THE SKOOKUM CASE.

Judge Morgan at Wallace, Ida., Makes Important Ruling.

Wallace, Idaho, June 26.—Judge Morgan of the district court today denied the application of the Chemung Mining Company to enjoin the Bingham Mine from collecting $400,000 judgment awarded him by federal courts in his suit against the Empire State Mining company. Charles Sweeney and F. Lewis Clark, involving ownership of one-eighty interests in the Skookum mine. He also denied an application for the appointment of a receiver.

The Skookum case is one of the most celebrated mining suits ever brought in Idaho. It has been in federal courts several years. The supreme court of the United States decided in Hanley's favor and an execution for $100,000 judgment has been issued by the federal courts.
