SUNDAY MORNING'S FIRE.

The Walsh Hardware Establishment Victim by a Blaze.

The M. A. Walsh hardware and grocery establishment was the scene of a fire early Sunday morning which did considerable damage to the rear end of the store, although the place itself had been a total wreck had not the fire ladders known their business.

The building occupies the Templeton hotel on East Temple street and the fire had required good headway when the department arrived. The rear of the place from roof to cellar was a mass, but the boys were not slow to grasp the situation and quickly turned on several streams of water, thereby gaining control of the fire in about water, and confining the damage to a space not over twenty feet square.

The loss is estimated at between $3,000 and $4,000, fully covered by insurance, while the Co-op, Furniture company, which occupies the basement as a store house for furniture, baby carriages, etc., sustained a loss of $2,000, which there is some insurance. The loss to the building, which is owned by the old People's Equitable Co-op company will be about $500.

STILL HALE AND HEARTY.

An Oculogran Pioneer Writes an Inviting Letter on His Early Life.

The following letter written to Secretary Rogers of the Semi-Centennial commission by James Leach of the Second ward, in this city, will be particularly interesting reading to his many friends owing to the fact that he has not recovered from the effects of a serious accident sustained by falling on the meeting house steps about three months ago:

Dear Sir:-In response to a call made for a list of all of the Pioneers who came here in 1847, I herewith inform you that I have the honor of being one of the noble band who passed their way across the treacherous prairie, the company with which I came being President John Taylor's company, the mouth of Emigration canyon on the second day of October in that memorable year 1847. I shall never forget a scene that lay stretched before me as I looked in the North and South and the West and though there was no vegetation, nothing but bare rocks and sage brush, nevertheless I felt that this would be a fitting place for the first white who composed our band. I felt that in the providence

AMUSEMENTS.

Every noon and earlier at the Grand Opera House afternoon and many were turned away disappointed, so great was the desire to see Carmen. It was announced before the curtain at the matinee that an afternoon performance of the piece would be given on Wednesday of this week, but notwithstanding this the house was again filled to its utmost capacity on Saturday night. Carmen has met with much favor and the New South, which will be given this week, will without question do the same; the opening performance will be given on Wednesday night.

On Wednesday night Robert Fitzsimmons, the pugilistic champion, will appear at the Grand in conjunction with the company, giving an athletic program.

The sale of seats for the testimonial benefit to be given at Champion James J. Corbett at the theater on Wednesday evening began at the box office this morning. A good program, consisting of log-jumping, sparring, wrestling and other athletic sports will be given. The ticket to see Corbett as the champion seems to be no less than when he held the ring honors and a big audience will be about the theater on the occasion of his appearance.
