SENATE.

Remedy For Financial Evils—Standing Committees.

WASHINGTON, 4.—In the Senate Ferry advocated, at length, his plan to remedy the present financial evils and, in conclusion, asked that it be referred to the committee on finance when appointed. (A synopsis of Ferry's proposition was published in last Monday's paper.)

The motion of Anthony, to proceed to the election of standing committees was agreed to, as was also the motion to add a new committee to be known as the committee on Civil Service and Retrenchment, and to add two members each to the committees on Foreign Relations, Claims, and Education and Labor. The Senate then elected the standing committees as follows: Privileges and Elections, Morton, chairman, Carpenter, Logan, Anthony Alcorn, Mitchell, Sumner, Hamilton, of M. D., and Saulsbury; Foreign Relations, Cameron, Morton, Hamilton, Howe, Frelinghuysen, Conklin, Schurz, Stockton, and McCreery; Finance, Sherman, Morrill, V. T. Scott, Wright, Ferry, of Michigan, Fenton, and Bayard; Appropriations, Morrill, of Me., Sprague, Windom, West, Ames, Sargent, Allison, Stevenson and Davis; Commerce, Chandler, Spencer, Conklin, Buckingham, Boutwell, Gooden and Dennis; Manufactures, Robertson, Sprague, Gilbert, Fenton and Stockton; Agriculture, Frelinghuysen, Robertson, Lewis, Dennis and Gordon; Military Affairs, Logan, Cameron, Spencer, Clayton, Wadleigh, Kelly and Ransom; Naval Affairs, Cragin, Anthony, Morrill, of Me., Sargeant, Connor, Stockton and Norwood; Judiciary, Edmunds, Conklin, Carpenter, Frelinghuysen, Wright, Thurman and Stevenson; Post Offices and Post Roads, Ramsey, Hamlin, Ferry, of Mich., Flanagan, Dorsey, Jones, Saulsbury, Merriman and Hamilton, of Md.; Public Lands, Sprague, Windom, Stuart, Pratt, Oglesby, Wadleigh, Boutwell, Kelly and Tipton; Private Land Claims, Thurman, Ferry, of Conn., Fenton, Bayard and Bogy; Indian Affairs, Buckingham, Allison, Oglesby, Morrill, of Me., Ingalls, Bogy and McCreery; Pensions, Pratt, Ferry, of Conn., Oglesby, Ingalls, Patterson, Hamilton, of Texas, and Norwood; Claims, Scott, Pratt, Boreman, Wright, Mitchell, Boutwell, Davis, Merriman and Goldthwaite; District of Columbia, Lewis, Spencer, Fitchcock, Robertson, Jones, Dorsey and Johnston; Public Buildings and Grounds, Morrill, Gilbert, Cameron, Stockton and Cooper; Territories, Boreman, Hitchcock, Cragin, Clayton, Patterson, Cooper and McCreery; railroads, Stewart, Scott, West, Ramsay, Hitchcock, Cragin, Howe, Frelinghuysen and Hamilton of Texas, Ransom and Kelley; Mines and Mining, Hamlin, Chandler, Sargeant, Crosier, Tipton and Goldthwaite; Revision of the Laws of the United States, Conkling, Carpenter, Stewart, Alcorn and Ransom; Education and Labor, Flanagan, Patterson, Ingalls, Sumner, Morton, Bogg, and Gordon; Civil Service and Retrenchment, Wright, Boutwell, Sherman, Hamlin, Howe, Hamlin of Md., and McCreery.

The composition of the minor committees was not materially changed.

On motion of Morton the credentials of Pinchback and McMillan, as senators from Louisiana, were referred to the committee on elections.

After a short executive session the Senate adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.

Bills Introduced, &c.

In the House a large number of bills were introduced, including a bill by Leach to restore the franking privilege; one by Hunter authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to put into circulation the balance of the forty-four millions of the reserve by purchasing bonds therewith; one by Wilson, declaring the true intent and meaning of the Pacific R. R. Act. It prohibits the approval by the President or any department of the government of the maps presented by the central branch of the Union Pacific R. R. Co., for an extension of that company from its present western terminus to the hundredth meridian. The object of the bill is to prevent the company from procuring a subsidy of lands and bonds for a distance of about 250 miles. It declares that, under existing legislation, the company has no right to the subsidies sought to be procured by the approval of the maps. One by Kendall, to require uniform charges on railroads, and to prevent unjust discrimination by the roads.

A number of propositions were introduced to amend the rules of the House; they were referred to the committee on rules. Several of these propositions embrace the prohibition of the incorporation of federal legislation in appropriation bills by the committees of conference. Another of the proposed amendments provides for the reference to some standing committee of all resolutions calling on the President for information, and of all resolutions looking to the investigation of the conduct of any of the officials.

Kellogg offered a resolution directing the special committee on education and salaries to investigate the actual amount paid to the members of the last Congress for salaries, mileage, stationery and other allowances; referred to the special committee. The speaker announced that special committee as follows: Hale, of Me., Maynard, Kasson, Scofield, Hale, of N. Y., Niblack and Jewell.

The house adjourned, the Speaker stating that he would announce the standing committees to-morrow.

A resolution by Hale, for a select committee of seven, to consider the subject of the repeal of the income salary bill was adopted, and a number of bills on the subject were referred to it. One by Beck proposes to cut off the allowance for the President's household in consideration of the increased salary, and two others propose to abolish all pay and allowances to members.

EASTERN.

The "Manhattan."

