IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East ern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb. or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, - November 4, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 50 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine, some clouds.

Scandinavian Missionary Service.—We have been requested to publish the following:

"Mr. N. T. Lang, missionary from Chicago, will preach to-night at 7.30, in the 2d Presbyterian Church, to the Skandinavians of this place."

Recovering.—We are pleased to be able to state that Chief Justice White's health is much improved to-day, although still unable to leave his bed.

Visitors.—Yesterday afternoon President Young was sufficiently well to receive, and converse with a short time, Baron Rothschild, Prince Frederick of Wittgenstein and Count Turenne, who visited him at his residence.

Emigrants Arrived.—The company of emigrants and returning missionaries, whose names appear in this issue of the NEWS, arrived by last evening's train. They had a pleasant and prosperous journey; no deaths.

Illustrated Household Magazine for November contains "An American in London," with illustrations of Chatsworth, "A Safeport Memory," "What an Earnest Woman Can Do," "Work and Sleep," "A Day's Gleaning," and other articles.

That Front.—The placing in position of the fine iron front of the Y. C. M. I. new building, commenced to-day, under the direction of Brother Elias Morris. It will extend up the entire three stories of the structure, and is of very beautiful design.

Fined.—Yesterday afternoon E. M. Berry, the man who was arrested on Tuesday night for compelling a man to make a forced march from East Temple Street to the City Hall, at the muzzle of a couple of pistols, was fined $20 for that offense, and for menacing the lives of other citizens, with the same dangerous weapons, $10.

Attempted Suicide.—On Tuesday night an Evanston man and a woman of the town of this City, while in each other's company, attempted self destruction, by poison. Dr. Hamilton, who was called in, pumped the stuff from their stomachs, and they were thus prevented from going to the other side.

The Sanitarian for November contains "Preventable Sickness," "Boys and their Mothers," "Ventilation for Health," "Homes for the People," "Died of Hair Dye," "Value of Health to a City," and a number of other interesting articles. The Medico-Legal Journal is now incorporated with the Sanitarian.

Exactly Right.—In past seasons, when crops in Cache Valley have been good the people thereabout have generally shown a ready disposition to rush their grain into market, getting frequently but a small return for it. We are glad to learn, from a reliable source, that such is not the case this year. They are generally holding on to their breadstuffs, in accordance with the counsel of their best advisers. It may not be very long before they will feel glad at having taken such a course.

Wide Awake, No. 5.—This illustrated magazine for boys and girls contains "Madame Mob-cap," "Sad Story of a Little Girl," "Afternoon with an Indian Princess," "Mrs. Opposum and her Daughter," "A Bath in Great Salt Lake," "Our English Story," "A Queer People," "How Big Does the Moon Look?" "Why the Roses Fade," "The Magic Carpet," and a number of other articles, and twenty-five beautiful illustrations.

List of Emigrants.—The list of emigrants, which we publish this morning, only arrived by last night's mail. The emigrants left Liverpool Oct. 13. The envelope containing the list] is postmarked Liverpool, Oct. 15, so that here is a loss of one day at least, the list usually leaving Liverpool the day after the emigrants. The emigrants arrived last night, in 22 days from Liverpool, including the day of sailing. The list consequently was 20 days on the way.

Music.—"Only in Fun," one of Adah Richmond's serio-comic songs, with waltz chorus; gold and blue title, with frontispiece photograph of that lady. Words by Arthur W. French, music by R. S. Crane.

"Heaven Bless Mamma," ballad and chorus. Words by M. Solomon, music by P. Arnold De Thier.

The above are published by F. W. Helmick, music dealer and publisher, 278 West Sixth street, Cincinnati, O., and may be had through Calder and Careless.

