

OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN NEWS.

The branch office of the Deseret News in Ogden is at No. 408 Twenty-ninth street, where advertisements and subscriptions will be received. The "News" is delivered by carriers in Ogden every evening on the same terms as in Salt Lake City.

OGDEN, UTAH, FEB. 3, 1903.

SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Weber County Officers—Statement Respecting Indigents of City and County.

Impressive Funeral Services of Mrs. Hannah Boody Dix—Junction City News Briefs.

At last night's session of the city council, attention was called by the mayor to the necessity of having a suitable provision made by the Legislature for the care of the poor of Ogden, while the bill is preparing for the same purpose for Salt Lake.

The attorney was instructed to take an appeal from the decision of Judge Hill, to the Supreme court in the case where Ogden City is plaintiff and the Dear Lake & River waterworks is defendant.

A. F. Parker and E. W. Wade gave notice of their appropriation of the waters of Weber river for mechanical purposes, motive power and machinery, to be diverted at a point about one and a quarter miles from Devil's Gate.

The citizens living on Twenty-eighth street petitioned to have the canal running along that street made larger and put in better condition to carry off flood waters. The matter was referred to the street committee.

Claims and pay rolls aggregating $1,000 were ordered paid.

COUNTY POOR CHARGES.

At the regular meeting of the board of county commissioners the following lengthy report was submitted and unanimously approved:

Ogden, Utah, Feb. 2, 1903.

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Weber County, Utah:

Gentlemen—As many misrepresentations have been made and circulated through the public press within the last 10 days, to the effect that the board of county commissioners has failed and refused to take care of and properly provide for indigent sick and poor persons of Ogden City and Weber county, I beg to submit to you a statement showing what has been actually done in this direction by this board for the month of January, 1903. The following statement will give such information as you may desire.

For relief of poor persons within Ogden City limits:

Cash for house rent, etc. $175.50

Cash for merchandise, other than provisions, 24.50

Cash for provisions, 87.50

Cash for coal, 85.65

Cash for fuel (which includes deceased soldiers), 138.00

Sundry cash payments, 57.75

$625.90

For relief of poor persons in the county, outside of Ogden City limits:

Cash for merchandise, other than provisions, 2.50

Cash for coal, 4.00

Funeral, 21.65

Sundry cash payments, 2.60

56.75

Total relief to persons in both city and county, $682.65

Of the disbursements, $367.55 has been covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

THEORIES ABOUT CATARRH.

Peculiar Ideas Regarding a Common Disease.

Mark Twain's cure for a cold in the head was simple, but he claims very effective in his own case. His plan was to eat nothing whatever for twenty-four hours or presumably until the trouble had disappeared.

Although not able to speak from personal experience as to the effectiveness of this treatment, it certainly has the merit of extreme economy, but it occurs to us that the application of it to a case of nasal catarrh might be attended with difficulties.

Catarrh, as everyone knows, is a chronic cold in the head, and Mr. Twain's treatment, if it should become a fad, would make of us a nation of fasters; an army, emulating the example of the immortal Tanner who achieved world wide fame by fasting forty days.

Catarrh is certainly becoming a national disease and there is little doubt but that errors in diet, particularly over-eating is a very common cause. Most people, however, are more interested in the cure of the trouble than the cause, and modern medical science has produced more effective and less heroic remedies than Mr. Twain's. Hydrastin is a new remedy, very effective in some forms of Catarrh. Red Gum is another which on account of its antiseptic properties is very valuable, while many others, such as Eucalypti, have been entirely cured by the sanguinaria or extract of Blood root alone.

Within a year an enterprising chemist has combined all of these remedies in tablet form, palatable and convenient and the superiority of this tablet over other catarrh remedies is so apparent that all druggists now carry them in stock to supply the popular demand.

They are called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and it is doubtful if any medicine has achieved so great a popularity in so short a time as this.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are used by thousands of traveling men because they can be carried in the pocket and used any time and in any quantity being free from Cocaine, opiate or any poisonous drug.

They clear the head and throat from the discharging secretions of catarrh, very often in a few hours time.

For nasal Catarrh they are far superior to any wash, lotion or ointment the use of which is often so inconvenient and annoying as the disease itself.

For coughs, colds, bronchial catarrh and catarrh of stomach these tablets give immediate relief and a permanent cure where lotions, douches and inhalants make no impression whatever.

