S. L. FRANT:
"Dear Sir—I have pleasure in replying to your notice an extraordinary one of this, which I have been for 23 years, and tried all kinds of medical advice, and without any benefit, but after being under treatment a short time
I am perfectly cured with thanks
I hereby publish this if you think proper."
Remain, Sir, yours respectfully,

S. L. FRANT:
"Dear Sir—I have much pleasure
in replying to your notice a few of these Ladies performed on my stage after being under you five years, and desire to recommend you that are afflicted to come to my theatrical delay. My nephew is suffering, and had been afflicted for months. Any doubting, a fine cure will receive prompt attention."

DR. SCHENCK'S STANDARD REM-EDIES.
The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are Schenck's
Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea
Breeze Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure
is effected.
These three medicines Dr. J.
Schenck, of Philadelphia, obtained success in the treatment of all these diseases.
The Pulmonic Syrup dispels the mucous matter in the lungs, nature expels it by an easy expectora-tion, and when the phlegm or mucous is dry, a slight cough will drive it off, the patient has rest and sleep begins to take.
To cure the Pulmonic Syrup to Schenck's Mandrake Pills
and Sea Breeze Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the lungs and liver. Schenck's Mandrake acts on the liver, removes all obstructions, relaxes the gall-stones, warms freely, and restores the worn nature.
Schenck's Sea Breeze Tonic is composed of natural and alterative;
it is composed of which it is composed of the food and prevents
it. It assists the digestion by acting on the stomach to a healthy state, so that the food and the Pulmonic Syrup will make good the lungs, heal the lung, and the lungs will get well if care
is taken to prevent further cold.
To have Dr. Schenck to consult Dr. Schenck, send personally or by mail, can do so at his principal office, corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday.
Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.

Weather Report.—The following weather report was received over the wires of the Deseret Telegraph yesterday—

Payson—Cold and clear.
Provo—Pleasant, but cold.
Fountain Green—Sun shining, but the snow was about eighteen inches deep yesterday.
Rich, George—Clear and pleasant.
Fillmore—Pleasant.
Beaver—Cloudy, and looks like storm.
Silver Reef—Cloudy; but pleasant.
Cedar City—Very cloudy and the winds are muggy.
Pibche—Cloudy and cold.
Logan—Cold, kind of cloudy weather, looks rather unsettled.
Paris—Cloudy and cool, with the appearance of a storm soon.
Franklin—Cold and cloudy.
Ogden—Warm and cloudy, just dropped snowing.
Kayville—Snow has covered the ground, clearing off now.
Toquerville—Cloudy, looks like storm here.
Roy—Fine.
Nephi—Warm and pleasant, very much cleared last night.
Mount Pleasant—Clear, a little snow, not very light.
Parowan—There has been frost every night for several days, almost it killed off here.
Kanab—Clear and cold, heavy snow the last two days.
Cove Creek—Cloudy, every appearance of storm, hard frost last night.
Corinne—Clear, rather cool, light snow.

Distinguished Literary Party.—Mr. Frank Leslie and staff, the celebrated New York publisher, whose works are known and read in every part of the civilized world, arrived in the City last evening, in one of Pullman's Palace hotel cars, named "President." Mr. Franklin accompanied the party as conductor. They left Chicago at 10:30 last Monday, and from Cheyenne they came to Denver, by the Denver and Pacific Railroad, visiting the Hot Springs in that vicinity. Returning to Cheyenne they came direct to Ogden and from there here, stopping only a sufficient time on the route to make sketches of the more interesting objects and scenery met with.

To-day the artists of the company have been visiting the more conspicuous points in the city, executing sketches, and the rapidity with which they are made under their skillful hands is really surprising.

The party consists of Mr. Frank Leslie and wife, Mr. Hecky and wife, Mrs. Davis, Mr. Hamilton, clerk, business manager, Mr. Henning ("Jack Hawkway"), Mr. Rice, Mr. Curley, Mr. Austin, photographer, and Mr. Ogden and Mr. Yaeger, sketching artists.

