

LAWSON BROS. BEAT TURVILLES

Unlimited Tandem Pursuit Race—
Rode Three Miles Five Laps.

GUSSIE SURPRISES IVER.

He Wins at the Tape in the Three-Quarter Mile Professional Handicap—Amateur Events.

In the neighborhood of two thousand bicycle enthusiasts attended the Salt Palace races last evening and everybody was apparently satisfied with the outcome of the events. The crowd was an unusually gay one and the riders and officials came in for a good share of merciless "joshing." Again the Lawson brothers came out ahead of all others and were cheered lustily for their efforts. Little Gus Lawson surprised his friends to the astonishment of his brother Iver, by tearing a race from him when within twenty feet of the tape. It was in the final of the three-quarter mile handicap professional. In the preliminaries both Iver and Gus qualified easily, but Iver's chain broke and he was thrown out. In the final the referee placed Gus at the scratch with Iver, although heretofore he has been given a handicap. Iver jumped out right at the start and his little brother tacked on to his rear wheel. For three laps and a half Iver pulled Gus along at a hair-raising pace, but the youngster never wilted. On their last lap they cleverly wriggled through a tight pocket and came over the first tape even and nose. Gus broke the tape and took it into his hands to grab first money. Just before they reached the finish tape the little fellow shot his wheel about half a foot ahead of Iver's and won the race. The time was 1:28, beating the state record, one second and Vaughan third.

It was expected that Hoffman, the speedy amateur, would demolish the world's record of 2:05-2-5 last night in the mile amateur handicap, but the leaders loaded from the start and didn't ride fast enough to keep warm. The finish was in 2:05-1-6.

The race was first given to Meldrum, and it was the opinion of everyone except the judges that he really had first place; but they reversed the decision and gave it to Hoffman. At this the crowd stood on its feet and howled much.

One individual whose voice made a noise like unto that heard in the vicinity of a boiler factory, suddenly awoke from slumber and undoubtedly imagined that he was at a foot ball game. Here is his shout: "Iah! rahi! rahi! rahi!" Iver, known as "Jamey" and who, it is said, is a dealer in "hot air," tossed a dollar with reckless abandon at the feet of Track Manager Bill Rishell and told him to purchase something for the judges. It was accepted but the judges spurned it and said they could get money at home. Up to a late hour this afternoon Mr. Rishell and the crowd were still doing "close harmony." The exciting race of the evening was the unlimited tandem pursuit race between the Lawsons and Turvilles. Clem and Charley Turville had plenty of backers who were confident they would win. For two miles and a half the teams rode around and around. Iver and John soon convinced their opponents that it was all off. After riding three miles, five laps and sixty yards they passed the Turvilles. The time was 7:44-2-5.

RISLEY PLAYS FOR SPOKANE.

Report That Salt Lake Players Will Come to This League.

It is reported that the management of the local league ball team has secured Risley, who was seen here last year with the Pocatello team. The latest records show his batting average to be .335 and his fielding .885. Risley is also a pitcher of no mean prowess, besides being a good base thief, and a player that plays ball until 27 men are out.

"Doc" Brown is in receipt of a letter from Hawley, asking for a reconsideration of the offer extended him by the local team. He was told that the offer would hold good, and he is likely to be heard from in a few days.—Spokane Spokesman Review.

RENEWED ITS LEASE.

California Jockey Club Still Holds Emeryville Race Track.

Oakland, Cal., June 12.—The California Jockey club has renewed its lease on the Emeryville race track for ten years with an option to extend the lease seven years longer if desired. The lease is from Mrs. Margaret A. Moe of San Francisco to Fredrick Thomas H. Williams and Secretary R. B. Milroy. It is agreed that a monthly rental of $500 shall be paid in advance. It is further stipulated that the California Jockey club may assign the property to the Mercantile Trust company to raise $400,000 with which to pay the San Francisco Jockey club for the Singleside and Tanforan tracks. The purchase price was $600,000. In the event of racing being prohibited by the state legislature it is agreed that the California Jockey club may conduct on the premises any other forms of amusement it may see fit. The buildings are to be insured at between $60,000 and $80,000.

SAILED FOR LONDON.

Alfred J. Kraenzlein of Pennsylvania After English Championship.

New York, June 12.—Alfred J. Kraenzlein, a former student at the University of Pennsylvania and the greatest athlete in the world, sailed for London on the steamship Servia. His intention in visiting the British isles is to compete for the second time in the English championship sports which are to be held early next month.

His showing on the mark in the broad jump will be watched with interest on both sides of the water as he will meet P. O'Connor, the Irish champion, who is recently reported to have broken all records with a leap of 24 feet 3 inches. O'Connor finished second to Kraenzlein in the English championships last year.

Cornwall will probably be elected vice commodore of the Royal Yacht Squadron.