This preparation is a boon to catarrh sufferers and any druggist will tell you that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is a remedy that has come to stay.

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

THEORIES ABOUT CATARRH.

Peculiar Ideas Regarding a Common Disease.

Mark Twain's cure for a cold in the head was simple, but he claims very effective in his own case. His plan was to eat nothing whatever for twenty-four hours or presumably until the trouble had disappeared.

Although not able to speak from personal experience as to the effectiveness of this treatment, it certainly has the merit of extreme economy, but it occurs to us that the application of it to a case of nasal catarrh might be attended with difficulties.

Catarrh, as everyone knows, is a chronic cold in the head, and Mr. Twain's treatment, if it should become a fad, would make of us a nation of fasters; an army, emulating the example of the immortal Tanner who achieved world wide fame by fasting forty days.

Catarrh is certainly becoming a national disease and there is little doubt but that errors in diet, particularly over-eating is a very common cause. Most people, however, are more interested in the cure of the trouble than the cause, and modern medical science has produced more effective and less heroic remedies than Mr. Twain's. Hydrastin is a new remedy, very effective in some forms of Catarrh. Red Gum is another which on account of its antiseptic properties is very valuable, while many others, such as Eucalypti, have been entirely cured by the sanguinaria or extract of Blood root alone.

Within a year an enterprising chemist has combined all of these remedies in tablet form, palatable and convenient and the superiority of this tablet over other catarrh remedies is so apparent that all druggists now carry them in stock to supply the popular demand.

They are called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and it is doubtful if any medicine has achieved so great a popularity in so short a time as this.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are used by thousands of traveling men because they can be carried in the pocket and used any time and in any quantity being free from Cocaine, opiate or any poisonous drug.

They clear the head and throat from the discharging secretions of catarrh, very often in a few hours time.

For nasal Catarrh they are far superior to any wash, lotion or ointment the use of which is often so inconvenient and annoying as the disease itself.

For coughs, colds, bronchial catarrh and catarrh of stomach these tablets give immediate relief and a permanent cure where lotions, douches and inhalants make no impression whatever.

This preparation is a boon to catarrh sufferers and any druggist will tell you that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is a remedy that has come to stay.

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

It will also be seen by this report that even if Ogden city does pay, as is represented, seven-eighths of the Weber county taxes, then the poor persons of Ogden city, living within Ogden city limits, have received more than seven-eighths of the amount

covered by 96 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons actually residing within the limits of Ogden City, and $54.15 has been covered by 14 separate warrants or orders issued in favor of poor and sick persons residing outside of the city limits. The items of $57.75 and $2.60 have been paid out of the contingent fund in the hands of your committee.

Acting under the advice of former County Attorney George Halverson, and the present incumbent of that office, E. T. Hulanicki, the board has declined to support persons who, through contagious diseases, have been placed under quarantine by the officials of Ogden city, when they were not regular recipients of aid from the county and were only made destitute through the quarantine by the city. The attorneys referred to are of the opinion that it is the duty of Ogden city to provide for the wants of those persons who are placed under quarantine by Ogden city, and wherein it makes them indigent. At no time has the county refused, when any of the persons receiving regular assistance from the county have been quarantined, to continue such assistance, but in line with the county attorney's opinion has universally declined to grant assistance to those persons who are made destitute by Ogden city establishing a quarantine.

Hon. Henry H. Rolapp, Judge of the district court, has not, as has been erroneously stated, ruled that it is the duty of the county to be considered to provide for such, because this matter has not been brought before the judge so that he might pass upon it in his official capacity.

Fitness and value distinguish

Gorham Silver

Fitness for its purpose and intrinsic value combine to render Gorham silverware the most desirable of purchases. The trade-mark guarantees these qualities.

All responsible jewelers keep it

AMERICAN FORK.

DEATH OF YOUNG MOTHER.

As. Ethel May Blampped Succumbs to Lingering Illness.

American Fork, Utah, Feb. 1.—Last evening Mrs. Ethel May Blampped, wife of C. E. Blampped, died after a lingering illness of five weeks from complications arising from childbirth. Mrs. Blampped was born at American Fork June 2, 1885. Her parents were among the early pioneers to settle this part of the state. The deceased leaves a husband and one child, a son, C. M. Blampped, who is now attending school at the American Fork high school. The funeral will take place Tuesday, Feb. 3, at 11 a. m., at her mother's residence, Mrs. Eliza Phillips.

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and