THE WEEK REVIEWED

The week has been an exceptionally gay one, every day having seen some entertainment. Luncheons have predominated though there has been a fair sprinkling of card parties, with a few Kensingtons to vary the list. Society is evidently aiming to lay by a store of pleasant memories to last through the enforced social fast of the Lenten season, and the remaining weeks will probably witness no cessation of the festivities.

SOCIAL GAT

The assembly balls always figure prominently in the notable social events and Thursday night's occasion was a memorable emphasis of their proverbial note. Christensen's was the scene of the festivities, and a large number enjoyed the dancing and general delightful atmosphere of the event. Beautiful music was furnished for the dancers, and delicious refreshments were served in the adjoining room. The gowns worn were exceptionally elaborate and helped to make the scene a brilliant one.

Perhaps the most notable of the smaller functions was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Filer at the Commercial club on Thursday. Japanese emblems figured throughout in the decorations, and with screens, drapings, fans, and the various other adornments made a striking picture. Extending the length of the table was a Japanese panel and above hung a large lantern to which tiny lanterns were attached. Japanese candelabra and shades and place cards of oriental design were used, and each lady was presented with a Japanese bracelet and large cluster of American Beauty roses. The guests were Gov. and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Miss Judge, Miss Read, Miss Anderson, Mr. Newhouse, Mr. Clarence McCormick, Mr. T. Ellis Brown, Mr. Goodwin, Mr. J. Wolcott Thompson and Mr. John Critchlow.

On Thursday Mrs. W. S. McCormick was hostess at a delightful luncheon given in honor of Mrs. W. G. Sharp, 12 guests being present to enjoy the event. Pink and green prevailed in the decorations and were used with artistic effect. Present to meet Mrs. Sharp were Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. G. K. Fischer, Mrs. A. H. S. Bird, Mrs. R. H. Channing, Miss Harkness, Miss Burke and the Misses Nason.

Mrs. Martha Royle King entertained at one of her delightful musicales on Thursday night, an enjoyable program being given, and a number of the prominent musicians of the city being present. The vocal program was given by Mrs. Martha Royle King, Mrs. Kate Birdwell Anderson, Miss Edyth Ellerbeck, Miss Edna Dwyer, Miss Edna Cohn, Mr. Fred Graham and Mr. Ed Copley. The pianists of the evening were Madama Leonis, Richardson, Peters, Putnam, Miss Rose Morris and Miss Judith Evans.

WEDDING BELLS

An event of the week of interest to many Salt Laker was the marriage on Thursday of Miss Amy Frances Bersbach of Chicago and Mr. Sam Porter of this city, the wedding taking place in the former city at the Ravenswood Congregational church in the evening, in the presence of a large number of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with lilies and palms—white ribbon streamers making an aisle for the bridal party. Miss Lillian Bersbach was maid of honor, and little Helen Bersbach was flower girl. The bride was attended besides by five bridesmaids. Mr. William S. Hall of Salt Lake was best man. The bride gown was of white crepe, with trimmings of point and Duchesse lace and the tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms. A shower bouquet of lilies of the valley completed the costume. A reception was held after the ceremony for the relatives and intimate friends, and later the bridal party left for a wedding trip to several of the larger western cities, after which they will return to Salt Lake to reside. Miss Emma Rose Wetzell and Mr. Frederick Murgieston were married in the Temple on Wednesday, and in the evening a reception was given at the home of the bride, the affair being a most enjoyable one.
