Theater-The sale of seats for Walter Damrosch and the New York Symphony orchestra, began at the Salt Lake theater box office yesterday with excellent indications.

Orpheum-An unusually large audince assembled at the Orpheum last night and many of those who were there will go again. And they will go to see again the magnificent act offered by Jean Marcel and his 18 artists' models, as the closing number of a bill of surpassing excellence with which the audeville season at the State street ouse of mirth closes this week. Ar idequate criticism of this act is imobssible in a brief comment. Composed of a company of models of ideal phy-sique, and under the direction of the master hand of Marcel, this act offers life reproductions of classics in art. The bas relief replicas of the Marathon, Les olontirs, Aux Armes and Music stand Volontifs, Aux Armes and Music stand forth as wonderful achievements in posing and lighting, the last mentioned feature being under the direction of Earl Depoy. The posing of the charac-ters of the Angelus and Evangeline and the Harvesters is a triumph, the beau-tles of the originals being followed with a praction that is mearkable. merit record breaking audiences at the Orpheum this week. Of the other numbers it truthfully may be said that they are all good. Harry Tsuda, a Japanese equilibrist, is in a class of his own. Davis and Walk-er offer a dancing act that is quite well done, except that it is a mistake to have the girl attempt singing. Wilbur Mack and Nella Walker offer a musical firtation that is a little success all by itself. Fred Sosman, a singing comeitself. Fred Sosman, a singing come-dian, was handlcapped last night. His costumes were somewhere in a bag-gage car on the Great American des-gage car on the Great American des-ert. If he can do better in costume than he did last night he will surely be a candidate for headliner honors. Orth and Fern captivate the audience in a rapid fire assault on the muse of mirth in a care-free style that will be hard to distance. They are good all the way through. Wagner's "Lohengrin" and Wallace's "Maritana" are played by the orchestra, and both were liberally ap-plauded last night. The kinodrome is full of fun in three films.

Grand-The bill at the Grand this week is hardly up to the standard set by the Burgess company, either as a play or in the manner in which it was Model," is written from a series of im-probabilities, if not impossibilities, with scarcely sufficient woof to hold the warp together. The personality of the leading members of the cast, Miss ormed. Nellie, the Beautiful Warp together. The personality of the leading members of the cast, Miss Marke, Mr. Noble and others, rather than the play, elicited the recognition of the audience. The offering for next week will be "The House of Mystery," which promises to be something out of the ordinary in the way of a dramatic sensation sensation.

Whereas, the flag is dear to all Amer-can citizens, many of whom have pour-d out their blood for the safety of the lean citizens, many of whom have pour-ed out their blood for the safety of the nation it represents; and. Whereas, the adoption of this emblem was an important event, to be counted among the epoch-making acts of our national Congress; Now, therefore, I, John C. Cutler, governor of the State of Utah, do here-by designate Monday, June 15, 1908, as Flag day, to be observed in commemor-ation of the auspicious event. I recommend that on that day the na-tional colors be displayed on all public and private buildings; and that, so far as practicable, business be suspended, and exercises appropriate to the occa-sion be conducted by various organiza-tions. Especially is it desirable that the children throughout the state be impressed with the meaning of the day, and taught the lesson of loyalty and patriotism and the beauty of the flag's symbolism, by the holding of exercises under the auspicles of the public schools.
