Fuseral of Levi D. Hammond at Roy-Death of William E. Conlin.

A special meeting of the city council was held last night, at which the names of Mrs. Dr. Gordon, Mrs. Evelyn West, and A. P. Bigelow were submitted by the mayor and confirmed members of the library board. Mrs. S. Emerson and Daniel Hamer retiring.

The resignation of Jos. Bott as police officer was submitted, and accepted. With the exception of a few other unimportant matters, the meeting was devoted to the consideration of the new revised city ordinances, which progressed very satisfactorily.

OPENING OF PINGREE BANK.

The Pingree National bank opened its doors yesterday morning at 10 o'clock for business, with James Pin-10 o'clock for business, with James Fin-gree as cashier and receiving teller; James Riley as paying teller, and Pearl Dallmore as stenographer and book-keeper. The bank opened in a most fattering manner, much to the satis-facion of the officers. In a conversa-tion with a "News" representative last unable. Coshier Pingree stated that evening, Cashier Pingree stated that the deposits received during the day were much greater than had been ex-pected, many of the leading business houses giving the bank at least a por-tion of their business, also private cap-tialists placed their money o. deposit. The bank's location, Washington ave-me and Twenty-fifth street, is one of the finest in the city, and its office fix-tures and furnishings are very elegant. The bank is capitalized for $175,000, and the incorporators are all but one well known and influential Ogden business men. The names of the officers of the
