WASHINGTON, 16.—The grand jury this morning indicted Thomas J. Brady, it charges that on July 18th 1880, defendant made a contract with J. B. Price to carry the mail on the route from Socorro, New Mexico, to Silver City and back seven times a week, on a schedule of 25 hours, from August 1st, 1880 to June 30th, 1881, for $5,000, and that on November 3d, 1880, the contractor paid Gen. Brady $1,250 as compensation for awarding the contract. The witnesses are John A. Walsh, J. B. Price, J. O. Corcoran and J. W. Brady.

In the criminal court to-day the jury, in the case of Brady and others, was requested to say for Merrick that Reredell desired to withdraw his plea of guilty, and substitute one of not guilty; and special counsel for the government consented to this being done. The court said Reredell must come into court and make his plea, and order that he be brought in on Monday. The court said further, he thought the best thing to be done would be to enter a motion in arrest of judgment. Under the law it required at least two to commit conspiracy, and he could not do it. As the other defendants had been acquitted of the charge, the court would find itself unable to pass sentence on him.

Major Nickerson's second wife did not leave the city with him, as reported; but has been here for three weeks, and has no idea where the Major is. As soon as she was advised of the action of the Philadelphia court, she informed her father that she could not live with him, and they separated. She has not seen him since.

Mrs. Ellis B. Cresson, eldest daughter of Chief Justice Lusk, died yesterday. She was 65 years of age.

KINGSTON, 16.—A telegram announces the sinking of the propeller Canada, near Rockport, bound up, loaded with general merchandise, the wrecking master Hastings has gone to the rescue.

KANSAS CITY, 16.—A heavy thunder storm visited this vicinity this evening, doing damage to property in the city, but not serious. Trains are somewhat detained on account of wash-outs.

Jas. R. Darrow, yardmaster of the Hannibal & St. Joe, while directing the making up of a train at the Union depot, was struck by lightning and killed. He was Superintendent of the Valley division, a member of the Order of Railway Conductors, and well known throughout the Missouri valley.

BOSTON, 16.—Gray's Opera House is burned; loss, $100,000. E. H. Gray, proprietor of the opera house, says every one in his own part of the house was safe, but a little confusion; no one hurt. He was in the room when the fire started. There were over a hundred in the house; on the stage twenty-three actors. Most of the actors' wardrobes, Gray estimates their loss at $100,000. George Burnham, who occupies part of the basement, lost $300. At 4 o'clock the fire is under control. Occupants who lose everything are, basement, C. W. Banker, blacksmith, G. S. Goldsmith, painter. First floor, L. Wood & Co., wood yard, the establishment. Second floor, W. O. Taylor & Co., machinery; L. A. Bates, blacksmith; J. F. Gunn, iron worker. Third floor, Fred Chase, pattern worker; E. C. Packard, machinist. Fourth floor, Warner, Baxton & Co., machinists. Fifth floor, sales, J. H. Crook, the furniture store, and the establishment.

Workmen all through the building barely escaped, not saving their tools. Some fears are expressed that all the Gray company, and all the employees of his theatre got out. There was a stampede in the audience, but it is not known that any one was hurt, or any serious loss. The entrance before the flames reached the auditorium.

Pittsburg, 16.—A Uniontown, Pa., special says: All that was mortal of Nicholas Lyman Duke, the man whose presence caused family discord and disgrace and bloodshed at Uniontown, was hidden from sight to-day in Church Cemetery, the burying ground of the Struble family, a short distance from here, in German township. Very few Uniontown people attended the funeral, and those who did go went through curiosity. The services were conducted by Revs. Muhlenberg and Bailey, of the Presbyterian church, and were short and at the same time impressive. In the course of his remarks Muhlenberg said it was not for him to judge Duke. He had gone to answer before a higher tribunal. Struble, mother of the deceased, then took a last look and sobbed aloud as she gazed on her son. The coffin was then closed and the cortege, which was composed of about 300 people in 92 vehicles took up their march to the cemetery. On arriving there the usual ceremonies took place, after which the body was lowered to the grave and the party returned to the Struble mansion for dinner.

Dispatches from all parts of the country are yet pouring in to the Nutt family, tendering sympathy and offering financial aid to be used in Nutt's defense.

Quite a sensation was produced to-day in connection with the Hill investigation. Assistant Secretary New, chairman of the commission, had just announced that there would be
