy blue and brown felt with full trimming around the crown about which are clustered beautiful shaded roses and velvet foliage; a smart wing for a side trimming.

Another stunning hat is designed in our workroom. It is a handsome brown felt with a full trimming of French velvet, broad wings and fancy stick pins.

Unquestionably we show the best $7.50 hat in the city.

Fall and Autumn Boots and Oxfords.

There is nothing better than Wright & Peters. They possess style, elegance and wearing qualities.

Because their prettiness and style are not won at the expense of comfort.

Because every pair conforms to the foot—fits neatly—and is to be seen in every graceful line of the shoe.

Because they are distinctive, individual because they harmonize with the hands and suit.

Because they wear well always look well. Cloth tops in buttons and lace prevail to a great extent.

Tans in Russia calf and cloth top. Patents in new short vamps—stubby effects.

French and Cuban heels higher than ever.

Now that the short skirt is in vogue it is imperative that the foot be neatly clad.

THERE'S QUALITY TO OUR CANDY.

You know nearly all popular priced chocolates are 60 cents the pound.

We know where you can get the very grade of chocolates for 50 cents—just as good as the 60 cent and some insist that its better.

The quality is fine—made for our particular trade—and richly packed. Just say K. O. B. at the counter.
