

REV. SHORT'S NAME DROPS FROM TICKET

Tutor of First Methodist Church Declines to Run for Council But Will Support Goshen.

Rev. Francis Marguerite Short, pastor of the First Methodist church, who was nominated by the Republicans of the Fourth ward for city councilman Tuesday, has withdrawn his name and will not make the race for the council. He says, however, that he will support Rev. Goshen, who was nominated by the Republicans, Rev. Short says there is no ethical or moral reason why he should run in the race, as there are plenty of good men to choose from in the ward. He desires, however, that a problem exists in solving it by helping to elect Rev. Goshen. Ever since the convention, Rev. Short has refused to be interviewed, and it cannot be authoritatively stated whether he has consented to run or not. In giving his reasons for declining the nomination, Rev. Short said:

First—The duties would be too many for me to properly consider and care in connection with the many duties of my church, which already require all my time.

Second—This ward presents no ethical problem requiring special attention.

Third—There is a problem present in the Fifth ward, and all high-minded men should give it their careful consideration.

Fourth—I propose to assist Brother Goshen in his canvass. A gentleman and a good citizen, connected with juvenile court work in this state says that he considers I will be rendering very efficient service by the above action. It is thus declining the nomination I think the convention which nominated me, and feel assured they will succeed in finally filling the vacancy made.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Among the names mentioned for city chairman of the Republican party, are those of Harry S. Joseph, F. C. Loomis and Arthur Pratt. The committee and party candidates will meet this evening to choose a chairman and secretary and to decide on steps to be taken in furtherance of the interests of the party in the coming campaign. At a meeting of the Republican committee of the First ward held last night

New Poultry House at Fair Grounds

The new poultry building at the state fair grounds has been completed and the pens are ready for the opening of the big show next Monday morning. The new building is claimed by the builders to be the finest in the west, and it is certainly an ideal show house. Since the above picture was taken the grounds around the building have been covered with clean, white gravel. The building faces on the main avenue and is easily accessible from the main building.

KIMBALL GETS JOB GODMAN MADE FAMOUS

Will Perform Duties of License Assessor at $125 Per Month.

Frank H. Kimball was appointed license assessor by the city council last night to succeed Samuel I. Godman, who was arrested for beating his former wife, Mrs. Ida M. Godman, who was responsible for his appointment. Kimball will receive $125 a month. The license assessor's duties are to make the license assessor a separate department in the city government, but this will not be done this year.

John Racer was granted a liquor license at 78 east First South street after considerable wrangling. Racer has operated a saloon there for years. A theater opened up next door to his place recently and the management objected to the saloon. Under the ordinance, the manager held it was unlawful to have a saloon within a certain distance of a theater.

H. J. Dinning, city attorney, reported that the proposed sewer extension No. 12 was invalid because most of the work to be done on State street and Canyon road would be of no benefit to the property owners. This part of the work will be eliminated and the laterals will be constructed. The board of public works was authorized to advertise for bids for this part of the work.

The police and prison committee failed to report on the resolution of Councilman F. E. Farnsworth requesting the chief of police to close the slot machines. The committee does not intend to report on it from all appearances. The committee was not considered by the committee at its meeting. Unless a report is made next week, Councilman Farnsworth will ask to have it taken out of the hands of the committee and acted upon.

LIFE OF PRES. WOODRUFF.

Volume Prepared by Matthias F. Cowley. Issued From the Press.

The latest addition to the biographies of prominent members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is that of Wilford Woodruff, fourth president of the Church. The book, which was prepared for publication by Matthias F. Cowley, is handsomely bound in leather, and contains an exhaustive account of his life, with a number of photographic reproductions of scenes with which President Woodruff was associated. The book has a high value from the fact that President Woodruff was identified with the history of the Church almost from the beginning, and the fact that he always kept a full record of all the leading events of his life, has enabled the author to make the most of the experiences of his eventful life.

REPORTS OF DAIRIES.

City Chemist Shows Milk Above the Standard.

From the report of City Chemist Herman Harms, which was submitted to Walter J. Frazer, city food and dairy commissioner, yesterday, it is shown that the milk being furnished with first class milk. Thirteen samples of milk were submitted to the chemist and in every case the solids and butter fat are above the standard. Several black marks were received by the dairies for dirty milk. There were eight of the dairies which did not own their milk to reach the standard of the ordinance.

