

GORKY DENOUNCES RUSSIAN DOUMA.

Addresses Open Letter to "Brothers in Arms, the Authors of Free America."

THERE MUST BE REVOLUTION.

People Now Understand They Will Get Nothing Except What They Take.

New York, May 10.—The duma which was inaugurated at St. Petersburg today was denounced by M. Gorky, the Russian author, in an appeal which he issued today addressed to "Brothers in arms, the authors of free America."

Gorky's appeal is entitled by him "An Open Letter to the Authors of Free America," and follows:

"Brothers in arms, why do I make my appeal to you?"

"Because in Russia the literary men are everywhere the first; they are the foremost, to enter into the struggle for freedom and the foremost to go down into the dungeons. Men of art, men of intellect, aristocrats of the spirit, these are the only true kings of the earth."

"They first, before all others, ought to understand and feel the misery of a people thirsting for freedom."

"You, knights of the spirit, cannot regard with indifference the fate of my country; you cannot look unmoved upon the sufferings of my people."

"They are fighting for freedom; they are thirsting to drink from the cup of human thought which you, too, have filled with the wine of your art."

"The Russian government has for centuries kept the people chained, their bodies in the fetters of force, their minds in the dark bondage of prejudice. For centuries it has debauched the soul of the nation. But the people are alive; their soul lives. They rise. The government became frightened and yielded to their demands; they believed its promises. But the government has again deceived them. It promised them freedom; it has given them the death of thousands. It promised them a constitution; it has given them a burlesque imitation of one."

"The Russian people now at last understand that they will get nothing except what they take with their own hands."

"The duma has destroyed all their illusions, all their hopes; it has filled the heart of the people with still greater hatred toward the government. They know now that they must have a revolution in order that they at last shall be free; that at last they shall enter the family of free nations of the world, that they may join hands with their comrades all over the world for the glory of mankind and the triumph of the human soul."

"Knights of the spirit, free people of great and free countries, remember the time when your forefathers fought for the liberty of America. That was but yesterday, and since then you have astonished the world by your power. That power was given you by liberty."

"I should like to believe that all of you, both the veteran soldier for liberty and its new recruits, will respond to the appeal with one unanimous accord of a great and mighty heart."

"M. GORKY."

SHELLS AND PROJECTILES TO BE BOUGHT IN OPEN MARKET

Washington, May 10.—Shells and projectiles for the navy department will, after June 30, 1906, be purchased by the bureau of ordnance in the open market, instead of, as is now the practice, in secret markets, from firms engaged in the manufacture of these articles. This change in existing conditions was brought about through the efforts of the chairman of the appropriations committee, Mr. Tawney of Minnesota, who offered an amendment to the naval appropriation bill, which the house had under consideration today, directing that the secretary of the navy should advertise for proposals for shells and projectiles so that all firms engaged in the business of their manufacture may have an opportunity to compete.

Much time was spent today in considering the question of enlistments in the navy and the failure of recruiting officers to properly enforce the law as to minors. An amendment offered by Mr. Koller of Massachusetts, which adopted prohibiting naval recruiting officers from enlisting seamen, or ordinary seamen or apprentices unless their application is accompanied by a certificate of the birth and written evidence other than the applicant's own statement that he is of the age required by naval regulations.

The debate on this amendment at times grew decidedly animated and a bit acrimonious.

After defeating amendments designed to enlarge the Washington, D. C., navy yard and the yards in Pensacola, Fla., at 5:15 p. m., adjournment was postponed tomorrow, having completed but a few pages of the naval appropriation bill.

CRIMINAL RECORDS LOST.

Men Held in S. F. Jail May Be Put On Probation.

San Francisco, May 10.—It is probable that the destruction of most of the criminal records and the present unsettled conditions will result in many of those now held in the county jail on various serious charges being placed on probation to work out their salvation.

This is illustrated in the cases of Harry Sheehan and John Condon, who

NO PERSON

Would Make Such a Proposition to the People of Salt Lake City Unless They Were Absolutely Sure.

Did you ever know or hear of a person who would offer to return every cent you paid him if he could not build up health and create strength and vitality for old people, weak, sickly women and children and the convalescent, create an appetite, cure stomach troubles, make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy? Or cure hacking coughs, chronic colds, throat and bronchial troubles?

This is exactly the offer our well known and reliable druggists, Druehl & Franken, make to every person in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Druehl of the above firm says, "Our offer is based upon what we believe to be the greatest strength-creator and health-restorer known to medicine. Vinol, which is the up-to-date form of administering cod liver oil, recognized for centuries as the grandest of all body-builders, agents for wasted human strength and vitality."

In Vinol we have simply done away with the useless system-clogging oil, and given the people all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and we have never sold in our store a medicine of more intrinsic value.

As a body builder and strength-creator for old people, weak women, young children, after sickness and for all pulmonary diseases, its fame has spread so far that it is now guaranteed by over two thousand of the leading druggists of the country and especially by us." Druehl & Franken, also Smith Drug Co., druggists.

before the earthquake were facing the penitentiary.

