Mr. Suckling, Melba's representative, who has spent the week here working up interest in her coming, says there will be strong delegations from Ogdensburg, Springville, Utica, and other points, and others having taken an active interest in the event. The admission sale is going steadily forward at the Clayton Music company's, and big night's sale of general admission tickets is anticipated.

Mr. Shepherd is making several changes in the Symphony orchestra preliminary to the third concert. He intends increasing the number of his strings, and asks the "News" to state that he will receive applications for positions from string players of ability in Salt Lake City by points. All such shall address Mr. Arthur Shepherd at his studio in the Hooper Edgecomb block.

Invitations are out for a pianoforte recital, to be given by Master Henry Schindler, assisted by Miss Marion Skarbová and Miss Romania Hyde, the first two pupils of Miss Grata Flanders and the latter of George Skelton. The event will take place Monday, the 20th inst., at the First Congregational church.

Mr. Edward P. Kimball, well remembered as pianist for the Salt Lake Opera company, has lately been released from his mission, and is now studying music in Berlin. He writes that he is preparing to study under Godowsky, who was Squire Coop's teacher. Mr. Kimball writes that Miss Mattle Read under Godowsky's teaching, is developing wonderfully. Miss Olive Gray is also working with him and those who, like Mr. Kimball, are preparing to enter his class, are Annie Meyer of Logan and Celeste Annie of Ogden.

Held's band will render this program at their concert at the Grand tomorrow night:

Prof. Stephens has just issued from the "News" press, a beautiful anthem on the subject, "Gospel Restoration." It is primarily intended for the Tabernacle choir, but several hundred extra copies will be turned off to meet the wide awake church as may desire them. It is for chorus and soprano solo, the music being adapted from a dramatic chorus by the English composer, Sir Henry Bishop. The subject is most appropriate for the present year, as selections suitable for the commemoration of the birth of the Prophet Joseph Smith will naturally be in demand by our choirs, and this subject is inseparable from that of "Gospel Restoration."

Programs are out for the piano recital to be given by Mrs. Graham E. Putnam with her pupils in the First Congregational church Tuesday next, assisted by Hugh W. Dougall, bartone. The following young people will appear, Miss Dorothy Ingram, Miss Margaret Eddie, John Putnam, Miss Frances Ware, Miss Hazel Gray, Miss Louisa Lamson, Miss Alice Martin, Miss Julia Read, Miss Alverda Martin, and others. The star number will be the overture to Semiramide for two pianos and eight hands, by Misses Dougall, by Callaerts; Andantino, by Le-Mare; Concert Overture, by Faulkner.

Who will appear at the Tabernacle at the head of her own organization on Friday evening next.

W. flat, by Callaerts; Andantino, by Le-Mare; Concert Overture, by Faulkner.

The past year was a lively one locally in pianos, which goes to show that there is money in town to spare for something besides the actual necessities of life. One prominent house hold 697 pianos and organs, representing a value of $175,000 and not a few of these pianos were grand; the current year is opening just as favorably. Purchasers are looking more now to the intrinsic merits of instruments, rather than to special adornment.

Van Hoose, the tenor with Melba, and Mr. Hugh W. Dougall were students together under Prof Bouhy in Paris.

There have been flattering reports about the progress of Miss Edna Dwyer at the conservatory in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where she is studying vocal and instrumental music. Miss Dwyer has a good church position with the Amsterdammers for two pianos and eight hands, by Misses Dougall, by Callaerts; Andantino, by Le-Mare; Concert Overture, by Faulkner.

Miss Edna Cohn, the contralto singer, has gone to New York to visit with relatives there and will take in the opera season. During her absence from this city, her place in the First Congregational church choir will be filled by Mrs. Mont Ferry. Miss Cohn will be away three or four months.

H. S. Daynes returned today, from his three weeks' eastern business trip. He went as far as New York.

Prof. W. C. Clive will form a stringed trio among his violin pupils, two of them being Miss Radcliffe and Miss Clive.

Mrs. Agnes Osborne will give a musical evening next Monday evening, at her studio, 415 south Main street.

Sousa was wined and dined on his arrival with his band in Liverpool, by the lord mayor and quite a company of local social and musical dignitaries.

Prof. J. J. Daynes has composed a new song of much melodic excellence, and it will soon be published.

Prof. Alberto Jonas, the pianist, who appeared a few years ago in this city in concert with such success, has just completed a Canadian tour in which he has added to his laurels.

George E. Griswold, the old time representative of Lyon & Healy, was in town this week from Chicago, en route to the Pacific coast. He reports the general music trade as in a very healthy condition, and says that the best of feeling obtains wherever he has been.

SHARPS AND FLATS.

Eugen D'Albert's American tour will include 45 concerts in the length and breadth of the country. At the close of his American engagement he will go to Mexico, where he will give half a dozen concerts next April in the City of Mexico.

In Dordogne, France, a performance of "Die Walküre" was given last night with the music left out. The local chief of the Fire Department refused to give his permission for the burning of red powder and bengal fires behind the scenes, and so the art purveyors at the Dordogne Opera House gave the opera without any fire scene.
