Feels to Take the Count.

While Bob Fitzsimmons was in Chicago a short time ago a local newspaper instructed one of its reporters to symposum from pugilists and former pugilists on how it seems to be knocked out. Fitzsimmons was down on the list as one to tell the sensations of taking the count in the roped arena.

The gatherer of news first appealed to Paddy Carroll, and Paddy unloaded a good bit of information on the subject He not only had experienced the sensation a number of times, but, as anyone knows who ever heard Paddy make a ringside address, he can "spiel" to perfection

Fitzsimmons was found buying boxing gloves in a sporting goods house, and an interview was immediately sought

I was never knocked out but once,' said Fitz, "and on that occasion I didn't know much about it. I was all out be-fore I was knocked out." Fitz leaned on a show case while he talked. His right was not six inches from the reporter's jaw. With a little short movement the Cornishman jarred the vulnerable point. The reporter's knees bent and he began to sink to the floor. Charley Essig, who was a spec tator, began to count. The reporter went full to the floor and took eighteen before he shook his head and pulled himself together. Getting up and still dizzy, he said: Thank you, Mr. Fitzsimmons, don't need to see anyone else to find out how it feels."

New York, April 6 .- When asked last night concerning the proposed race be-tween Boralma and The Abbot at Lexington, Ky., John J. Scannell, owner of The Abbot, said:

"I have not yet seen Mr. Lawson about the race, but that there is any chance against it I cannot conceive. As the terms have been explained to me, the race is to be for a side bet of $10,000, the association adds a guarantee of $10,000.

We have not had a meeting, but I expect that a conference will be held in a very short time, then we will be able make the proper arangements for race. The Abbot now is in training in Louisville, Ky., and will be prepared for the racing season at that place,

'As the horse in the hands of Trainer Ed Geers I have no means of knowing just what is the conditoin of the horse but I am satisfied that he will hold his place as the world's champion for this year at least, and I am willing to make any reasonable match for him."

Mr. Lawson is expected to be York in person to send an agent early The terms of the propo next week. match have been submitted to him by Horace W. # Nervous Harmony

When the nerve-centers of the body are overwrought and the tension becomes too great the whole system is out of tune. The heart is affected, circulation retarded, digestion impaired and the general health suffers. People who are nervous, restless, irritable, sleepless, dizzy and tired out, need just one thing to restore the nervous harmony, and that one thing is DR. MILES' NERVINE.

"I have used Dr. Miles' Nervine for relief of nervousness and impaired health brought on by close application to business, and aggravated to some extent perhaps by tobacco smoking. I found that it gave prompt relief and renewed strength without leaving any unpleasant results. The results obtained were both beneficial and lasting."
