OGDEN, UTAH, JULY 6, 1904.

SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Proposition to Raise Money for The Carnegie Library by Taxation.

AUSTRIAN THREATENS TO KILL.

Daniel Shupe's Funeral Thursday—Coroner's Inquest—Alleged Abductor Returns, Willing to Marry.

The city council met last evening and the following business was transacted: Carnegie library board of directors appeared in a body and through J. A. Howell, secretary of the board, asked council to impose an additional tax levy sufficient to raise $500 a year, providing Mr. Carnegie will make another gift of $1,000 to add to the efficiency of the library. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

The city will construct eight-foot cement sidewalks on the north and south sides of Lester park.

Health inspector reported for the month of June, showing 31 cases of contagious quarantine and 17 deaths during the month.

Claims and payrolls aggregating $3,293.22 were submitted and allowed.

DANGEROUS AUSTRIAN ARRESTED.

Sheriff Bailey made a good capture late yesterday afternoon of an Austrian named Jim Valecus, wanted on the charge of threatening to kill Miss Hogge, daughter of Joseph Hogge, of Weber. The affair arose because Valecus became infatuated with Miss Hogge and wanted to marry her, but was refused, as the young lady had no regard for him, and he made the remark to several persons that if he could not marry the girl he would kill her. These remarks were not communicated to Mr. Hogge, but on Sunday afternoon he was alone with his daughter, sitting in front of the house, his daughter in the raspberry bushes and stood up to see what it was, when he saw a man with a double barreled shot gun sneaking along toward the house. He called to him and asked what he was doing, and was surprised to see Valecus stand up. He replied that he was hunting chickens. Mr. Hogge thought nothing of the affair until one of the gentlemen, who had heard of the affair, called to him and told him of the threat. It was then Mr. Hogge realized what the Austrian's purpose was, and immediately called to the sheriff, and reported the affair. Sheriff Bailey went to several of the lower Twenty-fifth street saloons, in company with a deputy sheriff, when he ran across Valecus, who was playing a game of pool and seeing the sheriff, put down his hand to shake, when the sheriff placed him under arrest and lodged him in the city jail.

Valecus is about thirty years of age. He was placed under arrest once before, giving the officers a two day's chase. That time he with his brother were charged with fleeing a fellow countryman out of several hundred dollars, but he escaped with a small amount. It is believed that he had been married to his first wife, but he had not been placed under arrest.

DANIEL SHUPE'S FUNERAL.

The funeral services over the remains of Daniel Shupe, who was killed in the explosion at Glenview on the Monday night, will be held at the Third ward meeting hall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains may be viewed at the home of Mrs. Shupe's father, Hon. John Par. 222 Adams avenue, on date of the funeral from 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Friends invited. The funeral cortege will form at the home at 1:30 prompt and proceed to the church, and the casket will be closed to the public promptly at 2:30 p. m. Interment will take place in the Ogden City cemetery.

ALLEGED ABDUCTOR RETURNED.

Sheriff Bigby of Cache county has arrived in Ogden with C. M. Brown, from St. Louis, who is charged with the abduction of Miss Gladys Christensen of Newton, Cache county. Brown was arrested at St. Louis on the charge. The man was taken to his home last evening by the sheriff, but the prisoner was left in the county jail in this city. From facts obtained from Miss Christensen since her arrival in Ogden, it appears that instead of Brown abducting her she asked him to take her to St. Louis, which he did. Her father is to obtain forgiveness and Newcomb, to get her mother's consent to marry M. Brown, who is also willing to marry the girl. Should the consent be obtained, they will marry right away, and the case will be dismissed. Brown is a young man about 24 years of age.

CORONER'S INQUEST TO BE HELD.

A coroner's jury composed of Fred M. Nye, Arthur Klehne and Frank Grant, with Judge J. A. Howell, viewed the remains of Daniel Shupe and Miss Charlotte Clark, the victims of the Monday night explosion, preparatory to holding an inquest over the remains. There have been so many rumors as to how the deplorable accident occurred, and attaching blame to the Glenwood park management, it was thought best to hold an inquest to inquire into the facts pertaining to the accident, and if anyone is to blame, to attach the blame to them. After viewing the bodies, the taking of testimony was continued for a few days.

