OGDEN.

The wedding of Mr. Joseph Gorringer and Miss Emily Ferguson took place Wednesday afternoon in the Salt Lake Temple. The groom was formerly of Ogden, but is now a well known harnessmaker of Salt Lake City. The bride is a popular Ogden young lady, for a number of years in the employ of Drs. Rich & Rich. After the ceremony the bride and groom came to Ogden, and in the evening were the guests of the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Harrop, at an elaborate reception. Mrs. Harrop's pretty home was beautifully and profusely decorated with La France roses and honeysuckle. A bounteous repast was spread. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable presents including a number of pieces of cutglass and a check for $150. The groom is building a home in Salt Lake City, and instead of the customary wedding trip will remain in Ogden until their home is completed, which will be about Aug. 1.

Thursday evening a delightful birthday surprise party was given in honor of Miss Jessie Gurn at her home on North Washington avenue. There were present about 40 of her young friends, who spent the evening pleasantly at cards, games and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday noon at the residence of Mrs. H. F. Horton on Lincoln avenue. The charming young couple, Miss Kathryn Cross of Emporia, Kan., was married to A. Clyde Gourley, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Rev. J. B. Carver officiating. After the ceremony and extending of congratulations, the wedding guests sat down to a bounteous wedding dinner. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with roses, carnations, ferns and potted plants. The contracting parties are both well known in Ogden. For several years past the groom has been employed as collector for the Standard, and the bride has made Ogden her home for several months past. She is a young lady of talent and charming personality. Mr. and Mrs. Gourley left for California on the afternoon train and will spend several weeks on the coast. They may locate in Seattle.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the ball given Wednesday evening at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon. There was in attendance one of the largest and most select crowds ever seen at the popular pleasure resort. The affair was given under the auspices of the Weber Stake Religion Class board.

PROVO.

The event of the week was a complimentary recital by Mrs. V. B. De Loery and her music students to their many friends, Tuesday evening, in the Third ward music hall. There was a large attendance of invited guests, and the program was rendered in a most commendable manner. Following are a few of the numbers that were especially creditable: "Ritour-nelle," by Eva Ward; "Witches' Dance" (piano), by Sterling Hyde; "Monarch of the Woods," W. D. Roberts, Jr.; "Wanderer's Night Dream" (duet), by Eva Ward and W. D. Roberts, Jr.; "Flower Song," Ella Sward; "Spring Song," by Stella Bennett. Great credit is due Mrs. De Loery for her capabilities and the results shown by her students.

Miss Margaret Thurman entertained at dinner Sunday evening in honor of Emma Ramsey, who is soon to remove to Salt Lake to reside. The dining table was elaborately decorated in red roses, with shaded candelabra at either end. Red streamers of satin ribbon were used from the chandelier to the corners of the table. At each guest's plate were red rose buds. An elaborate menu was served. Covers were laid for eight. The guests were: Miss Emma Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Thurman, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reid, Messrs. Ray Irvine and Tracy Cannon of Salt Lake City.

BRIGHAM CITY.

The strawberry festival of the 17th and 18th was a success in every way. There were people here from all over the state, to the number of nearly 1,000 each day of the festivities. The delicious Brigham strawberry was in evidence everywhere, and the visitors "made good" by "taking in" as many as possible. The city was gorgeously decorated in red and green, the carnival colors, and presented a very gay appearance. The amusements for the evenings consisted of a performance on the afternoon and evening of the first day by the famous Nichols minstrels, with a grand ball at the close. There was a grand concert in the Tabernacle on Saturday evening, in which some of the best talent of the state took part. Among the artists were Prof. A. C. Lund, Prof. C. D. Schettler, Mr. Willard Andelin, F. H. Eough, Miss Agnes Dahlquist and Florence Jensen of Provo. Our home talent was represented by Prob. E. W. Nichols, Miss Blanche Coxier, and a male quartet. The evening was one grand musical feast. During the intermission between the first and second part of the program, the queen, Miss Lizzie Sherman of Fremont, was crowned. The cup for the champion ballplayers was presented by the queen to the Garland baseball team. The carnival certainly redounds credit on those who had it in charge, for it was one grand success.