The company were to leave this afternoon, at 5:30, proceeding to San Francisco direct, purposing to stop in California for about two months.

The results of the observations of the party, reduced to literary and artistic productions, will be published in the periodicals issued by Mr. Leslie, in which they will doubtless be an interesting feature for some time.

The party take their meals on the "President," the accommodation of which, considering the necessarily limited space, are as good as could be desired.

lost—Miss C. C. Allen has lost on the street two letters, just received from the post-office, one addressed to herself and the other to her daughter. If the finder will leave them at the News office, he will be doing a favor.

Stormy.—Three or four inches of snow yesterday morning and more driving from the north. A thorough winter's morning to look at. Fine afternoon and snow all gone.

In Defence.—Elder A. M. Musser writes to the Columbia (Pa.) Spz, April 14, in relation to that bogus order.

Sudden Death at Hyrum.

The usual quail of our city was broken on Monday last, by word that Carl Peter Westerber, one of our respected citizens, had been found dead on the range, and in a short time the body was brought home.

An inquest was held by James McBride, J. P., on Tuesday the 17th, at the residence of the deceased, when the following evidence was given:

Rebecca Elizabeth Westerber said: The deceased is my husband, he is thirty-five years of age; he left home about 9 a. m. on Monday, the 16th inst., in his usual health. He was wearing the shirt to which I did not see him again until he was brought home dead. We have been married over six years. He has fallen down many times as though he were dead, and then complained of pains in the head and around the heart. He said to me that if he should have an attack and be alone, he would die. We have always lived very happy together.

Reuben Christiansen said—I was over the river yesterday morning on horseback. I saw Mr. Westerber on the range. He asked me to let him ride my horse. I did so. He looked sick. I then sat down to wait while, and when I stood up I saw that my horse had no rider. I went to catch the horse, when I saw Mr. Westerber lying on the ground upon his back; he was very still. I called to him, but he did not answer. After a while my father came. I am eight years old.

Lars Christiansen said—I am building a house over Little Bear Hill. I went out to buy lumber at 10 a. m. on Monday, the 16th inst., and when on the way I saw the deceased; he was on his back, dead. I called to Willard Booth, and asked him to watch the body while I went to the town for assistance. As I was coming home I met a man and team, who kindly took the deceased home. My horse is a very gentle animal.

Rebecca Elizabeth said I reside at Wellsville. I was hunting horses on the range on Monday last. Mr. Christiansen called me; I went over to where he was, and saw the deceased. At the request of Mr. Christiansen I went to the body until it was removed in the wagon.

Augustus Westerber said: Deceased is my brother. He left home about 9 a. m. yesterday morning on horseback, and came home at about breakfast together. I afterwards heard that he was dead on the range. I assisted to bring him home. My father died suddenly, in a similar manner to my brother. He was returned the following verdict—

Territory of Utah,
Precinct of Hyrum,
County of Cache. }

An inquisition, holden in Hyrum Precinct, Cache Co., on the 17th day of April, A. D. 1877, before James McBride, Esq., Justice of the Peace in said Precinct, said county, upon the oath of Peter Westerber, who deposes that he saw the deceased lying dead, and that the jurors whose names are hereunto subscribed.

The said jurors, upon their oaths, do say, that on Monday, the 16th of April, 1877, he saw, near Peter Westerber's, dead, Carl Peter Westerber, dead, from heart disease, and not by violence.

In testimony whereof, the said jurors have hereunto set their hands, the day and year aforesaid.

James McBride, J. P.
E. Nelson,
Geo. Neilson, Jurors.

There was no mark or bruise on entire variety, from which our citizens are supplying themselves with horticultural adornments for beautifying their homes.

A. C. Chipp is an enterprising, ahead man, and has, at a very great outlay of money and hard labor, placed within the reach of all here the means of beautifying their places by growing flowers.

