NEW NAMES ADDED TO THE NEWS SUBSCRIPTION LISTS

from January 1, 1809, to Saturday, September S,

I ask you, Mr. Editor, in justice to a purely impocent young worran, to per-mit space for the following facts: First, the reason Miss Swanson did not appear was that her minister and Mr. Vernoh came to her and she was given to understand that he had ac-acowiedged himself guilty of all she had accused him, and he, in the pres-ence of witnesses, asked her forgive-ness, and she, in a truly Christian spirit, forgave him. She was ready, and willing, to go to the court room and bear evidence in the case, at the time appointed, and only for the acknowiname that was on it was shown to bim. The judge told Rasmusson that if he would pay the bill he would let him go, so he signed the check, the bill. ($10) was paid, the balance of the money was paid, the balance of the money was turned over to him and he was discharged. Rogers' testimony was corroborated by the justice and the two other defendants. Davis said that the only thing he had to do with the affair was to watch Rasmussen when he left town, that he neight tell Naylor which way he had gone. appointed, and only for the acknow edgement she would have been there he had gone The defense contended that a case of Every word the young woman ut-tered against Vernon was true and she robbery could not be made, as there must be an intent to rob, and in this was willing to tell it to the court. An-other thing, Mr. Editor, the young lady instance it was clear that there was no was never employed as a bouskeeper for the fellow, but as a companion to his daughter, Essie, who is one year her senior. I can swear to the above being the absolute facts for I am persuch purpose The judge granted that the men had pursued the wrong course in collecting the debt, but there was no element of robbery and grand larceny in the case, sonally acquainted with them, and I know if you will permit the publication of it, you will do justice to an innocent young woman who unfortunately, and and the defendants were therefore discharged. young woman who unfortunately, and without her own seeking, got mixed up in the disgraceful affair, and who is as truthful and pure as any living being, but not through the will of the said Vernon who would no doubt have des-troyed her henor. The soothing and healing propertie In the meantime, he says, that Mrs. The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have-made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it al-ways affords quick relief, and as it contains no oplum or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Naylor swore to a complaint before Justice Merriott, charging Rasmussen with obtaining his board under false Witness said that Rasmussen was taken before the justice, and when first shown the check said that it was not his, but admitted that it was when his HERES

Drunken Brawt on Commercial Street iu Which a Man is Stabbed.

Early this morning Charles E. Hunt, a laborer, became engaged in a row with George Fife with whom he had been out drinking and stabbed him in-the left dreast. The trouble occurred in front of a saloon on Commercial street. It appears that Hunt owed Fife 20 cents and when the latter asked him for it be became enraged, pulled out a knife and charged on Fife. Fife fan up the street after being cut, yelling for help. Officer Wilbeing cut, yearing for help. Oncer Wil-liams soon appeared on the scene and captured Hunt. Both men were taken over to the city hall and Hunt was locked up on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Fife's wound was bandaged and he was permitted to sleep on a cot in a hock room. He says he on a cot in a back room. He says he here from San Francisco several

Demand For Feeding Sheep and Young Stock Continues Active and Strong - Heavy Receipts.

Special Correspondence. Chicago, Sept. 10.-Clay, Robinson & Co. write: "The receipts today are estimated at 20,000. There were but few strictly choice lambs included, which sold readily at strong to a shade higher prices than at the close of last week The very best range lambs are quotable at $5.50 to $5.60, but bulk of the good lambs sold today at $5.25 to $5.40, with fair to good grades $4.90 to $5.10 and feeding lambs $4.50 to $4.60. The offerfeeding lambs $4.50 to $4.60. The offer-ings today consisted largely of common to fair lambs, and the percentage of sheep was rather small. The good sheep, both mutton and feeding grades, sold strong to 10 cents higher. We sold a few choice sheep at $3.90 to $4.00, which was extreme top of the market. We quote a few of our sales of western sheep and lambs today as follows: "J. H. Stewart, (Idaho), 26 wethers.