PHILADELPHIA, 4.—A special from Wilmington says the monitor Manhattan is expected to sail for Key West to-morrow, in good trim and with everything secure and safe.

Feeble.

WASHINGTON, 3.—Alex. H. Stephens, Representative from Georgia, was received by the President in one of the reception rooms on the main floor of the White House, to-day, being too feeble to ascend the stairway.

Terrific Gale.

BUFFALO, 4.—A terrific southwest gale has prevailed here since early this morning; the water in the lake rose higher than for twenty years. The stores in the lower part of the city were flooded.

Endorsed.

NEW YORK, 4.—The Tammany general committee, to-night, unanimously endorsed the action of Representatives Holman and Cox, at the late Democratic caucus at Washington, relative to the back pay.

The Chief Justiceship—The "Virginius."

The nomination of Geo. H. Williams, as Chief Justice was to-day referred to the Committee on Judiciary, but no further action was taken on the subject in executive session. It is stated that the President, from the beginning, made up his mind not to appoint a successor to Chief Justice Chase from the Supreme Court bench, and that he did tender the appointment to Senator Conkling, who declined it. He then wished to appoint Caleb Cushing, and to retain Attorney-General Williams in the cabinet until near the expiration of the presidential term. It was calculated that by that time Cushing would retire by reason of age, and in that event he would appoint Williams. The proposed appointment of Cushing not being considered expedient by the cabinet, hastened the President's purpose to appoint Williams.

The Department of State has no information to communicate concerning arrangements for the surrender of the Virginius and her surviving passengers and crew to the United States naval forces. Nothing had been received up to a late hour this evening to cause apprehension that this part of the protocol would not be carried into effect, and the statement was unreservedly made that the Spanish officials were acting in good faith.

Another Official Thief—Shot and Killed.

MEMPHIS, 4.—It is now certain that A. Woodward, the county trustee, has absconded with $15,000 or $20,000 of the county funds, and that he had also hypothecated forty thousand dollars in county warrants, which had been paid, but not cancelled.

J. H. Grace, drunk, was shot by A. W. Taylor, a saloon keeper, who refused him credit for drink, died this evening in Taylor's saloon.

WEST INDIES.

Intense Excitement in Havana—War Spirit Rampant—Resignation of Captain General and other Officials.

HAVANA, 4.—Captain General Jovellar telegraphed to the Madrid government to-night to the following effect: "The Madrid government peremptorily orders the Captain General to deliver up the Virginius. General Jovellar respectfully resigns his position, and demands that another person be sent to take his place who can carry out the orders of the government. Considering the excited state of public opinion and the impossibility of overcoming difficulties, General Jovellar submits that delay should have been granted, during which an opportunity would have been given for reflection, and time gained to allay the fiery patriotic spirit of the great national party in Cuba; but strong orders from Madrid, immediately to be executed, deprive him of this resource, through which he hoped to uphold the authority and interests of the country. In order that the Madrid government may comprehend the difficulties of the situation, and do justice to the ardor and perseverance with which he began his labors, which had already begun to produce fruit, the Captain General describes the situation in the island, and declares that the impression produced by the news of the arrangements which had been completed between Spain and the United States can be compared with that produced in Spain by the treaty of Bayonne, which led to the war of independence against Napoleon. He begs to assure the government that the immediate delivery of the Virginius will instantaneously cause a frightful commotion throughout the island, which would be sure to result in successive catastrophes, even if a man of the highest ability should be in command here." The above dispatch was forwarded early in the evening. Public feeling is intensely excited, but the greatest order prevails owing to the confidence which General Jovellar inspires.

The Voce de Cuba says the leading merchants of Havana held a meeting this morning to provide for the purchase and armament of a number of fast steamers as cruisers in case of war with the United States. The same paper says that Col. Jimenerz, of the first battalion of volunteers, has offered to arm six sea-going steamers out of his own means, and the merchants of Cienfuegos have ordered the purchase of two fine steamers abroad for war service, and later information increases the number ordered. It is reported that several new battalions of volunteers will be organized immediately, and the Catholic society proposes to organize a sanitary batallion. The Voce declares that Salor, the Colonial Minister, has forwarded his resignation to Madrid. Captain General Jovellar telegraphed his resignation twice. The Governor also handed in his resignation. No answer to Salor's telegram had been received to-night. The authorities have sent, by cable, to Madrid, long extracts from the manifesto that had been drawn up in the Virginius case. Many influential Spaniards, in conversation to-night, express the opinion that further difficulties can be avoided provided that the condition of the surrender of the Virginius be changed. They are not unwilling to see her delivered into the hands of a neutral power, and to have the question of her right to bear the American flag decided by arbitration. The majority of the people are determined not to permit the surrender of the Virginius directly to the Americans, and if this is insisted upon, there will be a serious conflict. Calm people express the hope that the U. S. will waive the question of direct delivery. The authorities are willing to obey the mandates of Castelar, but the Spaniards will not consent to the direct surrender to the Americans. If Castelar and the government of the United States insist, the authorities will be compelled to abdicate. The situation is extremely complicated, and nobody can tell the result. There is no naval vessel of the United States in port. One British man-of-war is here. A number of Englishmen have arrived in Havana to look after their commercial interests in person. It seems that Castelar inquired by telegraph as to the state of popular feeling in Cuba on the settlement of the Virginius affair. The captain-general replied that the people were unanimously opposed to the steamer's surrender, but before the answer could be received at Madrid Castelar telegraphed the terms of delivery in the port of Havana. This caused the greatest surprise among Spaniards.

AUSTRIA
