

STORM OVER THE STATE.

Snowfall Covers Extended Area—Wind Blows Gale in Some Places.

Reports from over the state indicate that the snowfall which set in last night and continued during the greater part of the day, was quite general, affecting as it did points extending from Logan on the north to as far as Richfield on the south. At the latter place the snow was said to be two feet deep, while at Mt. Pleasant six inches fell during the night, thus insuring a better water supply for the country south than hitherto. At St. George, Utah, on the west there was a heavy fall of snow accompanied by a brisk wind, while Heber and Park City report cold weather and from three to six inches of snow. At St. George, Utah, on the west there was a heavy fall of snow accompanied by a brisk wind, while Heber and Park City report cold weather and from three to six inches of snow. At St. George, Utah, on the west there was a heavy fall of snow accompanied by a brisk wind, while Heber and Park City report cold weather and from three to six inches of snow.

Reports from Idaho Falls represent the situation up there as pretty much the same. Cold weather is predicted for tonight and tomorrow with a thermometer likely to drop down into the japs of zero by sunrise. The lowest thermometer on yesterday's map was 36 below zero at Havre and Winnipeg. Bulletin received by the "News" at noon today were as follows:

Logan—Cloudy and cold; snowing. Ogden—Cold wind blowing; light snowfall.

Provo—Cold and snowing. Tooele—Three inches of snow; wind blowing a perfect gale.

Heber—Three inches of snow; very cold. Park City—Cold and clear; several inches of snow.

Mt. Pleasant—Snowfall last night about six inches; now clear. Richfield—Two feet of snow.

Marysville—Fifteen inches of snow. St. George—Raining for several days past.

Salina—One foot of snow; cloudy.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

A. E. Welby and John Dorn Chosen Directors—F. B. Stephens Re-elected.

The annual election of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in the main room in the new building. Hon. Frank B. Stephens was re-elected president; T. C. Miller, vice president; S. R. Tuttle, recording secretary; F. A. Finley, treasurer. General Superintendent A. J. Welby of the Rio Grande road was chosen director in place of S. V. Sheln. Dorn was chosen director to succeed Samuel Merrill resigned. James B. Daine was appointed auditor of the association.

The contract for tiling was let to Elias Morris & Sons company, for $2,000, the tiling to include the swimming pool and bath; and the hardware contract was awarded to the Brubaker-Campbell company at $498.

"OLD PHIL'S BIRTHDAY."

Anniversary of Veteran Utah Actor is Pleasantly Celebrated.

"There was a sound of revelry by night," and the occasion was "Old Phil's birthday," meaning Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Rudd, when the veteran actor, Philip Margette, having reached the ripe age of 76, was surrounded by old and young relatives and friends, and "all went merrily as a wedding bell." The affair was under the immediate supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Rudd, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Margette, and everything was as perfectly arranged as it was possible for such a thing to be. The occasion was made pleasant and reminiscent by the presence of many long time friends, who have been associated with Mr. Margette from his advent here in 1850 and later and everybody had a most happy time. "Old Phil's birthday" is a play in which he has made considerable of a reputation, and the appropriateness of the title is suggestive, although he is by no means as old as his age as many are who are 20 years or more younger, and is as well sustained and well preserved now as at any time within a quarter of a century. The guests all departed with the evident feeling that they would meet him many times yet on his natal day, and enjoy much more pleasurable association as yet the great divide is passed.

HEALTH REPORT.

Weekly Returns Show 27 Births and Measles on the Increase.

Weekly report of the board of health for the week ending Feb. 11 shows 27 births, of which 11 were males and 16 were females. The death report for the same period numbered 9, of which 5 were males and 4 females.

During the week there were 18 cases of smallpox, 5 cases of diphtheria, 7 cases of measles and 1 case of scarlet fever reported to the office.

A PERFECT LADY.

Woman Who Started a Rough House At the Police Station.

A woman, too much of a "lady" to give her name, came dangerously near tearing down the fixtures in the office of the police headquarters last night. She was arrested in a saloon disturbance in company with two men last evening by Police Officer Prescoe. She thought someone insulted that she was not a lady and no sooner than this thought had soaked into her brain than she began to tear at everything in sight. She was taken to the station and happily situated behind the netting of his office and watched her try to put two policemen out of commission. The only words she would utter were shrieks proclaiming that she knew she was a "lady" and in doing so her name could not be obtained. She was booked as Jane Doe.

THINK THEY HAVE HIM.

Police Arrest Man Believed to Have Been Seizing Women.

P. J. Conway was arrested by Patrolman Brown at the Rio Grande road yesterday, where he tried to intimidate a woman from whom he was soliciting money. He is said to resemble the man who turned a trick at the residence of C. A. Heidman last Thursday. For these two reasons he will have to answer before Judge Diehl. When arrested the man was too full of liquor to give any information to the officers and it was with difficulty that they learned his name.

NO MORE HELP WANTED.

