Davis takes part and helps the work along. The Young Ladies' association is also flourishing, and Times are prosperous. The mining industry is good and promising, and stockmen, farmers and ranchers are doing well. The mills are busy, but lumber cars are scarce. Yesterday Henry Stoddard, one the Stoddard Brothers, met with a very distressing accident. While unharnessing a horse, he received severe kicks, dislocating his shoulder and cutting gashes in his head. Logan Temple this week witnessed the marriage of David Geddes who is emsloyed at the Logan Sugar factory and Miss Nettle Thompson, who resides here with her parents. The morning session was given to Sunday school work, Weech's large hall wa The wards were each allo space on the floor and a part on the program, which consisted of concerrecitations, songs and other exercises in keeping with progressive Sunday work. The three leading choirs, Layton Thatcher and Pinta, rendered sever choice selections and continued their valuable service during the afternoon The work of the choral union was performed during the latter session, and it is gratifying to note the progress our musical people are making. Prof. Wm Moore Claydon has charge of these or-ganizations. His whole soul is in the work and he is rewarded for his dillgence Sunday afternoon and evening the Young Ladies' conference convened in the meetinghouse, Pima, and is records ed as the most interesting session they have had. President Andrew Kimball has ar-

There is again some scarcity of water naking it somewhat difficult for farmers to get their grain in this fall. Veg-etation generally looks well. The 5th and 6th crops of alfalta are doing well and we will cut a good crop of hay yet this fall.

The Layton new meetinghouse is well under way. The Thatcher new meet-inghouse has a good start, the foundation being now put in with concrete, providing for a huge basement for an entertainment hall. The Clifton meet-inghouse is about completed and will ready for dedication, free from any incumbrance, by the last of November when we expect a visit from Elder Hy-rum M. Smith of the quorum of the Apostles, and Elder J. G. Kimball of the First Council of Seventy.
