

A PORKEE'S FATAL STROLL.

Thrown an Engine from the Truck and it Raced to Esquimaux Mead.

A 300-pound porkee wandered on to the road of the Salt Lake & Ogden railway in front of the Utah Electric Light company last evening just in the presence of the Farmington passenger train. The engine would not start and the big porkee to attention and led to the scene of the accident. The porkee was in the right and the left and as there was no time to stop the train he was caught by the locomotive which threw him from the train. The porkee did not get up as the engine left the side of the road. Mr. Porkee, however, was not injured to any extent. The engine returned to the track.

Death of George Wood.

American Fork World: At 10:25 last night an aged citizen of this place, Mr. George Wood, passed quietly away to another home, which, no man returns the cause of his demise being paralysis. He has been a sterner and faithful Christian, a model man, a kind and loving husband and a good father, and his friends are legion; therefore a deep gloom is thrown over the whole vicinity in consequence of the visit of the death angel at the home of such an honored citizen. The funeral will be at the mortuary house at 2 p. m. Saturday, and a number of friends will attend from Salt Lake County will be present.

Mr. Wood was born at Popplewick, Nottingham, England, May 12, 1858, and is the son of Francis Wood and Sarah Pearson. He joined the Mormon Church in 1880, and was baptized in 1881, and started for America in 1882, arriving at Tremonton, N. J., April 20th, where he remained until June 19th, when he started for American Fork, Utah. He has since that time occupied his time at farming. He leaves a family of seven children, four boys and three girls. The wife passed away February 24, 1927.

Budger Against Bulldog.

The American Fork World tells of a fair rivalry between "budger" and "dog" and a fair proportioned and an angry bulldog. The dog went to his work with all fury and it seemed as though he would tear his little impudent antagonist into shreds, but nay, the faithful canine worked so hard, fast and faithfully that he finally became completely exhausted that he could hardly stand on his feet, but when he was going to lie down he saw the dog at the door and he went to the scratch, but he tumbled over and he was so tired that he could not get up and he was so tired that he could not get up and he was so tired that he could not get up.