CRIMINALS SENTENCED.

Mike Swan and A. F. Beal were taken before Judge Rolapp for sentence, each having pleaded guilty to forgery. They were given one year each in the state prison, and were taken to the penitentiary today by Sheriff Bailey.

John Cain, one of the men who escaped a short time ago, but was rearrested, pleaded not guilty to house-breaking, but his date for trial was not set.

A number of civil and probate cases were set for hearing.

ABRAHAM CHADWICK DEAD.

Close of Eventful Life of Veteran Pioneer—The Fourth Honored.

Special Correspondence.

North Ogden, Weber Co., July 5.—The nation's birthday, under the direction of Joseph Barber. The Declaration of Independence was read by Miss Nettie Gibson, a historical cantata entitled "Columbia," presented in a creditable manner by the pupils of the day school. These and other numbers interspersed with excellent music by the band and ward choir, under the leadership respectively of Chas. Storey and A. G. Beal, made up the forenoon's exercises. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent on the park, with various outdoor sports and games, closing with a dance in the evening in the Jones hall.

ABRAHAM CHADWICK DEAD.

We are called upon to chronicle another death. This time one of our most aged and highly respected citizens is called to his reward. Abraham Chadwick, born in Bristol, Lancashire, England, March 20, 1821, and had reached the ripe age of 83 years, three months and four days, on July 4, 1904. He was married to Mary Burton, and both embraced the Gospel, coming to America in 1842. They resided in the North Ogden territory, returning to the headquarters for the Elders, Sept. 4, 1848, they resumed their journey Zionward, purchasing land and locating for a while in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Mr. Chadwick, fell a victim to the ravages of cholera July 15, 1850. Dec. 15 of the same year he returned toward the headquarters of the Elders, Sept. 4, 1851, where they remained three years. In October, 1853, he accepted a mission to the Fort Bridger country, returning in 1854. They came to North Ogden April 1, 1855, where he resided up to the time of his death, an honored and highly respected citizen. During his 40 years sojourn in North Ogden he has done much towards its upbuilding as a citizen, president and member of the church, and in the history of the ward. He leaves 26 grandchildren, hundreds of great and great-grandchildren to emulate his many virtues.

Allen (reported yesterday as Richard Allen) was taken before Judge Noon for a trial on a charge of having with intent to do bodily harm, he gave a bond of $500 to appear for preliminary examination, the time for which has not been set. The complaint grew out of the assault on Albert Olson Monday night. Olson, who is now in the hospital, is in a condition continues favorable to recovery.

Judge Booth was in Salt Lake yesterday.

Mrs. Blake of Nebraska, who is here to visit her father, Mr. E. A. Barton, brought her little 4-year-old son with her. He saw a street sprinkler at work for the first time, and asked what it was. Raymond Elliott met with a painful accident yesterday in Provo canyon. THE FOURTH IN CACHE.

Interesting Electric Light Fight—Eaton-Edward Concert.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., July 4.—The Fourth passed off very quietly. There was no celebration, but much of the people devoted the day to pleasure of some sort. Hundreds spent the day in the canyon fishing and picnicking and large numbers passed the day in the parks. The Fourth ward Sunday school, several hundred scholars, were overjoyed to have a picnic at the new playground, and had a genuine old time outing. In town there was a children's dance at the Thatcher pavilion in the afternoon and a dance for the young people in the evening. The young people celebrated the Fourth with a picnic at the Newton and a great many Logan people went out to those towns to take part in the festivities.

The baseball games at Wallville took a large number of people to that town.

ELECTRIC LIGHT FIGHT.

The electric light situation is developing into a merry fight. Since the installation of the city plant the Telluride Power company has reduced its rates from 75 cents a light to 10 cents and yet people are having their light cut out of their houses every day and putting the city lights in. There is a feeling generally that they will not stand for this, and they are determined to have the city lights remain at the contract price of three for $1, where they will likely remain. Up to the present no retaliatory measures have been taken against the Telluride company, but there is talk of action to condemn their present line which is not insulated and compel them to put up insulated wire.

