ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC BARBECUE

Judge Thurman Speaks in Peru, Indiana.

PERU, Ind., Oct. 18.—Judge Thurman and party arrived this morning to attend the big barbecue. Crowds have been coming into the city from early this morning. The rain, however, drives many within doors. On the way up town Thurman was greeted with cheers by the multitude from beneath dripping umbrellas. He was taken at once to the Opera House, which was packed with an enthusiastic audience who greeted him with protracted applause.

The little Opera House in which Judge Thurman spoke has seats for 600 or 700 and double that number crowded into it until the balcony became dangerously overcrowded. On the streets an immense throng watched the "float" procession that carried party mottoes to the delight of the spectators. It is estimated fully 5,000 people were in town during the day. Judge Thurman began his speech by complimenting the crowd on its size and saying it was a healthy indication of how Indiana would go in November. If the Indiana democrats did their duty Grover Cleveland would be the next President.

He then proceeded to discuss the tariff and the question of the surplus, following the line of argument pursued last night at Fort Wayne. His audience gave the closest attention, and showed a keen appreciation of the points made in the speech.

Continuing he charged the republican speakers with making bold and audacious attempts to deceive the people, in their high protective tariff speeches. He cited as one instance the claim made by them that this tariff tax is not paid by the American consumer, but by the foreign exporters; that he pays it for the privilege of bringing his goods here. He wanted to know if this was the case why all other taxes were not abolished. Why not collect all taxes, state and county, for government purposes from these foreigners? he asked. Why not say to the people of Europe, "You shall support our government. You shall, in the guise of tariff duties, furnish all the means that are necessary to support the American government." How long would it be, he asked, before they would say: "Well, what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander." They would say to you farmers, he went on to say, who would send of your wheat to Europe and your pork and beans and the like, "You send all those things to our country to be sold and you shall pay such a duty and such a tariff as will support our government and then we will see who comes out best in the long run." How would you like that? asked the speaker. How would you like to support the immense standing armies of the European countries? He predicted that the American farmer would not stand it one day.

Immediately at the conclusion of his speech, which lasted thirty-five minutes, Judge Thurman was driven to the depot and rested quietly in his private car. A large crowd was on hand to see him and he came out three times to chat with them. Judge Thurman and Governor Gray talked for some time to the crowd and to reporters, being fresh and breezy and greatly delighting the people. The train pulled out at 3:35 p.m. for Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 18.—Judge Thurman and party arrived here a few minutes before 9 o'clock, the train being two hours and a half late. It was a heavily loaded train, eight cars being literally jammed with enthusiastic, cheering democratic humanity, whose shouts gave response to the greetings of the people along the way. The Judge will remain here quietly at the Durand Hotel until Saturday morning, when he will go to Brazil to close his Indiana campaign. No speech will be made in this city, no hall of sufficient size being obtainable.

MR. MORTON.

He Addresses a Body of Republican Clubs.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 18.—There was an immense demonstration at Rhine Cliff tonight, the occasion being the visit of various republican clubs to Levi P. Morton. Fully 5000 were present. On arriving at Mr. Morton's residence the clubs were massed on the lawn on the north side of the house. George Esselstein of Rhinebeck, as chairman, welcomed the clubs and presented them to Mr. Morton, who spoke as follows:

"Mr. Esselstein, Friends and Neighbors:—Illuminated demonstrations of this magnitude are of rare occurence in quiet country towns, and the surprise of the people of Rhinebeck can, I think, only be compared to that of the red men of the forest when the Pilgrim Fathers landed on Plymouth Rock, or when Hendrick Hudson's boat made its first trip up the Hudson River. So I have great pleasure in greeting you with a cordial welcome, and beg to assure you of my grateful appreciation of the honor conferred on me by your visit. Beyond welcoming you here in the best terms at my command I do not see that there is much to be said. You are all republicans and no arguments therefore are needed either to convert you to those principles or strengthen a wavering faith in them and it so happens that within the party there are no questions upon which the republicans differ. There is nothing in our platform that calls for explanations or diplomatic excuses, and there are neither party cliques nor sectional factions. Therefore we have no politics to talk about this evening. We can felicitate ourselves and others upon the harmony which pervades the republican party and the element of strength which such unity of sentiment and purpose so closely betokens. You probably know that the republicans of every other county in the State are working in as complete harmony as in this. With this harmony and unanimity of sentiment and action, what is the result that we may reasonably expect to achieve at the polls? There are among you many who spent the flower of their youth in the battle for freedom, and you can practically estimate the battle of close masses when entering a conflict. Your experience will teach you that organizations such as the large number present tonight, are effective and powerful agencies in a campaign. But, my friends, industrious and personal work is equally important. Only a few days remain for effective work before the verdict must be given, which, in my judgment, will have a far-reaching effect on the future of the country. The absorbing question at this time is whether the verdict will favor the advance of those principles of protection for which the republicans have always contended and which have placed this country at the head of the industrial nations. With such complete harmony in our ranks, such unison in sentiment, action and in expectation, we may await the result with confidant assurance."

