A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y

By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest—is the only true middle-line in that transcontinental system which invites and facilitates travel and traffic in either direction between the Atlantic and Pacific.

The Rock Island main line and branches include Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Genesco, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns and villages.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees Speed, Comfort and Safety to those who travel over it. Its roadbed is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are solid structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make it. It has all the safety appliances that mechanical genius has invented and experience proved valuable. Its practical operation is perfect in every method—its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommodations is unequaled in the West—unsurpassed in the world.

ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PALACE PARLOR and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and—between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City—restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over this route solid Fast Express Trains run daily to the summer resorts, picturesque localities and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. The rich wheat fields and grazing lands of interior Dakota are reached via Watertown.

A short desirable route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inducements to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and intermediate points.

All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and kindly attention.

EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - - May 24, 1887.

A GLOOMY OUTLOOK.

Here is the way a writer in the Western Rural views anarchism. He says:

"Anarchy is a social disease stirred into the future of some and by sympathy impressed into others, and the only possible remedy is to remove the cause that leads to the discontent. He says where one man gets that which of right belongs to another, whether got by law, custom of society, or upon the highway, he is a thief, and the plundered victims can't be expected to rest more easily under one plunder than another. A million of men out of employment and a million more at barely starvation wages, whilst their wives and children suffer all the pangs of hunger and cold that destitution in a wretched hovel, damp, moldy cellar or cold garret can inflict, can't be expected to rest easily, with massive fortunes wealth all around them which in justice belongs to those whose labor created it, but held by those whose only labors were the act of stealing. There is no use to talk of honest rich men. Taking Chicago wealth holders as samples, when 2,500 of the most wealthy are all found to have listed their personal property at less than $3,000 each, and swore to it, when the facts are that their personal property ranges from $50,000 to $1,000,000 each. And those fraudulent perjured lists are allowed by the city government, whilst every dud of the poor man is assessed at its cash value. Let legislation enact a stringent law that will send those perjured tax listers to the state's prison, and along with them the assessors and other officials concerned in the frauds, and collect all back taxes due from fraud, and anarchy among the wage-workers will be heard of no more. But let the rich go on at their present rate of amassing fortunes, and swearing themselves clear of taxation, and passing and enforcing laws against those who clamor for a better state of things, and the day is not far distant that the land will light up in flame and redden with blood."

Hints in Season.

Every number of the Decorator and Furnisher contains hints and suggestions that are most valuable in both the æsthetical and practical departments of the home. The rage for the old-fashioned, that can scarcely claim the antique, is a recognized condition of the feminine mind. This magazine has the following suggestions for floor coverings:

"Rag Carpets.—The passion for old-time things has brought into fashion the home-made rag carpet, but there are more artistic ways of having it woven than the everlasting stripe. A handsome carpet is a solid centerpiece of maroon. The warp should be colored the same shade as the rags, and all may be colored at home, if desirable for economy sake, with diamond dyes; and to utilize both light and dark rags, a very handsome border is made of shaded red and orange woven in the old-fashioned stripe. Another style is to have a very heavy warp used, twice as thick as for ordinary carpet; color it several desired shades. This produces a very pretty checked carpet, weaving in the rags in stripes."

There is scarcely a town in which the loom and a competent weaver cannot be found, the fashion of silk rag curtains having revived that industry.

Matting is a delightful covering for the floor in summer. It will not always lie perfectly smooth on the floor. The following is offered as a remedy for the bulging:

"If any portion of the matting stretches and raises in blisters after it is once firmly down, the place should be made quite wet, and allowed to dry. The best way to do this is to wet a large flannel cloth in very hot water, and, while slightly dripping, spread over the spot, letting it remain until the rushes and threads are thoroughly wet. When it is parly dry, lay a sheet folded four square over the place, and put the lap-board, or any smooth board, over the cloth. If the room is not needed, it is well to place a weight on the board, and allow it to remain over night. This will, in most cases, render the matting perfectly smooth. It shrinks the warp, and draws the rushes down into place. Matting may be cleaned with a cloth wet in salt and water, or clear water only. It is said that soap turns it yellow, and some housekeepers use weak soda water expressly for this purpose. The rushes will turn to a clear, pale yellow, which is often very pretty. An old bedroom matting was recently made to look very pretty by tearing inch-wide strips of blue and white ticking lengthwise, folding them, with the raw edges under, and tacking them about four inches apart over the entire floor. This was done with small matting tacks. The effect was very pretty. The room was hung with blue and white, and was voted the prettiest in the entire cottage."

The poet says:

"In the spring the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

But the housekeeper's fancy does not. Instead, it turns to thoughts of how to clean, settle, decorate, and renovate the home and its belongings, and to this she is moved by the same sentiments that sway the young man's thoughts; but, alas! she is not swayed to think "lightly." 'Twould be well, if she were. If there is one pleasure that thrills a true housewife more than another, it is to be able to make the old appear new, when "old" means "shabby," or to make a cheap article appear expensive. The cheap table now found in all our furniture stores, or tables that are marred, can be made to appear new by varnishing and covering. Table cloths are not always desirable, and cloth or plush can be fastened by to following method on to a wooden surface:

"Make a mixture of two and a quarter pounds of wheat flour, two tablespoonfuls of powered resin, and two tablespoonfuls of powdered alum; rub the mixture, in a suitable vessel, with water, to a uniform smooth paste; transfer this to a small kettle over a fire, and stir until the paste is perfectly homogeneous—without lumps. As soon as the mass has become so stiff that the stirrer remains upright in it, transfer it to another vessel, and cover it up, so that no skin may form on its surface. The paste is applied, in a very thin layer, to the surface of the table; the cloth, etc., is then laid and spressed upon it, and smoothed with a roller. The ends are cut after drying. If leather is to be fastened on, this must first be wet. The paste is then applied, and the leather rubbed smooth with a cloth."

The same process can be used in applying cloth decorations to the panels of doors.

Know Nothings.

A properly conducted printing office is as much a secret as a Masonic lodge. The printers are not under oath of secrecy, but feel themselves as truly in honor bound to keep office secrets as though triple-oathed. Any employe in a printing office who willingly disregarded this rule in relation to printing office secrets would not only be scorned by his brethren of the craft, but would lose his position at once. We make this statement because it sometimes happens that a communication appears in a newspaper under an assumed signature, which excites comment, and various persons try to find out who is the author. Let all be saved the trouble of questioning employes of a printing office. They are "know-nothings" on such points as these. On such matters they have eyes and ears, but no mouth; and if any fail to observe this rule, let them be put down as dishonorable members of the craft. It is the same in job printing. If anything is to be printed and kept secret, let proper notice be given of the desire for secresy, and you might as well question the Sphinx as one of the printers.—Ex.

A dispatch dated Vallejo, May 19th, says: A telegram was received at the Navy Department two weeks ago which stated that Lieutenant W. H. Schwenk had accidently shot himself while on duty as officer of the guard on the Alert. Mail advices just received put a more serious light on the matter. While on duty on the vessel Lieutenant Schwenk stooped to pick up a revolver which proved to have been tied in such a manner that when lifted a bowline slipped over the trigger, causing its discharge. Commander Graham reports that there can be no doubt there was a plan to assassinate some officer of the vessel, and that he has ordered a searching investigation. Lieutenant Schwenk was seriously wounded in his left wrist, and blood poisoning is feared.
