

MRS. TALBOT TAYLOR

JAMES R. KEENE'S DAUGHTER TO GET A DIVORCE.

The close friends of Mrs. Jessica Taylor, the daughter of James R. Keene, the Wall street operator, who sued Talbot J. Taylor, her father's partner in the stock brokerage business, just one year ago, for an absolute divorce, learn from a source they would not disclose for publication, that Leo C. Dessar, the referee who has been taking testimony in the case, had completed his work and was ready to report his findings to the supreme court.

The finding, it is said by Mrs. Taylor's friends, is in her favor and will result in freeing her, within a few days, from her husband. As to the children of the couple it is said they are to remain with their mother, subject to the unrestricted access of the father.

PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES.

Wm. G. Conrad, of Montana, and arm of wealth and influence in the west is in New York on business.

In an interview Mr. Conrad stated that he would accept the nomination of the Democrats if tendered him. He profers, however, to see Wm. J. Bryan nominated, and hinted that he would be satisfied with second place on the national ticket.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER AND HIS GUARD.

Flanked by detectives, John D. Rockefeller and his grandchildren, Fowler McCormick, aged 11, and Aubrey McCormick, aged 6, attended Easter services at the Fifth avenue Baptist church last Sunday. Mrs. Rockefeller did not accompany her husband. The precaution of having half a dozen detectives guard him was said to be due largely to the presence of the oil king's grandchildren, who entered the church on either side of him.

Many of the congregation assembled at the church door to see Mr. Rockefeller. When he reached the entrance with his grandchildren, who were attended by a nurse, the squad of detectives stepped forward quietly and surrounded the party. One made as if to escort Miss Mauriel to the carriage, she gave a quick glance of disapproval, caught her grandfather's hand and started up Fifth avenue. Mr. Rockefeller was agreeable, and the detectives in two squads took up the march for the Rockefeller residence on Fifty-fourth street.

Event of a year big sale of Linens & White Goods at Keith-O'Brien's

Due to the prices. Due to the qualities.

An annual May sale of housekeeping linens and white goods at Keith-O'Brien's becomes an event of extraordinary moment. On this particular occasion it is decidedly out of the ordinary in that particular preparation has been made. A tremendous purchase from several mills, under market price enables the store to sell these two lines of beautiful merchandise at a price considerably lower than sales usually offer. To give greater force to the sale we have strained a point in lowering prices.

EACH ITEM ADVERTISED IS A BARGAIN IN THE FULLEST SENSE—A SAVING OPPORTUNITY THAT WILL MAKE THOUSANDS OF FRIENDS FOR THE STORE—THAT WILL CAUSE ONE CUSTOMER TO SPEAK TO ANOTHER OF THE UNUSUAL BARGAINS.

Every housekeeper delights in the possession of handsome linens. The qualities offered for inspection at this sale are commendable. The patterns are especially pretty. Never at one time in the past did a store offer greater values in dainty fabrics for spring and summer wear. It is the largest stock we ever put into a sale. The opportunities are greater. There is a wide assortment of handsome plaids and stripes.
