

EVENING NEWS. PUBLISHED DAILY, SUNDAY EXCEPTED, AT FOUR O'CLOCK. PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE DESERET NEWS COMPANY. CHARLES W. PENROSE, EDITOR. Wednesday, Nov. 9, 1881. AN IMPARTIAL INVESTIGATION. We have noticed in several papers allusions to the course which President Arthur is expected to take in relation to the "Mormons." It has been announced that the President has already taken steps to secure impartial and complete information on the Mormon question. This is viewed by some journals with satisfaction, and they imagine that an investigation of this kind will result in the inauguration of severe and hostile measures against the "Mormons," whom they imagine to be in a chronic state of rebellion against the Government and in a generally turbulent and lawless condition. But there are other papers, perhaps a little better informed, who do not want any impartial inquiry, fearing that it would show the people of Utah to have been vilified and slandered, and the hue and cry raised against them to have been made for the vilest purposes and without any sufficient cause. Among the latter is the Rochester (New York) Herald, which in a leading editorial says: "But we do not like the look of the word 'impartial' in that connection. Information that comes from unbiased sources about Mormonism is not worth having. No one whose judgment should be followed by the President can have any information about the institution who is not dead against it. Sentimental tourists have dropped down on the City of the Saints for a few days on their trans-continental tours, and come away with glowing periods about the way the Mormons have made the wilderness blossom as the rose. Hard-headed business men who know a dollar every time they see it under whatever disguise, but who have neither the taste nor the capacity to study and understand social and political problems, have expatiated upon the industrial and material prosperity of the community. But both classes have failed to see behind and beneath these surface indications the mass of moral and social rot, the intolerable despotism, the cruel wrongs and sufferings that exist as the product of the accursed system of Mormonism. It is not the evil of polygamy alone that President Arthur should inquire for, but the evils of Mormonism. Polygamy is but one, though the most conspicuous and offensive, of the abominations of the parent system." This enunciation will strike candid minds as the extremity of intolerance. The sentiment it contains, however, is not uncommon to opponents of "Mormonism." They act if they do not express it. They only wish to hear what can be said against the system. They do not desire that others shall listen to anything in its favor. They have made up their verdict from one side of the case. The other side is given no opportunity to rebut or defend. The influential press of the country will publish the most ridiculous stories and abominable falsehoods against the "Mormons," but as a general rule will print no refutation of the calumnies. If the falsehood of an anti-Mormon statement is too glaring for the public to receive, any admission of its untruth is made in such a way that it is a virtual attack on the "Mormons" from a little different standpoint. The public ear is closed against any "Mormon" statement of facts or reasonings in support of their position, and, as another eastern paper puts it, "argument on this question is not required; dynamite is wanted to blow the whole thing to pieces." The Government of the United States has once before been urged into foolish and hasty action on the so-called "Mormon question" and, just as now, to proceed without any "information from unbiased sources." Certain officials, corrupt at heart and licentious in deed, left this Territory and went back to Washington with stories of "Mormon rebellion," alleging that the people here had stolen and destroyed court records and other public property and driven them from their posts. Without waiting to make an impartial investigation, troops were dispatched to subdue the people supposed to be in rebellion; the "Mormon" Governor was displaced and his successor appointed; no information of the change was forwarded; no opportunity for explanation was given; no statement of the charges was made to the people accused; no reply was asked for or wanted. But the new officials were sent on with an army to install them and the Territory was treated as though the accusations against the citizens had been proven beyond doubt. What was the consequence? The Government wasted millions of the people's money, and exhibited to the world the truth of the adage of the wise man, "He that judgeth a matter before he hearth it is a fool." It was clearly demonstrated that the authorities of this great nation had jumped at a conclusion and landed in a quagmire. The men whose testimony they received without any "information from unbiased sources" were proven to be liars. The records were neither stolen nor destroyed. There was no "rebellion" against the Government. The rascally officials had deserted their posts, and their statement was a mass of spite and perjury. Then the Government found it necessary to "pardon" the "Mormons" by wholesale for offenses they had never committed, and when the troops were withdrawn, the people against whom the wicked plot had been formed reaped the sole benefits of the crusade, started for their destruction, the material left behind and sold for a mere song, proving a source of great wealth to them. "Impartial" and "unbiased information," which the Rochester Herald does "not like the look of," would disclose the fact that the sensational stories received by otherwise well informed people as exposures of "Mormonism," are baseless and absurd untruths. Those "hard-headed" business men who have failed to see behind the undeniable industrial and material prosperity of the "Mormons," the social rottenness, the intolerable despotism and the cruel wrongs, which have been pictured by bigoted