LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Commercial club gave a fine Christmas dinner yesterday, from noon until 1 p. m.

The annual party for the children of the Seventh ward Sunday school will take place in the rectory house tomorrow, Wednesday, afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock.

The express companies running into this city, have not suffered any by the burning out of the New York Transportation company's offices where thousands of Christmas presents went up in smoke.

The Thirtieth ward Sunday school held its annual party in the ward house on Monday. The hall was beautifully decorated and the children enjoyed themselves with a program and the receipt of Christmas presents.

The rush in the outgoing mails has let up, with the passing of Christmas, and the rush is now with the incoming mails which are growing larger and larger. The size of the mails generally continues to be a record breaker.

The following college men have been elected to membership in the University club: Leigh Allan, Matt Brodie, W. E. Belcher, D. M. Boyd, D. L. Cox, C. A. Cohn, G. J. Freund, A. Gore, D. M. Gullotte, T. L. Genter, J. A. Howell, H. D. Heist, J. J. Hartz, W. C. Jennings, C. F. Moore, W. N. Rossberg, George Sutherland, J. A. Stretz, W. R. Tyndale, P. P. Taylor, J. C. Taylor, J. G. Williams.

The feast at Fort Douglas yesterday was just what each company desired to make it, as the independent mess system is in vogue, and each company was at liberty to supplement the ration with provisions bought by the company funds annually since the organization of the army, and has now come to be regarded as a regularly established institution. The possums came from Missouri.

The lumber yards are very active receiving consignments ordered before the raise in prices of Thursday, and in stocking up for the biggest spring trade in the history of local lumber yards. Architects and building men generally express themselves as sure of a remarkable era during the coming year in building operations. The lumbermen are finding it easier now to get cars, so that the effects of the recent car famine are wearing away.

There was an attempted holdup of a drunken man on a second ward street Sunday midnight, which failed of realization because of the sudden appearance of a citizen and his wife on the scene of action. The robber had his victim down on the ground, and was "going through him" when the couple came along. The woman screamed and ran, and this so unnerved the holdup that he left his gun and ran also. The woman's husband declared he never ran and was not frightened at all; but this his friends refused to believe. The drunken man wobbled home.

The fine large edifice destined to become the miners' home, and which was built through the munificence of Mrs. Judge on the east bench, may be delayed in occupancy until the details attendant on the completion of the new Catholic cathedral are provided for. Mrs. Judge has turned the home over to Bishop Scallan, but the bishop has his hands full in looking after the cathedral and is for the present unable to supervise the raising of funds necessary to furnish and equip the miners' home. However, it is understood that later on Mrs. Judge will present the home with a suitable endowment for maintenance.

"SENT TO THE CHAIR."

Warden Pratt of State Prison Gets Handsome Christmas Present.

Warden Arthur Pratt of the state prison was given a genuine and very pleasant Christmas surprise party yesterday, when he was called to the office from his apartments, by the announcement that a gentleman down there wanted to see him. The warden, imagining that some visiting prisoner of official was making a call, summoned the down stairs into the office where he was surprised at attention, and "within the charmed circle" a fine large easy chair handsomely upholstered in leather. This chair was immediately presented to the warden as a Christmas present with the compliments of the season and he best wishes of the guards.

Warden Pratt was entirely taken by surprise, and it was several moments before recovering his bearings and getting back onto an even keel. He then thanked the guards sincerely for this substantial token of their regard, and the exchange of compliments of the day showed the strong sympathetic feeling existing between them.

Not a minute should be lost when a cold shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even when the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

STILL PRAISING THE CHRISTMAS NEWS.

Toole Transcript.—The Christmas edition of the Deseret News reached its table last Sunday, and is really the best holiday number yet issued by the "News," and that is saying a great deal in a few words. There are 116 pages of profusely illustrated articles on Utah, Idaho and Nevada. This is the largest edition of any holiday paper we have ever seen, and beats its own former record 16 pages. This last Christmas edition proves that not only has the editorial departments reached the front ranks of careful work, but that the workmen stand at the very head of their profession. Send a copy to your friends.

