

THE CONTINENTAL LIFE CO.

Among the many financial enterprises born in the west during 1903, none are more important than the organization of the new life insurance and investment company, the Continental, whose official announcement appears on the colored pages of the Christmas News.

The formation of a life insurance company which should be entirely western in its character, and which should keep at home the vast amount of money which has for years been flowing to the east and west in life insurance premiums, is a subject that has long been considered by our leading citizens, but it was not till this year that the idea was carried into effect. Then, Mr. H. Tyree interested Utah, Montana, Colorado and Idaho capitalists in the enterprise, and organized the Continental Life Insurance & Investment company. Its headquarters are in the News building of this city, and it will commence work actively immediately. That it will be a success goes without saying, for the west is one of the best life insurance districts in the world, and nowhere is the sentiment stronger in favor of building up home enterprises.

FUNERAL OF T. CORLESS.

Will be Held from Fourth Ward Meetinghouse at Noon Tomorrow.

Funeral services over the remains of Thomas Corless, whose death was announced in last night's "News," will be held at noon tomorrow in the Fourth ward meetinghouse. Friends are invited. The remains may be viewed at the family residence, 25 west Seventh South street, between the hours of 10 and 12.

Mr. Corless was the son of Edward and Catherine Corless and was born in Lancashire, England, in 1832. He came to Utah in 1848, married Elizabeth Crowther in 1856 and filed a claim to the Salmon river country in the same year. For 18 years he was a counselor to Bishop Sperry of the Fourth ward, a position he was forced to relinquish through failing health. He was a highly respected resident of the community, and leaves a wife, seven children and 21 grandchildren to mourn his demise.

Remember, Franklin's Candies are the only kind that will do this Christmas.

IMPORTANT ARREST.

Two Men Who Are Believed to be Grifters Are Gathered In.

J. Franks and William Wade, alleged to be expert bunco men, were arrested at the St. Elmo hotel yesterday afternoon by Sergeant "Dick" Eddington on the charge of conducting a gambling house. In arresting these two men, the police believe they have landed the two sharpest who have been operating at the Temple block for so many months.

Their apprehension was the result of a complaint made to Sergeant Eddington by a young man named Alton Parish of South Dakota who was on his way home.

While looking about the city yesterday afternoon he was met at the Temple grounds by a well dressed man who was anxious to show Parish the sights. After a brief conversation Parish learned that the stranger was from city, and it will commence work actively immediately. That it will be a success goes without saying, for the west is one of the best life insurance districts in the world, and nowhere is the sentiment stronger in favor of building up home enterprises.

The officers and directors of the company form its best recommendation. Their names are as follows: Gov. Heber M. Wells, president; Hiram Tyree, vice president and general manager; W. H. Cunningham, secretary; Hon. W. S. McCormick, treasurer; Hon. Frank Pierce, counsel; Dr. H. N. Mayo, medical director. Directors—Hiram Tyree, N. W. Clayton, A. L. Babcock, T. M. Hodgson, C. W. Moore, John Dorn, P. B. Moss, J. D. Wood, B. F. White, James Reid, H. E. Neal, F. R. Culter, Fred C. Jensen, Heber M. Wells, W. V. Rice, R. D. Steele, A. L. Stone, W. J. Halloran, Samuel Newhouse, W. S. McCormick, W. H. Dickson, J. H. Caldwell, James P. Murray, C. C. Wyle, Fred J. Kiesel, Hon. Frank Gooding, Moses Thatcher.

his home state. They walked down the street together and wound up at the St. Elmo, where the stranger wanted to introduce Parish to a couple of friends who were engaged in a "friendly game of poker." It is the same old story. Parish was induced to "get in," and when he "got out" he was minus $50. It did not take him very long to discover that he had been up against a brace game, and he hunted up Sergeant Eddington and reported the matter to him. The latter went to the St. Elmo, where he captured the two men and also the cards and chips with which they had been playing.

Both men were locked up and young Parish has consented to remain in Salt Lake long enough to prosecute the alleged grifters.

MYSTERY SOLVED.

Remains of J. D. Mock Discovered Near Oregon Short Line Track.

The mystery attending the disappearance eight months ago, of J. D. Mock of Grant's Pass, Or., has just been cleared up by the discovery of his remains a mile from the Short Line track near Yale, Idaho, by agents of the railroad company. Mock was nearly 50 years old, and started from Oregon with the necessary tickets for Albia, Ia., where he had friends. As he failed to show up, relatives investigated, but the old man could not be traced east of Huntington, Or. The search, however, was kept up, and it seems now that Mock lost his mind and started to walk east from Huntington. He finally perished from starvation and exposure. A son at Grant's Pass has been notified.

DO NOT WEAR A LONG FACE.

It is a Great Handicap in All Business and Social Relations.

The man who looks as if he had lost his last friend is in no danger of being crushed by the jam of new ones unless he "cheers up." People are not going out of their way nowadays to associate with the man of mournful and melancholy appearance. They are afraid he will tell them his troubles and they steer clear of him as they all have plenty of their own.

The most universal cause of the frown and hopeless appearance today is dyspepsia. It unfits a man for every duty of life and causes him to become despondent and gloomy and necessarily his looks do not belie his feelings. He appears cast down and dejected and becomes a burden to himself and humanity in general.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the dyspeptic's certain relief. They do the work that his stomach is unable to do, and by relieving that organ of its burdens, permit it to regulate its health and strength and again become active and useful in its functions. They contain all the essential ingredients that enter into the digestive fluids and substances of the stomach and they actually take up the work and do it just as a healthy, sound stomach would.

By this means a man can go right ahead with his work and eat enough to keep him in proper working condition. His system is not deprived of its necessary nourishment as it is in the case of the "long face" cure, or the employment of some of the first class chicken foods now on the market. Starvation, even if it were a good thing, could not be so easily remedied as to effect a cure for a disordered and worn-out stomach is not going to become strong and healthy in two or three days.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act naturally because they contain a natural digestive. The principal component parts are acetic, pepsin, malt diastase and other ingredients with like properties that do the work regardless of the condition of the stomach. There is no unnatural or violent disturbance of the digestive organs as the result of their action. In fact, the existence of the stomach is entirely forgotten as soon as they have had time to begin their operations. They also possess very curative and healing properties and assist the stomach in getting well, while relieving it of its work. They perform the duties of both nurse and physician.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box, and there is very little danger of any druggist trying to sell you something else in its place that is "just as good." They are so well established and have done so much good in the world that their name has become a household word; so the usual warning, "Accept no substitute," is unnecessary in the case of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.