religious declaimers, vile and defamatory enemies of the "Mormons" and novel-writing mercenary, are far better qualified to pronounce judgment on what they have seen, than eastern editors who swim with the tide of popular opinion, who form their opinions from hearsay, who do not want anything "impartial," and who spurn every thing in relation to the subject that comes from an "unbiased" source. We tell the Rochester Herald that there is more social rottenness in the city where it is published than is ever thought of among the peaceable, honest and home-loving people of Utah. Men who live here and who have traveled among "the cities of the Gentiles" know of these things. When our young men, reared in polygamous families take their first journey into the world, they are amazed and horrified at the deep and damning social inequities, existing in "Christian" communities and tolerated by bigoted "Mormon" haters as necessary evils. "Impartial investigation" will show that society in the East, where "Mormonism" is denounced with affected horror, is black as midnight compared to the quiet purity of "Mormon" life, where the strongest safeguards are thrown around female virtue, and any sexual indulgence outside the marriage relation is viewed, next to murder, as the highest crime against God and true religion. The one thing that alone offers any excuse for an outcry against Utah, is the practice of plural marriage, improperly called polygamy. That is opposed to the popular theories concerning marriage. A law has been specially framed against it. But it is not and cannot be understood while impartial investigation and unbiased information concerning it is silenced or repudiated. The law against it contains within itself a fallacy. It confounds it with a well known and recognized crime with which it has nothing in common. It is totally unlike what it is imagined to be. The stories concerning it are drawn from purulent imagination or concocted for villainous purposes. And whatever may be thought of it, right or wrong, its proportions have been magnified by rumor and interested falsehood beyond all relation to reality. And the whole force of the national authority is demanded to be hurled against a small Territory in the Rocky Mountains, because a few of its citizens—its whole population being but a handful—have more women than one married to them by a religious ceremony under specified restrictions, and who live in arrangement in the marriage relation by arrangement and consent of all the parties. "Impartial investigation" is not feared nor desired by the "Mormons." We court unbiased scrutiny. We do not object to honest criticism. And the fact that "unbiased information" is not wanted on this subject ought to be proof enough to people of calm judgment, that the stories in which the policy of force is urged are at least of very doubtful verity. The country has been flooded with falsehood about "Mormonism" and their marriage system. Popular opinion has been formed through the basest imaginings and insinuations on a subject liable to the very worst misrepresentation, especially among those who are corrupt in spirit and smutty in conversation. But it is according to the genius of statesmanship and the principles of constitutional government, to condemn a community on one-sided evidence; to let loose the forces of destruction upon a people unheard and undefended; and to rush into harsh extremities with ears closed against "unbiased information and impartial investigation." [We think not. And in spite of the wishes of our unwise and incendiary writers as the editor of the Rochester Herald, we have no doubt that proper inquiry will be made by the new Administration before any step will be taken like the anti-Mormon "flasco," which disgraced the term of Buchanan and crippled the country for its first struggle with a great and veritable "rebellion."]

How many were in the building at the time of the accident is not known. The removal of the bodies is being pushed with all speed. The ground floor of the building was occupied as a liquor store and the upper portion by tenements. Mary Bald and John Rudolph, child five, were taken out of the ruins slightly injured. May Seville is probably fatally injured. All were sent to the hospital. The bodies have been taken out of the dead bodies of Francis Kraus and son. Catherine Buder was also taken out fatally injured. The whole fire department is expending the ruins. Up to 11 o'clock five bodies were taken out of the ruins. Mrs. Francis Kuap and her son, and Mrs. John Rudolph and two others names unknown. Killed. The Marquis de Rochambeau and wife killed this morning for France. A large number of friends gathered to see them off. Bonds and Railroads. The demand for bonds in California is daily, and probably will become an important movement. A foreign house had it that several European syndicates had recently sent here to absorb the bargains in the way of bonds. It is alleged to have said that the Texas Pacific will be sold before Christmas. The success of Gould in the Erie election will end the railroad war immediately. Insiders sold out on the prospect of trouble with the Union Pacific are bringing back their stock. The Northwest Co. is said to be earning 15 percent per annum. The Waba-h is taking advantage of the opportunity to advance rates at all points not touched by the competing roads. French Delegation Coming. The Herald, alluding to the breaking up of the French delegation this morning, says: Quite a number of the party are determined not to leave America without having seen the wonders of California, and they will depart to-night for San Francisco. Among them are the brothers Subane, Comte Beaumont, M. DeNovices, Dabodille, Commander of the Bureaux, DePussy and several others. They will go first to St. Louis, thence to Chicago and from Chicago to San Francisco, stopping at the usual resting places a day or so, in order to see as much as possible of the country, and to return by way of New Orleans in a month's time.

