Today are in a better physical condition than they have ever been in their history before. But few of them have recently been built into new territory, in which business has to be created by introducing a new population.

Again, the balance of trade is with us. We are about to settle for the hundred millions of gold that we withdrew from Europe in order to meet the demand for money in the markets

"Again, I am earnestly opposed to the government ownership of the interstate railways that are the arterial system of this country. Those railways should continue to be managed by private corporations. Government ownership of railways means state socialism, an increase in the power of the central government that would be dangerous. It would be a long step away from the individualism which, it is
