

Territory, that the proposed change would occasion much delay and great unnecessary expense.

Fourth—Plainly it is not the intent of the law to prescribe any religious creed to the citizen, but to prescribe a rule of action, irrespective of his present or future secret intentions or convictions, or the change of any of them. The oath we have formulated in is but auxiliary to the enforcement of the actual observance of the law, and the rule of action prescribed by it; hence, as a conclusion, it is equally plain to us, that whosoever takes the oath and transcends the rule it prescribes by perpetrating a prohibited and punishable crime, thereby incurs not only the stain of moral perjury, but liability to legal punishment for the commission of any such prohibited crime; and this consequence would as logically and necessarily follow the infraction of the form of oath which we have furnished as the interpolated form which has been proposed.

Fifth—The fact that Congress has prescribed the oath is, in itself, an assumption by that body that the oath will not be vain, but be practically and useful. Otherwise why the legal requirement of the oath? Nor is this construction inconsistent with either the municipal or moral law, which respectively presumes the honesty and innocence of the individual, until that presumption is overcome by competent proof.

Sixth—Since the interview with the committee at our rooms, we are advised that a written communication was to be presented by the committee, and afterward we received information that it would not be presented. We therefore make this reply, desiring to be entirely courteous to the committee, apprehending that further delay might be misconstrued.

By order of the Commission,
W. C. HALL, Secretary.

THE HAWAIIAN QUEEN.

The Royal Party Pass Through Salt Lake City.

THE QUEEN TALKS ABOUT "MORMONS."

Queen Kapiolani and company reached this city to-day, coming from Ogden over the D. & R. G. The train was about an hour late and by the time it arrived there had assembled at the depot a great concourse of people anxious to see the sovereign of a nation with which the citizens of Utah are so generally well acquainted.

The D. & R. G. train going north carried three car-loads of passengers, who made the trip for the purpose of tending courtesies to the royal party. Representing the city were Aldermen Webber, Cope and Pyper, and among the prominent citizens present were Apostle F. D. Richards, President A. M. Cannon, Hon. John T. Caine, Hon. F. S. Richards, S. P. Teasdale, Esq., D. L. Davis, Esq., H. P. Richards, Esq., F. A. Mitchell, Esq., and many others, together with ladies. Besides these, and among this number there were in the party several who had spent much time in the Sandwich Islands as missionaries and some ladies who had been there, and lastly the Sandwich Islanders who have made this city their home, went up in a special car to pay respects to the Queen and party.

On the arrival of the Central Pacific at Ogden it was learned that the party was composed of the Queen, Kapiolani, Princess Leleokalani, General J. O. Dominus, Governor C. P. Iaukea, Col. J. H. Boyd and four servants. While still in Ogden several of the prominent citizens of that city were introduced to the party, among them the Mayor, David Eccles, and Hon. Jos. A. West.

As the train was leaving Ogden the committee of the Salt Lake City Council was ushered into the Queen's presence, when Alderman Webber, chairman of the committee, made a fitting address of welcome. The address was interpreted to the Queen, who expressed her gratitude for the courteous treatment she had received, and expressed a wish that she might find an opportunity of visiting and accepting the hospitality of this city on her return, which she certainly would do if she spent time anywhere.

The run to Salt Lake was uneventful save for the introduction of those who had made the trip from this city up for the purpose of extending a welcome to the Queen. While on the down trip also, the natives of the islands were taken into her presence and a scene was witnessed which showed how deeply implanted in the hearts of the natives was the love of the island they had left and of the Queen whose subjects they were. Tears filled the eyes of natives and the Queen herself was not without them. She had already enquired concerning the welfare of her subjects in this Territory and seemed specially desirous of knowing how they fared; and expressed a wish to converse with Sister Kapakani, in whom she seemed to have especial interest. Sister Kapakani kissed the hand of the Princess, but when she came to her Queen, an like subject and sovereign, and very like women, they kissed each other and from the eyes of both tears began to flow. Then she talked to sister Kapakani and the latter told her fully and freely of the treatment they received here and the Queen was pleased that her subjects were given the consideration and kindness they spoke of.