Both these men are charged with attempt to commit robbery and attempt to commit murder.

Condon was tried, but the jury disagreed on the evidence. The district attorney now believes that there is little chance of a conviction with the records gone.

Atty. General, who represents Sheehan, explained to the court that all the relatives of his client were burned out of their homes, and were camped in the park, where they were very much in need of a man's support.

IRONSIDES MILL BURNS.

Boise, Ida., May 10.—The mill of the Ironsides Mining company in the Black Hornet district was burned at an early hour this morning, involving a loss of $20,000. The fire is supposed to be incendiary. The mill was not in operation, but was to have been started again in a few days.

VESEVUS STILL ACTIVE.

Naples, May 10.—The fresh eruption of Mount Vesuvius continues, although it is of small proportions. However, the detonations are so loud that there is a general fear that new lava streams are about to appear.

CALLS KENTUCKIANS HOME.

Frankfort, Ky., May 10.—Gov. Beckham today issued a proclamation summoning the 600,000 ex-Kentuckians now residing in other states to return to Louisville for "home coming week," June 13 to 17.

FOUGORE, FAMOUS DANCER

Convicted in London of Shoplifting in Drapery Stores.

London, May 10.—Fougore, a famous Parisian dancer, who has made and spent several fortunes, was convicted at the Clerkenwell sessions today, together with his husband, Albert Giroi, a French actor, of shoplifting in London drapery stores. Sentence was deferred.

JOHN REDMOND OPPOSES THE EDUCATIONAL BILL.

London, May 10.—On the resumption of the debate of the educational bill in the house of commons today, John Redmond, the Irish leader, in behalf of the Irish-Nationalists, protested against the system of education which was being forced on the Catholic minority, and which violated their conscientious convictions. Ireland, he added, had always been denominational in principle, believing that religion was the most necessary part of the education of children. As the bill contravened that principle, the Irish members opposed it.

The bill was passed on its second reading by a vote of 410 to 204.

BLUE BOOK ON NATAL.

London, May 10.—A bluebook issued tonight gives a dispatch from the governor of Natal, dated Feb. 13, stating that it had been ascertained that the native outbreak in the colony was premature, and that the unrest which has been observable among the natives for two years was intended to culminate in simultaneous and concerted action, Ethiopianism being the main spring of the movement, with the cry of "Africa for the blacks." The dispatch says that all information points to Dinizulu and his supporters as the leading spirits of the movement.

JAPAN OPENING PORTS.

London, May 11.—The correspondent at Tokyo of the Daily Telegraph reports that in pursuance of the policy of opening the principal Japanese ports it is announced that the Maizuru naval station will be opened immediately.

The same correspondent says it is said Baron Hayashi will become foreign minister and Baron Komura Japanese ambassador to Great Britain.

ARRESTED FOR SHORTAGE.

Newburyport, Mass., May 10.—City Treasurer James V. Felker was arrested tonight charged with shortage in his accounts. The alleged deficiency was placed at $46,000 of $50,000. Felker pleaded not guilty when arraigned. In default of $10,000 bonds he was committed to jail. Felker is alleged to have speculated in mining stocks.

LA FOLLETTE FOR IMPRISONMENT.

For Those Who Violate the Provisions of the Interstate Commerce Law.

RAILROADS ABOVE THE LAW.

Dolliver Said Head of a Great Company Said Roads Couldn't be Expected to Obey It.

Washington, May 10.—In connection with the consideration of the railroad rate bill, Senator LaFollette today attempted to secure the imposition of imprisonment for violation of the provisions of the interstate commerce law. He proposed terms from one to five years, in addition to fines from $1,000 to $20,000 for unjust discriminations or false representations to secure business at less than the established rate.

Calling attention to the fact that the Elkins act had removed the imprisonment penalty, he claimed that the effect had been a rapid increase in violations of the law. He expressed the opinion that if Congress wanted to make the proposed law effective it would reimpose the imprisonment provision.

Senator Dolliver called attention to the fact that there had been no conviction under the old act, and said that the change was made in the Elkins law because of the general opinion in Congress that more could be accomplished by a penalty omitting the imprisonment feature. Nevertheless, he intended to vote for the amendment because he believed that "the great representatives of the property interests should be compelled to show the same respect for the laws as the common people."

He said that the president of a great railroad company had said to him that the railroads could not be expected to obey the law.

Senator Bailey expressed surprise at Mr. Dolliver's statement, saying that the law had not been enforced because the officers of the law were more to blame than the offenders; they were, he said, of the two classes, far more culpable. "Restore these penalties," he said, "and two of these rich offenders in prison and their stripes will bear example to all of their kind. If they will not obey the law, let's put them in the common jail where they will be compelled to obey it."

Mr. Lodge offered an amendment restoring the penal provisions of the act of 1887, as a substitute for Mr. LaFollette's amendment.

After further discussion Mr. Lodge accepted as a substitute for his amendment one prepared by Mr. Stone, restoring the penalties of the old law in different form than that of his own.