Third District Court.—There being a question as to the legality of the adjournment of Court yesterday by the Marshal, in the absence of Judge White, on account of severe illness, the latter made the following order—

Third District Court of the Territory of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

WHEREAS, The condition of the business in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah, is such that the undersigned, the Judge of said district, is unable to do the same. Now, Therefore I, Alexander White, Judge of the said district, do hereby request the Hon. Jacob S. Boreman, Judge of the Second Judicial District of said Territory of Utah, to assist me in the transaction of the business of said Court, and proceed immediately with the transaction of the business of said Court.

Witness my hand at said Salt Lake City, Utah Territory, this 3rd day of Nov., A. D. 1875.
ALEX. WHITE,
Judge of Third Judicial District.

Accordingly Judge Boreman was upon the bench yesterday afternoon and, after transacting some little business, adjourned Court till Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Dogs.—Quite a number of keepers of unregistered dogs were before Justice Pyper to-day. The city is overrun with canines, and some of them are of no other apparent use than to make night hideous by their plaintive howlings and piteous whines, breaking the stillness of the midnight air and startling babies in the neighborhood from their peaceful slumbers. A good faithful dog is a noble animal, but a worthless barking cur is an unbearable nuisance that frequently needs abating. There are some neighborhoods that are afflicted with them, where in the dead of night one of them will set up a yelping that is echoed from a couple of dozen other canine throats, making a concert the harmony of which could only be excelled by fifteen sets of Scotch bagpipes, all playing different tunes at the same time. Anything that will lessen or mitigate the dog nuisance would prove a boon to a great many people.

Wallace's Monthly is a new journal of near 100 pages, illustrated. The October number is the first. All the domestic animals are to be treated of in this journal, but the horse will be the leading feature, particularly his performances in running and trotting, with a full record of racing performances.

The present number contains a description of the "Fashion Stud Farm," with engravings of "Goldsmith Maid," "Gen. Knox," "Tattler," "Lady Thorne," "Lucy," "Socrates," and "Jay Gould," and histories of other celebrated horses. There are also articles on "The Cleveland Meeting," the "Jersey Cow, Rosa," "Shropshire Sheep," and a great many other interesting subjects. May be had at Dwyer's.

List of Letters.

REMAINING in the Post Office at Salt Lake City, Nov. 4th, 1875, which, if not called for within one month, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

THIS IS THE
MEDICINE OF NATURE
For Destroying and Expelling all Kinds of Worms, Cleansing the Body, Blood, &c.
SYMPTONS OF WORMS.
A few of the most Common Symptoms which indicate the presence of worms:—Changeable Appetite, Offensive Breath, Pains in the Stomach and head, Grinding of the Teeth during Sleep, Pale Face with Hollow Sunken Eyes, Itching of the Nose and Fundament, Irregularity of the Bowels, a Short Dry Cough, Loss of Spirits, Feverishness and Disturbed Sleep, Rising in the Throat causing Sickness, &c.
DO NOT LET YOUR CHILD DIE.
Shall the bud of infant bloom
Soon be hurried to the tomb?
Mother, you with watchful eye,
Do not let your darling die.
Mark the dullness of that eye,
All irregularity;
Mark that paleness, white and deep,
And the feverish fitful sleep,
Feeble stomach, full and hard,
And the Bowels still debarred,
Mark the spirit, even low,
All bespeaking pain and woe.
SAVE IT—SAVE IT!
Why has your darling never smiled,
The Worm is in your precious child,
And gnaws its vital powers away,
Sinks it to death and dire decay.
Hear then the really welcome sound,
Save it! a remedy is found.
PLANT'S never-failing Powder and Syrup
A cure most sure and speedy makes;
Kills the death-worm, and the gloom,
Changes to matchless health and bloom:
It never fails, it never can,
It cures the child, the youth, the man;
It's taken, too, with haste,
Not unpleasant to the taste.
Hundreds who have tried it all attest
It is the cheapest and the best.
Try it—try it—try it—try it—try it—
Every parent now should buy it,
Wait not till another day,
Till every chance has passed away;
Make at once the soleman vow
That you will try it—try it now!
Mother, you with watchful eye,
Do not let your darling die.