The democrats, however, claim that they have gained five more members of the legislature, and lost one, making a gain of 13, which necessitates a further gain of 2 to give them a majority on joint ballot. The readjusters are confident that their State ticket is elected and estimate Cameron's majority at 15 to 20 thousand. As to the legislature they claim a good working majority on joint ballot. NEW YORK. Albany, 9.—The Argus editors at noon to-day claimed the election of the democratic State ticket by 2,000, though, owing to Carr running ahead of the ticket, he may be elected. They say the senate is a tie and the assembly is in doubt. The Evening Journal says: The senate is a tie and the assembly two republican majorities. They claim the election of Carr by about 2,000, and consider the State ticket, except Husted, probably elected. The republican congressmen in the 22nd and 27th districts are elected. NEW JERSEY. Trenton, 9.—The result in New Jersey is as follows: Out of eight senators elected the republicans elected four and the democrats four. The Senate will stand 12 republicans and nine democrats. The House, 30 republicans and 30 democrats, leaving the republicans a majority of three on joint ballot. Newark, 9.—The latest returns show a reduced republican majority in the Legislature. The Senate stands 13 republicans; 8 democrats. The House, 28 democrats and 30 democrats; one anti-monopolist republican, and one doubtful. New York, 9.—The complete returns from Brooklyn give the results for Mayor as follows: Seth Low, republican, 45,434; James Howell, democrat, 40,887. Low's majority 4,547. Meridian, Miss., 9.—A sheriff's posse, consisting of about 100 men, surrounded Ed. Vance's house to capture the instigators and perpetrators of the murders of Marion and John V. The posse killed A. F. Harvey, Joseph Barnett, Jeff Segars, James Hodges, Ed. Vance, who is charged with instigating the killing of a white man and an acknowledged leader of the republican party in Lauderdale county. When he fled to the woods and escaped from the sheriff's posse, he was accompanied by 30 negroes who were larricaded with him in his house. Fatal Railroad Accident. Cincinnati, 9.—A freight train on the Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington Railroad, jumped the road at South Covington, through some uncertain cause and demolished several cars, killed Conductor J. H. Love, but injured no other person. Quarantining the Central Pacific. San Francisco, 9.—A Sacramento dispatch says: In view of the fact that a number of cases of small pox have been reported from the Central Pacific Railroad by immigrants from Chicago, and that four counties of that State have become infected from this source, the State Board of Health has issued a communication to the Governor, recommending that overland immigrant trains be inspected at Truckee or some point near the boundary of the State, and if any persons be found to present evidences of variola they and the cars or cars in which they are passengers be quarantined, the cars disinfected and all passengers undergo a compulsory vaccination gratuitously. The Board also recommends the inspection of express trains. The Governor replied suggesting posting inspectors both on the Central and Southern Pacific lines, and placing at the disposal of the board, in addition to the regular appropriation for use of such funds as are at his disposal to meet these extraordinary emergencies. The railroad companies have promised co-operation and the Board of Health will at once arrange the details of quarantine.

FOREIGN. Choosing ship and shipper. London, 9.—The Lord Mayor went in solemn procession to Guildhall, with the usual ancient display, which drew immense crowds and with an innovation in the programme with a band of the American people, which was received with great enthusiasm. The "Stars and Stripes" were carried in the procession preceded by the regular army and the 4th Battalion of London Militia, playing the "Star Spangled Banner." After a short interval came the band from the travelling ship Warrigles, playing "Yankee Doodle." The American flag was received with clapping of hands and cheers. The same labor was not conspicuously rendered by any other feature of the procession, except as the coaches of the new and old mayors passed by. There was a demonstration as the procession passed the office of the United States Cable Company. Four young ladies waved American flags from the windows as our banner went by and there was loud and continued applause. To-day being devoted to the Lord Mayor's show, is a holiday and business is suspended. Agrarian Outrages. Dublin, 9.—The agrarian outrages in Ireland during October numbered 490, as follows: In Munster, 233; Connaught, 113; Leinster, 102; Ulster, 32. Land Commisison. At the first sitting of the land commission in Limerick, there was a large attendance, and about 200 claims for reduction of rent were presented. BRIEF TELEGRAMS. N. L. Scherck, importer, reported by his creditors to have lost for rent, leaving unpaid $5,000 of debt. The cotton factory of the Hulmerville Manufacturing Company, operated by Armstrong & Hawke at Lexington, is burned. Loss, $25,000. Several boxes containing presents given to Gen. Grant, were forwarded to Galena by express, last evening. They were in several boxes and were very interesting. Tuesday of next week will be the Mexican Veteran's Day. Gen. Sherman will be at Atlanta. The incidental weekly shows are abandoned on account of the great interest in the Exposition proper. Two men, Shea and Fane, who escaped from jail at St. Louis, to-day, were found committing a burglary to-night, and in trying to escape shot a policeman dead. Both were recaptured. The Vanderbilt line announced an advance of 5 cents per hundred pounds on grain and provision from Chicago to the sea-board, making the grain rate 25 cents and the provision rate 20 cents. The bottom has dropped out of the rebellion at the State Agricultural College, Michigan, and the offending classes have refunded the melon owner his cash, and settled down to regular and reputable business.