The king has been compelled to resign the commodoreship and the nomination of the duke to the second office would be a graceful recognition of his royal highness' enthusiasm for yachting. It is understood that Sir Thomas Lipton has resolved again to seek election to this very exclusive club and the king himself will be his sponsor. Sir Thomas' rejection last year was a poor reward for his plucky attempt to win the America's cup and did not reflect credit upon the squadron.

Bloomer Girls Win.

A dispatch from Moscow, Idaho, says that the Boston Bloomer girls' baseball team was there today and defeated a local nine. A big crowd witnessed the game, both from the grandstand and the surrounding hillsides, which afforded a full view of the grounds. People from many towns were there. Pullman, Genesee, Colton, Kendrick and Troy being well represented.

The ladies played good ball, and won with a score of 6 to 5. The game passed off smoothly and as advertised.

AT THE RESORTS.

The temperature of the water at the lake at noon today was 71 degrees. Manager McAlister, of Sault, reports that although the weather remains cool the water is of a higher temperature than the atmosphere. Close upon thirty people went in bathing yesterday.

The Veteran Volunteer Firemen are holding their first outing of the season at Calder's Park today. Baseball and other sports are to be indulged in and a general good time is anticipated.

The first ward Sunday school has its outing at Sault today.

The Ninth ward is out at Lagoon today. Tomorrow St. Mark's Sunday school will migrate to the Farmington resort.

Manager Critchlow, of the Lagoon, is laid up at his home with a severe attack of rheumatism.

The All Hallows college cadet corps, accompanied by the college band, held a field day at Lagoon yesterday. During the afternoon the cadets gave a very creditable exhibition drill. After this were the balance of the day was spent in athletic contests and dancing.

The Sunday schools of Weber county will come to Sault on June 18, the arrangement having been made by E. H. Goddard, of Ogden, who made a special trip to this city for that purpose yesterday. On this occasion Prof. McClellan has consented to give an organ recital in the Tabernacle so that the church and their parishioners have the privilege of hearing the new instrument.

ARE BORN TRADERS.

Town Seems to be Full of Habitual Swappers.

"The folks up in my town are natural born traders and swappers," said a man from Philadelphia, "and nowhere else in the country will you find such a curious lot of propositions for 'exchange' as appear right along in our home papers. I like to read 'em, because there is nearly always a story lurking between the lines, and sometimes it is a story brimming over with human interest. Take this, for instance, in the paper I just got at the news stand:

"Will exchange boxing lessons for books; poetry preferred."

"There you have a touching vision of an honest slugging pining for higher things. It is true he might have made it brier, and imply said: 'Punching for books,' but hold! here is another ad' directly below it that suggests an even more extended train of thought:

"Small brass saluting cannon; guaranteed perfectly safe; will exchange for artificial ever say good night."

"Now what more do you want to set your mental biograph in motion? The whole picture shapes itself vividly on the curtain of my brain—Fourth of July evening; a well kept lawn; Chinese lanterns in the trees, children wandering about shooting crackers; small brass cannon won't go off; paternal-familias approaches to investigate; large, pompous man, who knows it all; brushes little children aside; kneels down and looks into crutch-hole; rises suddenly with a yearning for artificial eye of any good make. You see how easily a little drama unfolds itself upon the application of the least thought! Some of the ads are pretty suggestive of romance, and this one, for instance, in which a young man wishes to exchange a 'collection of decorated beer mugs' for 'a washing machine in good order.' That tells the whole story of a transfer from the gaudy Bohemian den of bachelorhood to the cozy fireproof flat of matrimony. Others are reeking with interesting mystery, like the one here, that offers a horsepower gas engine for 'a desirable cemetery lot'—whatever a 'desirable cemetery lot' may be—and still others are merely curious, as this, in which the advertiser wishes to exchange an ice cream freezer for a bull terrier; or this, which proposes to swap an incubator for a folding bed. Taken altogether they supply the imagination with the wildest kind of a field in which to trip and frolic. I wouldn't miss 'em for anything. To me they are the most absorbing part of the paper."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

GOOD COMMON SENSE EDUCATION.

Every boy and girl that is educated should be able to—

Write a good, legible hand. Spell all the words in ordinary use. Know how to use these words. Speak and write good English. Write a good, correct letter. Add a column of figures rapidly. Make out an ordinary receipt. Receipt it when paid. Write an advertisement for a local paper. Write a notice or report of a public meeting. Write an ordinary promissory note. Reckon the interest or discount on it for days, months and years. Draw an ordinary bank check. Take it to the proper place in a bank to get the cash. Make neat and correct entries in day book and ledger. Tell the number of yards of carpet required for the parlor. Measure the pile of lumber in the shed. Tell the number of bushels of wheat in the largest bin, and the value at current rates. Tell something about the laws of health and what to do in case of emergency. Know how to behave in public and society. Be able to give the general principles of religion. Have a good knowledge of the Bible. Have some acquaintance with the three great kingdoms of nature. Have some knowledge of the fundamental principles of philosophy and astronomy. Have sufficient common sense to get along in the world.—National Educator.

"It Saved My Life."

