ber of officers of the Nauvoo Legion, ty, and, after the train started, they and several other leading citizens startof Bishop Chauncey W. West. From the first organization of the militia district of Box Elder and Weber Countics, the deceased had acted as its commander; and for this reason a request had been made by Lieut. Gen. D. H. Wells of the leading officers of this Division-to which they cheerfully responded-to be present at the funeral. Their names were:

Gen. B. Young, jr., Gen. H. B. Clawson, Col. H. P. Kimball, Col. John Sharp, Col. J. C. Little, Col. Jos. A. Young, Col. Isaac Groo, Col. J. T. Caine, Col. H. P. Richards, Col. H. P. Richards,

Col. Jeter Clinton,

Lt. Col. J. B. Winder,
Lt. Col. J. D. T. McAllister,
Lt. Col. H. S. Beattle,
Lt. Col. H. J. Faust,
Lt. Col. W. Jennings,
Major John Clark,
Major I. S. Hills,
Major Andrew Rust Major Andrew Burt, Major Peter Sinclair, Major J. B. Lewis, Capt. J. S. Houtz, Capt. John Sharp, Jr., Lieut. S. B. Young.

Of other Elders there were:

John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, Lorenzo Snow, Geo. Q. Cannon, Joseph F. Smith Bishop Peter Maughan, Bishop Abraham Hoagland, Bishop Abram Match. Bishop John R. Murdock, A. Milton Musser, Aurelius Miner, T. B. H. Stenhouse, Joseph E. Taylor, Orson P. Arnold, H. S. Gowans, W. C. Williams.

There were also several ladies in the Company.

The party anticipated reaching Ogden in ample time for the meeting at 11 o'clock and everything went on smoothly until the train arrived at the scene of tended than this one held on the cars plause. The joint resolution that Virginia is the late accident, about six miles from this city, where a temporary track had been laid. At this point the four truck wheels of the locomotive ran off the track; the train was proceeding so carefully at the time, however, that no damage was done to the line or the locomotive. Getting 'the locomotive back on to the line, and making the track so secure that the train could pass on in safety, occupied nearly four hours. Fortunately for the party the Superintendent of the Road, Joseph A. Young, Esq., and John W. Young, Esq., who had laid the entire track, were on the train, and a number of the men employed on the line were convenient; so that everything possible was done to facilitate the passage of the train over this bad spot.

lay, that though a disappointment to every person in the party, as the funeral ceremonies were arranged to take place at 11 o'clock, there was not an unpleasant word uttered or even an ex pression of vexation seen on any countenance. Cheerfulness and good humor prevailed, and all were willing to do everything in their power to remedy the difficulty. The train reached Ogden a few minutes after three p.m.

A very large congregation of people convened, at the hour appointed, at the Tabernacle, in Ogden, whither the remains of Bishop C. W. West, accompanied by the mourners, were carried, expecting every minute that the visitors from this city would arrive. The services were delayed until 1 p.m., the assembly sitting during the time with the greatest patience. As described to us the meeting was a most solemn and affecting one. The deceased was intimately known by the entire people, having been brought in daily contact. Who are calling for the pure in heart to with the most of them. They knew his worth and he was greatly endeared to them, and as was remarked by Elder Franklin D. The speakers on the occasion were Elders Walter Thompson, Lester Herrick, Lorin Farr and Franklin D. Rich-

After the services the congregration was dismissed, and the remains of Bro. West had just been carried back to his late residence when the train with the visitors arrived. A procession-consisting of the family and relatives of the deceased in carriages, followed on foot by those of the apostles who were present, other relatives, the Mayor and City Counell of Ogden, the officers of the Legion from the district lately coramanded by the deceased and from this city, and citizens of Ogden on foot and in vehicleswas then immediately formed, and, preceded by the he rae bearing the remains. and the Ogden brass band, repaired to the cemetry. Appropriate, very touching and condolatory remarks were made to the assemblage and the grief stricken family, at the place of burial, by Elder John Taylor, who also pronounced the benediction, after which the procession returned in the same order to the place of starting.

Six p.m. was the time appointed to return; but as this did not allow sufficient time for the company to obtain the necessary refreshments the Superintendent kindly delayed the departure of the train until half past six. The Mormon car is moving and has been in motion long. At first, her power was feeble; but now it's getting strong. And having started on the track, the best that we can do,

Is to keep the ear in motion and pop her quickly through. She has friends abroad, in every land, in nations near and far step into the car. They will station them and ticket them what more then can they do? Than to tell them all to step on board, and she will pop them through.

with pukes and suckers too;

Who have prophesied the Mormon can could never travel through; But on solid track, and fired up, with Deseret in view She disappointed all their hopes, and popped her quickly through. She has had a few collisions as she's moved along the track, ... And been jostled, crushed and splintered; but she never would go back.

And though opposed by every power, she ne'er collapsed a flue; But let on steam, and clear'd the track, and popp'd her quickly through.