Panama Canal Commission Besieged With Applications for Work.

Besieged with applications for work on the Panama canal the United States civil service commission finds it necessary to issue an official notice to the general public that it already has more applicants than it needs for clerical and professional positions. Applications were made by the thousands from all parts of the country until the commission found it impossible even to answer the inquiries. Good laborers are still wanted, examinations for which are to be held later this month. Subjoined is the notice issued from the office of the civil service commission:

"The United States civil service commission is receiving thousands of inquiries concerning examination for the Panama canal service, and for the information of the general public it announces that the number of applicants for clerical and professional positions in that service, including clerks, bookkeepers, timekeepers, surgeons, physicians, pharmacists, hospital internes, trained nurse, assistant civil engineer, instrument man, transit man, level man, rodman and chainman, is far in excess of the needs of the service, and it is not expected that any more examinations of this kind will be held in the near future. No more applications will be accepted for these positions at this time, and no further information will be furnished in regard to them.

WENT GUNNING FOR PAPA.

Johnny Creps Charged With Exhibiting A Deadly Weapon Threateningly.

John Creps, who is charged with exhibiting a deadly weapon threateningly towards his father, will have to have a guardian appointed in order that he may plead to the charge. His parents being the complaining witnesses, Judge Diehl thinks it quite improper that they should represent the lad. It was thought that the boy had no responsibility mentally for his actions, but after more careful investigation it is evident that the boy is bright, though of a sultry disposition. He has been denied the privilege of attending school and in this way has failed to develop his natural powers. His case came up before Judge Diehl this afternoon.

CHEERFUL MATE.

John Robinson Has a Unique Way of Being Unpleasant to Wife.

John Robinson, a garbage driver employed by the city, has been arrested upon complaint of his wife charging him with abusive language. This is a small part of his inhumanity. If the story told by his helpmeet is correct, she said that she married the man four months ago and that ever since he has acted in a cruel and inhuman manner towards her. She says he arises in the morning and cooks his own breakfast. When he pours water on the fire he opens the doors and windows of their house and makes the place as uncomfortable as possible. In this and many other ways he has made her life unbearable. Robinson was released on $50 bail. He will face the music of a police court this afternoon.

PATRICK GLEASON DEAD.

Old Timer on the Comstock Died at Goldfield Yesterday.

Patrick Gleason, an old timer on the Comstock, and formerly well acquainted with Flood, O'Brien, Mackay, Fair, Hopkins, and others, died yesterday at Goldfield, Nev., after a very brief illness aged 84. The deceased was the father of Miss Nora Gleason of this city, and was a mechanical and civil engineer of considerable repute in his time. He was well known in western mining circles as a bright and able man. The interment will be local.

MRS. MELVEIN DEAD.

Highly Respected Citizen of Ogden Lays Down Life's Career.

Mrs. Emma Melvein, a highly respected resident of Ogden, died this morning at her home, 1234 North 20th street, after a long illness. She was 68 years of age. The deceased was the wife of John Melvein and was born in London, England, July 8, 1855. She came to Ogden in 1875, where she has resided ever since. Besides a husband, Mrs. Melvein leaves two daughters, Mrs. Emma Potter of Ogden and Mrs. Alice Johnson of Seattle. She was a faithful Latter-day Saint. The funeral will be held from the Fifth

FIRED A SALOON.

Scheme Fails Because of Place Being Closed Up Too Tight.

(Special to the "News.") Pleasant Grove, Feb. 11.—An attempt was made during the night to burn up D. N. Robinson's saloon, but the attempt failed because of a lack of draught to fan the flames. The saloon was entered by a side door and the men went into the basement, where they set fire to a pile of combustibles.

In coming out, however, they closed the place up so tight that the fire was practically smothered and in this condition it was found when the proprietors opened up for business this morning. Had the plot been successful, property to the value of several thousands would have been destroyed.

PROBATE ORDERS.

In the probate division of the district court today the will of Mrs. Beulah A. W. Beattie, deceased, was admitted to probate by Judge Armstrong, and George A. Smith and Wilford W. Beattie were appointed as executors without bonds, as provided in the will. The estate of the testator is valued at about $8,314.

The court appointed W. Frank Hills as administrator of the estate of James O. M'chell, deceased, who dropped dead of heart failure on Third South street several weeks ago. The bond of the administrator was fixed at $1,700.

Annie M. Thornton was appointed administrator of the estate of Annie M. Steingraber, deceased, under bonds in the sum of $2,000.

THE "SILENT PLACES" OF OREGON.

The great "silent places" of Oregon and of the west are in the trackless woods of the Upper Rogue River pine reserve. This is the largest forest of sugar pine in the world. Its giant trees are excelled only by the famous redwoods of California.

The reserve embraces over 20 square miles, and adjoins the 20 square miles of Crater Lake National Park. As the whole is under the protecting care of rangers and park patrolmen, the 500 square miles of the two are practically one vast park. There are many trees in this reserve that are from 25 to 34 feet about the base of the trunk. There are many trees larger than this in the north, but they are not sugar pines. It is a murder to cut a tree in this area. Men make their camp fires of broken boughs and fallen wood, of which there is plenty.