During the past week Mr. H. Newcomb, Esq., editor of the New York Heart and Hand, and Prof. J. Alexander, of the Independent School of Chicago, were in town, and held several meetings, giving instructions to the members of the order. Last night by special request they gave a drawing room entertainment in the City Hall, which was well filled with an appropriate audience. The entertainment commenced with a brief but interesting address by Mr. Barnes, on the history, object, present standing and practical operations of the order. This was followed by songs, recitations, &c., among which were "The Vagabonds," "Wreck of Hesperia," "The Village Blacksmith," "Violin and Violoncello." The entertainment lasted about three hours and as highly interesting.

Our day and Sabbath schools are in session. This morning Elders A. B. Williams and Wm. Adams addressed the people in the Central Ward school-house, on Sabbath Schools, their importance and utility, and urged parents to exert all their influence and powers to encourage their children to attend. An excellent illustration. This afternoon they addressed the scholars in the Seventies' Hall.

On Thursday the passenger train, leaving at nine o'clock, did not arrive until half past five p.m. On board the train was a German, light complexioned. He had light hair, moustache and mustache. Towards midnight he asked the porter where his room was, and was shown to his room and released. About one o'clock in the morning the porter was aroused by the above named gentleman rushing down stairs. He was dressed, and carrying a bag or valise under his arm. He carried his valise in his hand and a coat on his arm. He bounded out of the hotel, exclaiming, "She's after me! She's after me!" and away the man went. The unfortunate man has not been seen since. Yesterday morning Mr. Thomas Morley found a little east of the Central railroad track and near the Milwaukee works, used to the Milwaukee Works, a drab colored valise, thinking it might contain something which he would not like to handle. Mr. Morley left it, and went to the office of M. M. Brown, who returned with Morley and brought the valise to the office of the U. C. R. R., where it was opened and found to contain a coat, vest and hat, a pocket knife, and some tickets, twenty-two dollars and ninety cents in money, and a baggage check; also two receipts for the Milwaukee Herald, dated at Dubuque, Iowa.

John Welber. Also a printed envelope addressed "Luxemburger Gazette, Dubuque, Iowa." The valise and check were identified by the baggage master at the P. R. R. station as belonging to a certain man with the valise, and having now the number of the check in his book at the office. Tracks were discovered leading from the place, westward, to the edge of the patch of willows, where they were lost, but the man was not found. This morning the city marshal took a posse of men and made a thorough search through the swamps of the Ogden river, and a small cat that empties into the river.

Up to the present time the search has been fruitless. The affair is a very mysterious one. No doubt the man was a fugitive. It is well known to the train men that he did not leave by the outgoing train. The general theory is that the disappearance is due to the fact that the man went into the thick brush and committed suicide. Yet it is strange that the body cannot be found.

Ours truly,

DOG TAX.
 The attention of owners and keepers of dogs within the corporation limits of Salt Lake City is directed to the following extract from Chapter XXI of the Revised Ordinances of said city—
 RELATING TO DOGS.
 SECTION 1.—Be it ordained by the Council of Salt Lake City, that it shall not be lawful for any person to own or keep a dog within the limits of this city without making application to the City Recorder for that purpose, and shall pay to the Recorder, for the benefit of the city, an annual tax of three dollars for each dog. The Recorder shall register the applicant's name and a description of the dog, and give to said applicant a certificate of registry. Any person found violating this section shall be liable to a fine in any sum less than three nor more than three dollars for each offence.
 Section 2.—All dogs so registered shall wear a suitable collar, with the owner's name or initials of the dog inscribed thereon, together with the number corresponding to the certificate of registry, and all dogs found at large not registered and collared as aforesaid, shall be liable to be killed by any person so said (City). Marshal is hereby authorized to cause the destruction of all dogs not registered according to the provisions of this ordinance.
 It is made my duty to see that the foregoing is enforced, all persons owning or keeping unregistered dogs, or dogs whose terms of registration have expired, will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.
 ANDREW BURT,
 City Marshal.
