LOCAL BRIEFS.

Clerk Moreton of the school board has been instructed to advertise for bids for the winter's supply of coal, the bids to be opened on September 10th.

James H. Young has declined to act as registration agent in the Fourteenth district at the coming city election. The former registrars of districts 3, 8, 20, 24, 26, 34, 35 and 43 have signified their willingness to act again.

A civil service examination will be held in this city on October 5th for assistant piece-work computer on the nautical almanac. This involves a thorough knowledge of the intricacies of higher mathematics.

Sister Belinda, the mother superior in charge of St. Ann's orphanage, has been called to the Catholic hospital at Anderson, Indiana. Her place will be taken by Sister Marguerite, who has been in charge of the Catholic work at Dureka.

A. T. Humphrey yesterday swore out a warrant for the arrest of R. H. McDonald, on a charge of battery without provocation at the Bingham Cigar & Gold smelter, where both McDonald and Will be tried before Justice Williams.

D. G. May, formerly a merchandise broker of this city, is now in Australia, where he is doing well. It is said that he is liquidating his accounts as fast as possible, and has been visiting several of them. Mrs. May has joined him in Australia.

Miss Pollock, the newly appointed supervisor of primary grades, desires to meet all teachers of beginners in the city and county building at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The teachers of other grades will be welcome, but it is earnestly requested that every primary teacher be present.

Of the 167 signers to the petition for the incorporation of Bingham canyon as a city of the third class it is reported that 22 were not registered voters at the last election. The law requires that at least 100 of the petitioners must be legal voters as well as property taxpayers. The matter has now been referred to the county assessor for information as to how many of the petitioners are property taxpayers.

The "News" received today a box of magnificent peaches from Mill Creek. They are of the Early Crawford variety and are exceptionally large and luscious orange peaches. The box was brought to the "News" by Deputy Fruit Inspector Allen, in whose orchards at Mill Creek they were grown. It is certain that when care is exercised in the raising of fruit in this state that the best results can be obtained and exceptionally fine fruit raised.

The breaking of the east trolley wire on Third South, opposite the Knutsford, at 9:30 last night was the direct cause of a brilliant and exciting electrical display, a lively scattering of pedestrians in the vicinity and the delay of traffic until the break was repaired half an hour later. The wire, which was snapped in a most alarming fashion while the carmen, armed with rubber gloves and standing on planks, attempted to fix the break. The repair outfit was eventually sent for and soon things assumed their normal condition.

Pocatello Tribune: Mrs. Richard Moore of Salt Lake City, organizer for the Ladies' Auxiliary of the O. R. C., accompanied by Mesdames W. M. Havermore, J. C. Drum, W. L. Groom, Anna Meakin and J. C. Coston, came up today for the purpose of organizing a lodge of the order in this city. Owing to the fact that the ladies were compelled to leave on the 2:45 train today and complete arrangements for organization had not been made the same could not at this time be perfected but arrangements were made for organizing in the near future.

The local land office has been notified by the Interior department that unapproved selections of state lands within the area embraced by the recently created Payson forest reserve will not be approved. So far as known there is but one state selection covering one section in this tract that has not been approved, so that the only selection that will be affected by the

NEW JUSTICE HOLDS COURT.

He Was Confirmed by the Council and Begun Work at Once.

FIRST LIST OF OFFENDERS.

How They Were Disposed Of—No Cases of Importance—State Prosecutions Go Over.

At 9 o'clock last night, Chris. B. Diehl ascended the bench in the old city hall as police justice and proceeded to dispose of a number of cases which had been pending since Saturday and Sunday.

The news of his confirmation by the City Council spread rapidly and when his honor took his place on the bench so ably occupied by the late Judge Timmony, he was greeted with a round of applause. As before stated, Judge Diehl's appointment was confirmed unanimously, eleven members of the Council being present at the special meeting, and all of them voting "aye."