Annexation Ridiculed.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Hon. J. O. Chapleau, Secretary of State, was banquetted tonight by the Workingmen's Conservative Association. He ridiculed the idea of annexation, and said true Englishmen and French-Canadians would never permit it to take place. He denies trying to bully Americans.

Sir John MacDonald said there is no danger of war between Canada and the United States. He felt hopeful of a satisfactory settlement of the fishery question. Canada is in a critical position and must be cool.

POLITICAL NOTES.

At Tippecanoe Battleground—Blaine at Chicago.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., October 18.—The second day of the republican demonstration at the Tippecanoe battleground can hardly be called a success. From early morning rain fell steadily, and by 1:30, when the speaker at the tabernacle began, the crowd dwindled to less than 3,000. Ira J. Chase, candidate for lieutenant-governor of Indiana, Colonel Lawn of Atlanta, Georgia, and others, entertained the crowd until Hon. Robert T. Lincoln of Chicago was announced. Shortly after 1 o'clock Mr. Lincoln was introduced as the eldest son of our martyred President, Abraham Lincoln, and was greeted with generous applause. He spoke for an hour, confining his remarks mainly to a discussion of the tariff. While he was speaking a cannon announced the arrival of Governor Foraker, who took a seat on the platform until the close of Lincoln's speech. Quite an ovation was tendered the governor when he arose. He devoted himself almost entirely to an attack on Mr. Thurman's position on the tariff. He was frequently applauded. At 3 o'clock the speaking and celebration ended together.

AT BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.—Speaker Carlisle, Congressmen McMillan, Willis and Hooker addressed tonight the largest political meeting ever held in this city. Letters of regret were read from President Cleveland and Judge Thurman.

CLEVELAND.

It is stated on good authority that the President has promised to visit New York before the election and review a parade of business men of that city, but it is not his intention to speak.

HEWITT AND THE PRESIDENT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Mayor Hewitt, speaking about his feeling toward President Cleveland, said, today:

There is no coolness between President Cleveland and myself or Edward Cooper. I see no reason why I should not go to see Cleveland, or why he should not call on me. He has repeatedly invited me to dine with him, but on every occasion I have been sick and could not accept.

BLAINE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Hon. James G. Blaine remained in his room at the Grand Pacific today, and received no callers. He will remain here till Saturday evening, when he will address a meeting at Battery D Armory. Local republicans are making preparations for a great demonstration on that occasion.

Will not Prosecute Dr. MacKenzie.

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—The National Zeitung says that Drs. Bergmann and Gerbhardt have declined to adopt the suggestion to have the public prosecutor indict Dr. MacKenzie and the German publisher of his book for libel. They declare that Dr. MacKenzie's statements will recoil on himself and are therefore anxious that his book be given the fullest publicity.

Professor Virchow in an interview with a representative of the Vossische Zeitung protests against Dr. MacKenzie's attempt to throw the responsibility upon him. He said he had not been summoned to see Emperor Frederick. The autopsy, he added, showed that the disease was more deeply seated than the tumor from which Dr. MacKenzie removed a particle for examination.

The police of Berlin have seized all the English and French copies of Dr. MacKenzie's book.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Dr. Mackenzie has issued a statement refuting the assertions of Prof. Virchow and Dr. Waldeyer. He says the abscess was a diffusion, and that, as usual in case of dying persons, the secretion of pus was arrested during the last few days. Dr. Howell corroborates the statements of Mackenzie.

Prof. Bergmann does not object to fighting a duel with Dr. Mackenzie.

Dr. Mackenzie denies that the Empress Frederick saw the proofs of his book before it was published.

Floods in Greece.