Montpelier, (Ida.) Examiner: The Christmas edition of the Deseret News, issued last Saturday, contained 116 pages, and surpassed all previous Christmas editions of that paper. Aside from the usual telegraphic news, the issue was devoted to a general review of the progress made during the past year in Idaho, Utah and Nevada. From a typographical standpoint, the paper throughout was superb, and reflects great credit upon the skill of the "News" mechanical force.

The Register, Idaho Falls: The Christmas edition of the Salt Lake Deseret News was one of the greatest papers ever published in that city. There were 120 pages of it in sections of different colors and a beautiful cover. It contained an immense amount of information about Utah, Idaho and Nevada. It was certainly a great paper.

Raymond, Chronicle, Alberta, Canada: A mammoth was dropped into our office this morning in the shape of the Christmas Deseret News. As usual it is full of the most interesting matter, and the frontispiece is a beauty. The paper is a paper like that takes energy and brains. The "News" has both to burn, and the production of an issue like this means that both are being burnt.

Eureka Reporter: The Christmas issue of the Deseret News which was published last Saturday, came up to the high standard established by that paper. As usual the Tintie district was given a very liberal and creditable write-up, covering over a page and containing two large half-tone cuts of Eureka. Several hundred copies of the issue were sold by local news dealers and as most of them were purchased by people who have mailed them to friends elsewhere they cannot help but benefit the district and state.

To draw the fire out of a burn, heal a cut without leaving a scar, or to cure boils, sores, tetter, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases, use Dr. Williams' Hazel Salve. BIG TIME IN MAY.

Shriner's Choose Officers and Representatives to Imperial Council.

The Nobles of the Mystic Shrine chose officers the other evening, as follows: Potentate, J. M. Marriott (re-elected); chief rabban, S. D. Evans; assistant rabban, S. W. Baden; high priest and prophet, W. M. Rice; oriental guide, Charles W. Morse; treasurer, R. L. Conely; deacon, W. J. Burdette; ceremonial master, J. H. Brown; second assistant ceremonial master, John Krumholz; captain of the guard, C. H. Fischer; order guard, Dan Dunn; representatives to the imperial council to be held at Los Angeles in May, J. M. Marriott and Dr. H. N. Mayo.

The Salt Lake Shriners propose to "turn themselves loose" in the way of entertaining at that time, as they figure that some 20,000 people will journey this way, and things will be "going some" about that time. Special after special will be running in from the east, so that the bathing resorts and the railroad people and hotels will have plenty of patronage.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than thirty years as the most successful medicine in use for cold, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by all druggists.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON.

Remains of Pres. C. D. Fiedelsted Will Be Taken to Logan for Interment.

The funeral of President Christian D. Fiedelsted was held in the Salt Lake Assembly hall at a late hour this afternoon. There was a large attendance and the services throughout were deeply impressive. This evening the remains will be taken to Logan where at 1 p. m. tomorrow further services will be held with interment in the Logan cemetery. The First Council of Seventies, of which body deceased was a member, will accompany the remains of their departed associate to that city. In connection with the death of President Fiedelsted, the following telegram was received from President Smith yesterday:

North Adams, Mass. Dec. 25, 1905. "Geo. Reynolds, President's Office, Salt Lake City: "In behalf of the entire company who are with me, we extend condolence to the family of President Fiedelsted."

NEW HYMN BOOK AND PSALMODY.

A new edition of the L. D. S. Hymn Book (the twenty-fourth), revised under the direction of the Church Authorities, has just been issued by the Deseret News. Many improvements will be observed. The names of the authors, as far as they could be ascertained, have been appended to each hymn. Special type was selected for the edition, to secure a large, plain and bold print, without increasing the size of the book. Thirteen new selected hymns have been added to the collection, among which are "Onward, Christian Soldier," "Peace Be Still," "Rock of Ages," "Abide With Me," the two National anthems, "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner," and several others.

NEW PSALMODY.

A new edition of the L. D. S. Psalmody has been issued to correspond with the revised Hymn Book. It also contains the music for the additional thirteen hymns. New plates have been made throughout. The book, though enlarged in its number of pages, has been somewhat reduced in form, making it more convenient for choir use. The price has also been reduced in the various binds, as follows: Cloth, $1.25; half leather, $1.50; limp leather, $1.75; and full morocco gilt, $2.50. Both Hymn Book and Psalmody are now ready at the Deseret News Book Store.
