I have often been told that you can not make these live in water, and unless treated with simple common sense you certainly can not. These flowers and some others have a fast-flowing milky fuice that have a fast-flowing milky juice that dries quickly and hardens over the cut as if it had purposely sealed with a waterproof coating of India rubber. Therefore when I bunch up Oriental popples, the moment before the bunch is put lets its deep real, the ends are

The Passing of the Piano.

Lizts in petilcoats have been so numerous the past twenty-five years as to escape recognition. It was the girl who did not play that was singled out as the oddity. For one Sonia Kovalesky and her supreme mastery of Kovalesky and her supreme mastery of mathematics, there were a million slaves of the ivory. Not even the sewing machine routed the piano, though it dealt it a dangerous body blow. Treadles and pedals are not so far asunder, and a neat piano technique has been found quite useful by the ardent type-writer. So some good has resulted. What this present generation of children has to be especially thankful for is its immunity from usuless plano practice. Unless there is a sharply defined aptitude, a girl is now kept away from the stool and pedals. Instead of the crooked back—known in Germany as the plane back—and re-lentless technical studies, our young woman golfs, cycles, rows, runs, dances and fences. While she once wearled and fences. While she once wearied her heart playing Gottschalk, she now plays tennis, and I am free to admit that tennis is a greater game than

ANOTHER BEAUTY SHOW. It's to Be International and Held in

If you have the face and figure, are more than 18 years old, and less than 28, you have a chance of be-ing selected as one of the four Ameriional beauty show to be held in Earl's.

The international beauty show is to be a feature of the Woman's Interna-tional exhibition to be held in June, and to select the American competitors for the prize Charles Kiralfy, the son of Imre Kiralfy, is now in New York in the Continental hotel. Mr. Kiralfy said: "I am here to select four young wo-tries in the exhibition. Every country competing will be allowed four an rulli makes no difference what station life the young women come from. I they are, to my mind, representative types of the American beauty they will be selected. All their expenses will be paid and they will be costumed prob-ably by the exhibition company. In addition to this they will receive a salary and will have an opportunity to ary and will have an opportunity to see the Paris exposition.

There will be a prize for the most beautiful of the women representing each country and a prize for the most beautiful of the women of all countries represented. I have advertised for women to send their photographs I will select and from the photographs I will select and from the photographs I will select those I believe beautiful enough to warrant a personal interview."