Judge Diehl's bond is $2,000, and the sureties are J. W. Donnellan and W. H. Shearman. When the Council meeting had adjourned, word was sent to the police station, and within a few minutes the new justice was receiving the congratulations of members of the Council and his friends.

Just at 9 o'clock he entered the court room and took his seat upon the bench in a grave and dignified manner. His first words were expressions of regret that he was compelled to hold court on the day of Judge Timmony's burial. But he said there were prisoners who had been in jail since Saturday and it was in justice to them that court was held.

The court acted as prosecutor and judge and began to call off the names of the unfortunate.

The first to face him was Richard Welch, the vagrant, who explained that he had several broken ribs and showed the loss of an arm. Upon promising to leave town immediately he was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Niels Nielson explained that he "was just a little drunk," and was discharged.

Tom King could not deny the charge of drunkenness against him and a sentence of 10 or 15 days was pronounced. The next victim was Susan Tullidge. She had heard of her but many of them had never seen her. Susan apparently enjoyed the novelty of night session and indulged in a broad grin. She was fined $25.

William Martin, drunk; $3.

Owing to the failure of the complaining witness to show up, Dave Smith, charged with assault and battery, was discharged.

Dennis Doyle was convicted of beating one Olf Amenson and his portion was $15 or so many days. Amenson was accused of being drunk, but the court took into consideration the beating he got and discharged him.

Joe Marks pleaded guilty to taking a pair of trousers from Hyrum Buckley and was assessed $10.

Some state cases were continued until this afternoon, and the court said he understood President Buckle desired to say something.

President Buckle arose and said: "All I have to say, your honor, is that I am sorry, and if you will let me go I will not do it any more."

The court suspended sentence, which was greeted with laughter and applause.

MAY ENJOIN THE ELKS.

School Board Committee Says Fair Will Interfere with High School.

The first protest in the way of the Elks fair or at least the location of it comes from the school board committee on teachers and school work. Its protest is in behalf of the interests of the High School students. Principal Eaton suggested to President Newman yesterday that the fair was in such close proximity to the school that the noise and blare of the midway would not only interfere with the school during the period of the carnival, but that the school committee would be called to the attention of Joseph Geoghegan late in the afternoon.

The enclosed portion of the carnival commences on School street, immediately in front of the alley leading to the High School. The committee being under the impression that the street would be full of noise, they requested the school people to have the windows of the school closed and to conclude that it would interfere seriously with the school. It was decided therefore to see the Mayor and if they received cold comfort from him, they would go into the courts and apply for an injunction against the Elks fair and carnival.

The leading members of the committee look upon the action of the school people as making a mountain out of a mole hill. That section of the enclosed district near the High School will be used for booths by various industries. The midway will be between Third and Fourth South streets, so that the speaker's voice, it is said, will be drowned before it reaches the school. It is further urged by the Elks that the only noisy time on the streets will be at night when the High School students are all in bed, or should be.

"HE WAS A MAN."

Preacher's Eulogy of the Late John B. Timmony.

In the presence of hosts of friends who knew and loved him in life, the body of the late John B. Timmony was yesterday laid to rest. Besides the mayor and several members of the council, there were present men and women from all walks of life, all ready and anxious to pay tribute to the memory of one of Salt Lake's strident citizens. The remains rested in a rich black casket which was completely covered with flowers.

The brief but impressive funeral eulogy was pronounced by Rev. Philip S. Tucher of the First Unitarian church. He read first from Psalm xxiii, then paying a tribute to the sterling character of the deceased. After referring tenderly to the kindly nature of the late justice and to his love of truth, Mr. Tucher said that he might sum up his character in words that apply only to great souls. "He was a man."

The music for the occasion was furnished by Messrs. Ashworth, Graham, Christopherson and Brady, who sang "Nearer My God, Thee." "Shall We Meet Beyond the River?" and "I Need Thee Every Hour." Mr. Tucher then offered prayer and the remains were borne to the hearse. The pall bearers

The funeral services over the remains of the William Cole were held this afternoon from Joseph William Taylor's funeral chapel.