These "silent places" are guarded by the U. S. Forest Service. The fall of Mills Creek, in the canyon wall into the Rogue—Pacific Monthly, for December.

LATE LOCALS.

Sleights are out today, and they seem to find the running very fair.

Judge and Mrs. James A. Miner have moved into the Emery-Holmes apartment house on South Temple street.

There was a largely attended and enjoyable Valentine social last evening at Phillips Congregational church.

It is reported that active work begins next Monday for the installation of the fifth pump at the outlet of Utah lake.

Judge Ritchie will go to Tooele county on Monday to hold court there for several days for Judge Morse, who is traveling the election contest case at Ogden.

The executive committee of the Utah Wool Growers' association met this morning, in the office of Hon. Jesse M. Smith, to discuss the Clegg bill relative to sheep inspectors.

The Twentieth ward Primary association will give its annual review in the evening of tomorrow night, the meeting beginning at 8:30. A general invitation is extended.

The remains of the late E. L. Dodge arrived in this city this morning, and the funeral was held this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, from his late residence, with interment in the Masonic vault at Mt. Olivet.

Owing to the rush for the Nevada gold fields, prospecting in Utah has fallen off to such an extent as to leave the surveyor general's office with very little to do, and as a result most of the force is being laid off indefinitely.

The Mutual Improvement associations of Pioneer stake will give a district party in the Seventh ward assembly rooms on Friday night next, Feb. 17. During the evening there will also be musical numbers and light refreshments.

The Eleventh ward fair, which closed last night, proved a success from every point of view. The number which drew the gold watch was 1304. Its holder was not present at the drawing, but can secure the watch on presenting the coupon to the committee.

Section Director Hyatt of the local weather bureau will establish a volunteer weather station at Fort Douglas, as the meteorological directions here at that point and the station down in the center of the city are often as marked as though the two stations were several hundred miles apart.

Manager F. E. Leonard of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company at Butte for the last year, has been promoted to manager of the Salt Lake City exchange, and leaves for this city in a few days. George R. Armstrong of Chicago succeeds Mr. Leonard at Butte. The papers of the latter city speak in high terms of Mr. Leonard's abilities.

There is something of a musical curiosity on exhibition at the Clayton Music company's rooms in the shape of a Stadler piano that was made in 1805, and hauled across the plains in an ox cart 40 years ago. The piano has been at present a good deal on the tin pan order, but it is believed that the instrument can be repaired and put in pretty decent shape.

Judge Morse today rendered a decree in the case of J. G. Southern against Albert J. Young, setting aside a mortgage executed by defendant in favor of a third party on certain real estate in Fairfield addition to the center of the city after quieting plaintiff's title to the said property. It was held by the court that the mortgage was executed without any consideration and was void on plaintiff's title, hence it was set aside.

The committee appointed by the depositors of B. H. Schettler of the defunct bank, has employed Stewart & Stewart to look after the interests of the depositors. Mrs. Amelia Dale, chairman of the creditors' meeting, who resides at 630 Seventh street, and Mr. John Beck, chairman of the committee, who resides at 55 North State street, report that they have already given notice in the papers to all creditors to call upon them, and unless they do so immediately their interests cannot be looked after with that of the rest of the creditors.

PERSONALS.

State Engineer Doremus is in Logan today, to address the students at the Agricultural college on irrigation topics.

William M. Boyden and Edmund Rumbold, Baltimore investors, are at the Southern hotel, en route to the new gold diggings in Nevada.

H. B. Windsor is heard from at San Diego as greatly improving in health. He expects to be back by another month, ready to resume active control of his business.

Theodore Genter, formerly a resident of this city, is in town from Colorado Springs, to remain here until March 1, when he goes to Butte with his brother Albert, who was married in Salt Lake in 1840 and was married in W. J. Smith's hall. She leaves 8 children, 16 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held from residence of the deceased, 41 East North Temple street, on Monday at 11 a. m. Friends invited.

JAIL LIFE IN JAPAN.

Imagine a park or garden in the Japanese style, with dwarf trees, surrounded by a hedge instead of a wall. In this park a group of Japanese houses, like those occupied by the peasantry, are arranged in a row. Some are thrashing and grinding rice; others are weaving coarse cloth of a dark-red color, of which the prison uniforms are made; and old and infirm are separating leaves of paper. All of them receive a percentage of their earnings. The younger prisoners are in school. The discipline is military in form, but in its spirit is reformatory.

There are few evasions, notwithstanding the ease with which they could be effected. One reason for this is the efficiency of the Japanese police, which is said to be the best in the world. The prisoners are divided into three grades, and are differently fed, according to their physical ability. They are amenable to discipline, or exceptionally well behaved. The only other punishment is solitary confinement in a cell.
