Word received here from New York states that John W. Young has filed suit against Lillian Judge, a former fiancee, for diamonds given her as a wedding present, and not returned when the engagement was broken off. The ongagement was annulled a year ago when Miss Judge learned of the conviction of Hooper Young, a son of her fiancee, for the murder of Mrs. Pullizer.

Secy, Cox of the Y. M. C. A. is the recipient of many applications for mem-bership in the Y. M. C. A. from parents who wish to present the cards as Christmas presents to their sons. The regular membership books will not be opened until Dec. 1, when special sou-venir cards will be issued to members, the cards to be good for 12 months from the date of opening the building.

Sixty-five recruits were received yesterday at Fort Douglas from Jefferon barracks, in charge of Capt. Albert J. Saxton of the Eighth cavalry, an instructor at West Point in modern languages. Thirty four of the rookles were assigned to the Twelfth battery of light artillery, and 31 to the Twen-ty-second battery. This leaves but three vacancies in the artillery battallon.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Central Christian church will give a dramatic and musical entertainment Friday evening, when the program will include the following: Guitar solo, M. Hart: vocal solo, Miss Isabel Higgins: guitar and mandolin duct, Miss Hattle Ward and Miss Lillian Vowlen; com-edetta, "A Soft Black Overcoat with a edetta, "A Soft Black Overcoat with a Velvet Collar." Held's hand gave another largely at tended and enjoyed band concert last evening, at the Grand theater. The "Anvil Chorus" was so well received that it had to be repeated, and the "Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tannhauser was also artistically given. Miss Ellen Thomas of Ogden was the vocalist and mave especial pleasure with her promis-ing soprano voice. She was deservedly well received,

A petition in bankruptcy has been filed in the district court by Aaron Gar-side of Gale. His debts total $18,818,22, unsecured, plus $300.14 taxes. He has property with which to meet the debt; his assets being entirely in the nature of household goods, dometic animals, vehicles and other per-sonal property. The ohief creditors are Lucy Lake and Elizabeth Tristram, administratrixes of the estate of the late George Tristram.

Rev. Benjamin Young, pastor of the First Methodist church, preached yes-terday on loyalty to principle especially in political offices. He said that men holding office are too ready to sell out, and go back on promises made before election, so that reform is as much of a crying need as ever The speaker ferred to the laxity shown in the enforcemnt of the laws, particularly in regard to the ordinances against gam-bling, and a rigid enforcement of these ordinances is called for.

At the United States smelter, where he was employed, Carl Madsen, a re-spected resident of Riverton, while working at his employment as carpenter, was struck by a crane and had both his legs broken, one above the knee and the other at the ankle. Mr. Madsen returned from a mission to Denmark the year before last, and was getting into fair circumstances when the dent occurred. His son, Charles Mad. sen, expected to start on a mission to the Northern States next week if it had not been for the accident.

Charles Swansor, a Bingham miner, was run over by an unknown rig at the corner of State and First South streets at 6 p. m., Saturday, where he was waiting for a street car. The driver of the rig came dashing around the corner, and was onto Swanson before the latter was aware of it. The offender Grocers and first class Restaurants.

be satisfied without funds are raised for this purpose. At present the school is conducted entirely on donations from sympathetic friends. The attendance 170, with an increasing roster, with the largest attendance in the fifth and sixth grades. The children in these gr ade realize what they are losing by being unable to attend the public schools and the little Japs there are making remarkable progress. ance. Joseph Sims of the southern suburl of this city, left his team untied Sat-urday evening, at the head of Com-mercial street, while he dallied in the nearest saloon with a bootleg of furni-ture polish. Suddenly the horses, unto city noises, took fright and dashed down the street to the Wilson hotel. Fortunate for the plate glass windows of that hostely, the team ran thwart of an electric light pole which they split in twain and shivered the globe of the arc lamp. The concussion dazed the runaways so that they were caught before continuing in their mad career into the hotel rotunda. The wagon was smashed, its collection of tinware and groceries scattered over the street, and the harnesses of the horses were ruined. No one hurt. There was a well attended song ser-vice at the Phillips Congregational church last evening. The program inchurch last evening. The program in-cluded solos from Miss Turner and Miss Dunham, and several well given anthems by the choir, the quartet be-ing Miss Turner, Miss Dunham, Mr. Frewin and Mr. Nettleton. The ser-vice was much enjoyed. A special and interesting feature of the evening was brief address from the pastor, A. Simpkin, on "New Song Rev Songs." which he laid emphasis on harmony in the soul as a most desirable acquisition for the Christian. His topic in the morning service was the necessity last night by taking a large dose of morphine. Wilson owes his life to the fact that he was discovered shortly after taking the poison and several quarts of water and a stomach pump ere applied to him. Wilson is a hodcarrier, and is a nephew to Tom King, the veteran of the city jail. Wilson has been out of work lately, and yesterday he had trouble with his wife, and decided that there was nothing to live for. He has been drinking heavily of late, and it is understood that his bad habits caused the breach of domestic felicity.

It was after 10 o'clock last night when he took the morphine. He was discovered by his brother Fred, who notified Jaller Bell of the county jail. The latter called the police and Wilson was taken tot headquarters, where

C. F. Wilcox attended him and worked over him some time before the man was out of danger. This morning the was out of danger. This morning the man was reported to be entirely recov-ered, and it is believed that he will make no more attempts on his life.