The Lodge-Stone amendment was adopted by a vote of 49 to 27, and the amendment as amended was then carried by a vote of 73 to 2, the two negative votes being cast by Senators Gallinger and Pettus.

Senator Keen stated that he had presented a substitute embracing the recommendations of the commissions, adding the requirement that lettings charges shall be included in schedule of terminal cost, and Mr. Tillman withdrew his amendments in the interest of the bill.

Mr. Keen finally withdrew his substitute, and Mr. Tillman proceeded with the presentation of the commission's suggestion in detail.

A controversy arose over the commission's suggestions requiring the schedules of carriers to cover the transportation by water as well as by rail. Mr. Aldrich objected, contending that the effect was to enlarge the provisions of the first section, and that it was therefore revolutionary.

The amendment was agreed to. Mr. Warren presented a bill to the senate accepted, an amendment requiring that in time of war preference shall be given to the transportation of troops and munitions of war.

The question of rebates paid to shippers was then taken up. The question arose in connection with an amendment offered by Senator McCumber, providing that any shipper receiving a rebate from a carrier shall be fined to the extent of three times the amount received. The North Dakota senator said the amendment was intended to prevent shippers from continuing their practice of demanding discriminations, saying that the great trusts were the principal offenders against this requirement. He declared that the trusts have the railroads in their power, and added:

"We have been very careful so far in this legislation not to interfere with them, notwithstanding they are practically responsible for all the rebates."

He amended his provision so as also to impose the penalty of imprisonment. The amendment was agreed to without division.

Following is its text:

"Any person, corporation or company who shall deliver property for interstate transportation to any common carrier, subject to the provisions of this act, or for whom, as consignee or consignee, any such carrier shall transport property, who shall knowingly or willfully, by employee, agent, officer or otherwise, directly or indirectly, by or through any means or device, whatsoever receive or accept from such common carrier any sum of money or any other valuable consideration as a rebate or offset against the regular charges for transportation of such property, as fixed by the schedules of rates provided for in this act, shall be deemed guilty of fraud, which is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction, within the district where such offense was committed, in addition to any other penalties provided by this act, be subjected to a fine equal to three times the sum of money so received or accepted, and three times the value of any other consideration so received or accepted, as ascertained by the trial court; and in the trial for such offense all such rebates or other considerations so received or accepted for a period of six years prior to the commencement of the action may be received in evidence and the said fine shall be three times the total amount of money or three times the total value of such considerations so received or accepted as the case provided, that the foregoing penalties shall not apply to rebates or considerations received prior to the passage and approval of this act."

SAN FRANCISCOANS STILL COOKING IN THE STREET.

Washington, May 10.—The war department received the following telegram over night from Gen. Greely, dated Presidio, San Francisco, May 9:

"While conditions improve slightly, the miserable situation may be indicated by the statement that all the food for 30,000 people in San Francisco is yet necessarily carried to the public streets."

"The courage of everyone continues wonderfully. Neither drunkenness nor disorderly conduct, except from adjacent towns occasionally. Mayor Schmitz is still averse to closed saloons, which have been constantly urged by me.

"The Red Cross finance committee, Dr. Devine and myself concurring, will issue free food after Saturday next only on alternate days, except in camps under strict military control. Red Cross agents will be present on alternate days of non-issue to provide for exceptional cases of need that may arise. The average issue in San Francisco, Oakland and elsewhere still exceeds 200,000 a day.

"Every possible method being made to reduce the food issue by questioning, exclusion and otherwise. Of course, extreme destitution and much suffering occurs on the part of many people, who resort to charity only in extreme cases. Altogether an endurable situation."

AM. BIRTH INS. CO.

Proceedings Instituted for Appointment of a Receiver.

Boston, May 10.—Proceedings were brought in the supreme court today by Atty.-Gen. Dana Malone at the instance of the insurance department against the American Birth Insurance company, seeking the appointment of a receiver to close up the affairs of the concern.

The company was conducted on mutual lines and by its means the policyholders, who paid a small sum monthly received, upon birth of a living child, a cash benefit from $3 to $20, depending upon the class of policy and the number of payments before the time of birth.

The directors of the company say that the actual birth rate has found it impossible to do business profitably. At the present time there is said to be outstanding between $25,000 and $50,000 of insurance. No statement is made of the company's assets, but it is stated that the concern is solvent.

A MILLION IMMIGRANTS.

For Ten Years Country Can Advantageously Admit Them.

Philadelphia, May 11.—"We can admit a million immigrants every year for 10 years, and if they are put in the right place they will prove a benefit to the United States," said Immigration Commissioner F. P. Sargent last night while discussing the immigration problem at the semi-annual meeting of the Philadelphia Baptist city mission. "The American people," he said, "are greatly stirred up to day over the influx of immigrants. I do not think there is any cause for alarm. There were 1,025,000 admitted to this country last year; there will be a million more this year. Let them come. We want the right kind of immigrants."

"Had dyspepsia or indigestion for years. No appetite, and what I did eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sunbury, Ohio.