President Elias Kimball of the Blackfoot stake came down from the north yesterday to spend the Fourth with his family. He reports everything prospering at Blackfoot.

EASTON-EDWARD CONCERT.

The Easton-Edward concert Saturday night was a very successful affair financially and otherwise, about 1,000 people were present. Mr. Easton's singing was well received and Mrs. Edward charmed all present, both were recalled several times. Mrs. Nettie Sloan rendered a piano solo and the Tabernacle choir sang two of its best numbers. The present spent a highly enjoyable evening.

Those present at the First ward services Sunday afternoon had the pleasure of hearing Prof. Easton sing the famous hymn, "O my Father."

Ruth Mason, editor of the Republican, has come east. While absent he will visit the fair and spend a few days with relatives in Indiana.

BRIGHAM CITY.

PATRIOTISM ON THE FOURTH.

Elaborate Celebration—Parade and Fireworks—Serious Loss by Fire.

Special Correspondence.

Brigham City, Boxelder Co., July 5.—The citizens of Brigham City showed their patriotism and enthusiasm in celebrating our nation's birthday. The first rays of morning light revealed a beautiful scene, the city was in the breeze, and the continuous roar of artillery until 9:30 a. m. when a procession consisting of Uncle Sam in a carriage, drawn by a splendid team, the military band, city officers in an artistically decorated conveyance, Goddard's Liberty, with 1500 maidens in beautiful dresses and school children carrying flags, was formed at Central school grounds, and moved down Main street. First, a band of counter-marching, it returned to the tabernacle. At 10 a. m. the tabernacle was completely filled with people of this city and adjacent settlements. Hon. F. V. Hatchburn was master of ceremonies and an excellent program was presented, consisting of music, songs, speeches and sentiments.

Mayor William Glasman of Ogden delivered the oration, and during his speech the celebration was interrupted by enthusiastic applause.

In the afternoon there were athletic sports of all kinds, and the celebration was played by the Brigham and the Fremont boys, which resulted in victory for our home team.

Sunday afternoon a fire broke out in the wings of the wind toward the city. The fire brigade, aided by many young men, fought the flames and finally succeeded in stopping them. At 10 a. m. before they had reached the cemetery, and done some damage.

SPEECH OF TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN WILLIAMS.

not be foreseen. It will speak out unmistakably against the Republican policy of starving home development in order to feed the scholastic appetite of National prestige and mere display of strength. It will bring about the up-building of a merchant marine, and bring it about without new or additional taxation upon the people, and without bounties from the public treasury, simply by a recurrence to those laws which were in force when we had a merchant marine of which every American citizen was proud of. Under Democratic administration the rights of labor will be recognized as no less "vested," no less "sacred," no less "inalienable" than the rights of capital and both will be dealt with justly and impartially according to their rights. The Democratic party will not hypocritically pretend to sympathize with those who desire, or with those who would not by all lawful and constitutional means prevent, the Africanization or Mongolization of any state or community within the bounds of the American republic.

PANAMA CANAL.

Under the treaty with the republic of Panama, which was rendered possible only by Democratic votes in the senate of the United States, votes very difficult for Democrats to cast because of the manner in which the mushroom republic was ushered into the world—the Democracy, when entrusted with power, will construct the Panama canal, and will honestly and economically, thereby giving to our people what Democrats have always contended for, a great inter-oceanic canal, furnishing shorter and cheaper lines of transportation and better and less strained traffic relations with the peoples of the world. However shamefully the Panama republic was born, and however shameful our connection with it, it was born and now recognized by the world as an existing international entity, an independent government on the surface of the earth. In other words, it, too, is an accomplished fact.

With it, as the only power having sovereignty and ownership, we were compelled to negotiate a treaty for the acquisition of a strip of land to be used for the construction of the Panama canal, if we were to acquire it at all.