ATHENS, Oct. 18.—Railway traffic through the country is impeded by heavy floods. The Megarean plain has been converted into a lake, and the railroads on both sides of Nogara have been destroyed for a distance of 12 miles.

A Big Firm Fails.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Nathan Corwith & Co., the great high lead firm and promoters of the gigantic pig lead trust or corner, have failed. The immediate cause of the collapse was the refusal of the Union National Bank of Chicago to extend time on overdrafts to the amount of $89,000. This sum will represent a very small portion of the firm's indebtedness to the bank, and is only the climax to a large series of overdrafts to pay margins which were for the pig lead trust. The liabilities run into the millions, and the assets cannot now be approximated.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The third annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew opened this morning, and almost 200 delegates listened to the address of welcome delivered by Bishop Potter. The roll of cities represented was called for credentials, and when a fine looking man answered for Salt Lake, Utah, there was applause. The following officers were elected: Edmund Billings, of Boston, president; F. C. Cutler, Marion, Ga., first vice president; W. S. Mather, Cleveland, Ohio, second vice-president; H. B. Silla, New York, third vice-president; John W. Kennedy, Omaha, secretary, and W. H. Sturgis, Chicago, assistant secretary.

Emperor Frederick's Mausoleum.

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—The foundation stone of the mausoleum of Emperor Frederick at Potsdam was laid at 2:30 p. m. in the presence of the Empress, Dowager Empress Victoria and her daughters, the Duke of Spana and others.

Prince Frederick Leopold of Saxe-Meiningen read an address on the objects of the memorial.

The municipal authorities presented an address to Empress Frederick, stating that in grateful memory of Emperor Frederick's efforts to develop the capital of the empire, the people desired to found an institution to perpetuate his memory and that 235,000 would be granted for the purpose. The precise objects of the proposed institution would be left to the discretion of the Empress, the noble partner of Emperor Frederick in his efforts for the people's welfare and enlightenment and they were confident that she was best fitted to carry out the Emperor's wish.

The Empress appeared deeply moved and expressed her heartfelt thanks and said she would do her utmost to make the institute useful.

That Collision.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Oct. 18.—A fatal wreck occurred on the Cumberland Valley Railroad near Shippensburg this morning. Trains No. 14 and 9, collided at a sharp curve in the road, telescoping the cars and completely demolishing the engines. The officials of the road here are very reticent in the matter, and refuse to state anything of the causes. From the train men, the following particulars are learned: Both trains were late, and the conductor of No. 9 coming south, received orders to run to Shippensburg and pass No. 14. The conductor of No. 14 says he received orders at Shippensburg to run to Thirty-eight mile siding between Shippensburg and Newville and there meet and pass No. 9. Acting on these orders he left Shippensburg and within three miles met the incoming train. The engineer of No. 9 saw the smoke of the other train around the curve and shut off the steam and applied the air brakes but before he could stop both trains came together with a crash. The boiler of one engine was driven over five feet into the other. The express cars of both trains were driven back and completely telescoped the baggage cars. Baggagemaster Chas. Bitner of Harrisburg, was caught between the cars and so horribly mangled that he died a short time after being cut out of the wreck. Conductors Linn and Bowman are both seriously injured, and many of the passengers received injuries, though no serious ones. The mail cars caught fire and considerable mail was destroyed.

MR. T. C. GRIGGS,

Assistant Leader of Music at the Tabernacle and Manager of the Fifteenth Ward Co-op., Salt Lake City, says:

While camping at City Creek Cañon, my wife discovered that our youngest child had become deaf, and notified me to come immediately, so as to take them home. It seemed to me almost improbable, for when they left home her hearing was perfect; but all our endeavors to make her hear seemed fruitless.

We brought the child home to this city, thinking the deafness only transitory, but the general health of the little one became impaired and a rash covered her head, face and neck.

Seeing that time did not help the case, as she was rapidly growing worse, about the 15th of September we were recommended by Mr. Sears to Drs. Wheeler & Hasbrouck, as he thought they would give us an honest diagnosis and that their treatment would cure the child. Acting upon his advice, we consulted the doctors; they gave us hopes of restoring the child's health and hearing.

After three weeks she is restored to hearing, the rash has disappeared, and her general health is better than for many weeks.

Drs. Wheeler & Hasbrouck are located at 260 S. Main Street, Raybould's Block. Catarrh and chronic diseases.