Willard, Ill., August 1, 1900.
I was in bad health this spring and could not sit up in bed for four weeks. When I was confined my child died. When I began to sit up I felt so weak and had such terrible pains in my back and hips. I had kidney trouble, heart trouble and falling of the womb. I also had hysterical spells. I was in a bad condition when I received your "Ladies' Black-Draught" and read the advertisement of Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught. Since April 20th, I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui and three packages of Theodor's Black-Draught. I feel like a new person now. I can do all my work and can walk out to see my neighbors. I believe I would have been in the grave had it not been for Wine of Cardui. IT SAVED MY LIFE.
Mrs. ALICE DAVIS.

It is well that women are more patient than men. Few men could bear the bitter pangs, the agony and distress that women endure. Thousands of women have come to look upon suffering as a duty of their sex. But there are many instances of this heroic fortitude which now renders unnecessary. Women need no longer suffer for modesty's sake. Wine of Cardui brings relief to modest women in the privacy of their homes. Many of the best homes in this city are never without this great medicine. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb and completely eradicates these dragging periodical pains. Mrs. Davis' cure shows you conclusively what you may expect if you follow her example and take Wine of Cardui. Theodor's Black-Draught aids Wine of Cardui by regulating the stomach and bowels. When you ask your druggist for these medicines, be sure you get them. It was Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught that saved Mrs. Davis' life. Never take a substitute.

SHRINERS IN KANSAS CITY

Streets Swam With Most Gorgeously Appareled Arabs.

They Are Given Up to Parades—Brass Bands and Marching Clubs Everywhere—A Gay Scene.

Kansas City, Mo., June 11.—Not since the Democratic national convention have so many visitors from all parts of the United States been in Kansas City as are gathered here to attend the twenty-seventh national meeting of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. Gorgeously-labeled Arabs have illuminated the streets all day.

With morning and night parades, a session of the imperial council and sightseeing, the Shriner have spent an exceedingly busy day. The imperial officers were escorted from the Hotel Baltimore to the Standard theater this morning by all the uniformed Shriner and a large number in carriages. After the welcoming speeches at the theater all but delegates were excluded, and the council entered upon its business, considering reports of officers and committees. The session adjourned at 1 o'clock until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, when officers will be chosen and the next place of meeting decided on.

The downtown streets were given over tonight to brass bands and marching Shriner in brilliant oriental costumes, with an accompaniment of fireworks and the booming of mortars. The splendor of the costumes of the Arab patrols was enhanced by the electric lights and by the pyrotechnics set off by the Topeka Flambeau club, which led the procession.

Ararat temple of this city furnished one of the most attractive features of the parade. Twenty-four of its members, who are connected with the livestock exchange, were organized as a mounted patrol. They wore turbans and flowing robes of yellow and white, and were mounted on jet black steeds and armed with long spears.

The regular patrol of Ararat temple was garbed in velvet, satin and fine cloth. The other organizations were no less brilliantly arrayed in purple and scarlet, chrome yellow and ultra-marine blue, and all the extreme of the category of colors were seen. Some of the best bands in the country were seen in the procession, and the strains of martial music were continuous.

A unique feature of the parade was the Indian temple patrol from Oklahoma City, which indulged in typical Indian war dances at regular intervals. The Zuhroh temple's patrol from Minneapolis was also in special favor with the crowds.

Perhaps the most picturesque division of the parade was the mounted patrol from Washington, D. C. This patrol, each member of which wore the costume of an Arab shiek, belongs to the Almah temple. The Almah patrol from Columbus, O., was brilliantly costumed and was a general favorite. Next was the patrol of the Medinah temple from Chicago, with twenty-four men, whose marching tactics aroused much interest. A mounted patrol was that of the Moallah temple from St. Louis.

The Abdallah temple of Leavenworth consisted of forty men, and their costumes were wonderful. The men wore long coats made of goods of Persian design and there were turbans on their heads. Ahead of them was the executive of the temple, a big bearded man with a cutlass on his shoulder.

The head of the parade reached convention hall at 10 o'clock. The Arab patrols, each company headed by a band, passed in at the main entrance at the south end of the building. The entire arena floor was set apart for the maneuvers of the patrols and after an exhibition of fancy drilling they

A NEW ISSUE IN JOLO.

The Sultan Insists Upon Exact Tax From All Pearl Fishers.

Washington, June 11.—An issue has been presented to the war department growing out of the exactions by the sultan of Jolo of a tax upon pearl fisheries in the waters of the southern archipelago. These taxes are compared with the value of the fisheries and have been paid to the sultan for many years past. Up to this time they have never been questioned, but now certain foreign corporations which have brought to the pearl fisheries improved apparatus and methods claim that they are exempt from this sort of taxation under the treaty of 1850 between Spain on the one side and England, Germany and France on the other, whereby Spain guarantees to other powers the freedom of the fisheries in these waters.

The question was referred to the war department by Maj. Sweet, one of the senior officers in the southern islands, and is now awaiting a decision.