The scores of the dairies for the total per cent of butter fat and the total milk solids are as follows:

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The "Honey-moon Trail" came to Salt Lake without any particular reputation of its own, and the big house it drew last night was largely due to the fame of its authors, Messrs. Hough, Adams and Howard, who are responsible for "The Time, the Place and the Girl," and "A Stubborn Childe." The uppermost impression in the minds of the audience after seeing the "Honey-moon Trail," is that the players might have done better if left entirely to themselves for the material with which the authors have provided them is well nigh hopeless. He plot is about as tame as anything ever pitched for the stage, and the production is only saved by the cleverness of several people, the lively dancing of the chorus, the lights, and the costumes. The entire affair, as far as the type on the program is concerned, is a sort of farce, though he had few opportunities to tell whether or not his abilities justified the size of the type. Mr. Krimm had fully as much to do as the other gentlemen, and did it well, except that his vociferous exclamation at last grew monotonous. There was some fairly good singing done on the part of the ladies, the most natural actress among whom is Miss Maud Potter. The chorus contributed a number of attractive dancing numbers, and the singing was acceptable, without being great.

Those who like a lively succession of lectures, pretty costumes, and charming scenery, and who are not too particular about the quality of the plot and the jokes, will find the "Honey-moon Trail" satisfying to their taste. It runs the remainder of the week, with a matinee tomorrow.

Orpheum—Heavy business has been the record this week and the usual crush is looked for at tomorrow afternoon's matinee.

Colonial—The presentation of "Lena Rivers" by Miss Emma Dunning are in their closing nights. A big matinee is assured for tomorrow.

Grand—The Willard Mack company made up the week in "The Other Girl" tonight, tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Bungalow—The Arlington players will next week will be "The Cowboy and the Lady" with Miss Ince in the part created by Nat Goodwin.

Siegel Concert—The sale of seats for next Monday evening's event under the direction of Mr. C. C. C. is going on at the Consolidated Music company's store.

Mr. Best's Concert—Mr. Alfred Best, the popular Utah tenor, who is to give a concert in the tabernacle next Tuesday evening, received a telegram today from his manager in Berlin, Germany, stating that Mr. Best had been recommended to the Metropolitan Opera House in New York city for the season of 1910, and for him to make his arrangements accordingly. This is decidedly good news for Mr. Best, as it is a very rare occurrence for an American singer to be engaged for the Metropolitan company at the beginning of his career. At the concert in the tabernacle next Tuesday evening, the tabernacle choir, under Prof. Stephens, will render the two selections prepared for the Seattle contest, but which were not rendered at that time.

The Fitzpatrick Recital—Edward Fitzpatrick, the talented young violinist, will be given a benefit this evening in the First Congregational church as a testimonial prior to his departure for Boston where he is to attend the New England conservatory of music. The program includes the names of Mr. Fitzpatrick himself, Miss Edna Cohn, Mr. Graham, Miss Dornmeyer, Mrs. Atkins, Mr. Fred Smith and Mr. Kisselburg.

PETITIONS TO PARDON BOARD.

The following petitions from the state prison for official clemency, are on file at the office of the attorney general, to be acted upon at the meeting of the board of pardons, on the 15th inst.

For Pardon—N. F. Haworth, murder in the first degree; William Reese, burglary, second degree; P. L. Clark, felony.

For Commutation—James E. Rogers, burglary; Richard A. Voss, burglary; second degree; John E. Newton, forgery.

For Parole—Robert M. Smith, obtaining money under false pretense.

CHANGE OF TIME D. & R. G.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The girls of the high school held their first meeting yesterday afternoon to discuss their athletic organization. The meeting was held in the gymnasium assembly, and the members were enthusiastic in the effort to double the number of members of the association this year.

A good display of carving and turning will be made at the Utah state fair this year by Mr. Parrott, who has charge of the mechanical art course.

This afternoon the boys of the school will meet and elect officers of the athletic association for the coming year.

UNIVERSITY NEWS.

Gilbert Williams, who was graduated last year from the Salt Lake high school, was yesterday elected president of the freshmen class. At the meeting a constitution and bylaws were also adopted, but the election of other officers was postponed until next week.

Miss Lucy Van Oort, who has charge of the lunch room, has bought a number of fly killers with which to wage war on the flies of the lunch room and lessen the liability to contagion of any kind.

Monday night Miss Jane Williams will entertain the members of the junior class at her home.

Ask for $23—it's government inspected. It's the meat you should eat—it's never rejected. The meat that's the finest that's sold in Salt Lake. Uncle Sam says it's good, and he stands for no fake!