AUSTRIAN PROTECTION.

To the Editor:

The following may interest the people of Utah: "Consul Schumann, reporting from Maine to the state department on the methods employed by Austria to protect home industries, declares that the government threatened to withdraw the subsidy granted to a hat factory at Tomesvay, because the latter had an electric lighting plant from a German firm, and was only prevented from carrying out its threat by being convinced that there was no firm in Austria which could have carried out the contract."

"A hat factory at Raat was re-proved by the government for purchasing foreign materials. The electric tramway companies of Purne and Temesvay were fined for purchasing their motors from a German firm. The electric mining road of Derna only received permission from the government to purchase locomotives, etc. from a German firm after the managers had proved conclusively that for their special purposes they could use only the machines of this firm. Besides, it is said the Austrian government keeps a register of all Austrian firms which purchase foreign goods or raw material, and so such firms the government has the least favor, nor do they ever receive government contracts."

NEWSBOYS AT SALT AIR.

Members of N. B. U. Indulged in an Outing Yesterday.

The newsboys owned Salt Air for a few lurid hours yesterday. The occasion of the invasion was the fact that the N. B. U. had elected to migrate to the shores of the Great Salt Lake, to the weight on the safety valve and generally indulge in a quiet little conversation by the sad sea waves. Ere the last train returned to the city the function had been voted a complete success. It goes without saying that the soiree was punctuated at stated intervals with slight disagreements among the guests of the occasion and on one occasion a bunch of knuckles grinded prominently in argument. But the forces were united when a nice little boy clad in spotless raiment arrived upon the scene. The newsboys objected to a man to any little fauntleroy occupying the center of the stage and had not the train crew and several spectators, at the risk of their lives, thrown themselves into the fray fauntleroy's beauty would have been permanent.

Sports and contests for prizes donated by the merchants occupied the major portion of the day, among which was the luncheon catch-as-catch-can which was won by Rube Dahlquist. The city-yard catch was captured by Dave Leatham and the peanut race went to Rube Dahlquist. Harry Robinson was first in the broad jump. The tug-of-war was captured by the

Among the other contests was the baby show, which was judged by those well known connoisseurs, Race Whitney, A. L. Lovey and Glen Miller. After the judges had refused to compare notes the prettiest baby was held to be 3-year-old Estelle, the daughter of Mrs. John Squires. The plumpiest baby was adjudged to be Archie, the son of Mrs. C. A. Knowlton, and the youngest child at the beach yesterday proved to be the four-week-old daughter of Mrs. Mildred Edmunds.

Further prizes were awarded during the evening as follows:

Two-step, E. Van Cotte and Miss Halsett.

Waltz, Mr. Hoagland and Miss Halsett.

Folk, Thomas Bridget and Miss May.

Cake walk, Thomas Bridget and Miss Pearl Holt.

Juvenile cake walk, Master Dan and Miss Anderson.

Following are the winning numbers in the coupon drawing:

9,529, 62,142, 9,565, 9,964, 9,754, 9,523, 62,136, 12,144, 49,590, 9,797, 49,234, 49,514, 62,015, 10,047, 49,688, 9,632, 9,960, 10,022, 9,835 and 10,093.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The department payrolls amounting to $7,747.35, with the exception of the day and night foremen, were indorsed at the special meeting of the Council last night. Chairman Robertson of the finance committee objected on the ground that while an ordinance has been passed creating the office Mayor Thompson had made no appointments under the provisions of that ordinance. The positions have been filled by Ben Burnett and George Ganning, Jr.

Commissioner C. B. Howe, after having obtained the unanimous consent of the Council meeting called to act on the Mayor's appointment of police justice and the department payrolls, presented a petition from Vice President Angus M. Cannon of the Latter-day Saints University and residents on Ninth Temple street between State and Main, for relief from the insufficiency of the water pressure in that locality. The complainants ask for a new lateral to take the place of the small service pipe which at present supplies them with water from the city pipe system. The waterworks committee will look into the matter.