Her attention was also drawn to an article which appeared in this morning's Salt Lake Tribune in which it was stated that the reason the Queen was unwilling to stay over in Salt Lake was because the "Mormons" had gone among her people teaching them immoral practices. On this subject she conversed with Brother Richard G. Lambert, who had been a missionary in her kingdom for several years. Regarding the article she denied it absolutely and wholly. It had been arranged that her party should go through to the east direct. Not even in Chicago was it proposed to make any stop, and she stated that she held in high esteem all the Mormons she had met; that the Mormon people in her kingdom were among the most moral, and that she believed that the Latter-day Saints were always endeavoring, as they always had endeavored, to elevate her race by teaching them moral principles and improving their social condition.

Awaiting the arrival of the train in this city were Mayor Armstrong, Recorder Wells, and some of the City Council. Held's band was also present and by discoursing pleasant strains made the long wait, if not short, at least more agreeable. When the train stopped there was a rush for that part of the train where the royal party were, and as soon as doors could be opened a stream of people began to pass through who were introduced to the Queen and with whom she shook hands. This was kept up for some time, and even then the crowd had but commenced to go through; but it was stopped. The train was moved forward a distance and the Queen shook hands through the window, often extending both hands. As the train moved off, her Royal Highness stood on the rear platform and waved back the adieux which were waved her from the assembled throng.

NOTES.

She expressed the utmost satisfaction and pleasure at her visit and at the treatment she had received.

She is now going to Great Britain where she will be present at the celebration of the Jubilee of Queen Victoria.

The party will stay perhaps one week at the national capital.

The name of the Queen, Kapiolani literally interpreted, means "the going toward heaven;" that of Leleokalani means, "Jumping Heavenward."

It was discovered by Governor C. F. Iaukea, in a conversation, that Brother Solomon, of this city, was the Governor's great uncle.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY APRIL 30.

Arraigned.—To-day John T. Gerber was arraigned in the Third District Court on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He pleaded not guilty.

Lawrence Fined.—To-day George Lawrence, the saloon-keeper, who was convicted of selling liquor on Sunday, was sentenced by Judge Zano to pay a fine of $50 and the costs of prosecution.

Harvey H. Cluff Arrested.—Just as we were going to press this afternoon we received a dispatch from Provo conveying the intelligence that Brother Harvey H. Cluff was arrested to-day at that place. The charge is the usual one—cohabitation. He was taken before the U. S. Commissioner, waived examination and was held in $1,500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Raiding American Fork.—Deputies Redfield, McLellan and Dicks raided this place yesterday afternoon, and arrested Charles McCarthy on the usual charge, his family and all their relatives being subpoenaed as witnesses. The family of R. E. King were subpoenaed also, but Mr. King was non est. Pleasant Grove also had a very pleasant call from these same zentry because they didn't find anyone, the object of their search, B. W. Driggs, being out in the corral milking, and they were afraid of the cows.

After a Boiler for the Asylum.—James Dunn, Esq., of Provo, was in Salt Lake on Friday, getting bids from different firms for a new boiler to be used in the Insane Asylum. The one now there needs repairing. Besides, if anything should happen to it, so that it would not work, all the means of the Asylum for lighting up, for cooking, washing, heating, etc., would be destroyed. An additional boiler is absolutely necessary to the safety of the institution. Brother Dunn got bids from three parties.

Harmon Held.—This morning, George Harmon, of Taylorsville, came in to the city and was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. The complaint is made by Deputy Franks, and the names of the defendant's wives are stated to be Eliza Harmon and Margaret Ann Arthur. The defendant was arraigned before Commissioner McKay and pleaded guilty. He stated that he married his second wife in 1831, and that her youngest child was three years of age. He was required to give $1,500 bail to await trial.

Arrested in Plain City.—Yesterday, Deputies Steele, Whetstone and Williams visited Plain City and arrested H. C. Hansen, of that place, on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. Mr. Hansen was taken before Commissioner Rogers. Defendant waived preliminary examination and was bound over in the sum of $1,500 to appear before the grand jury. Messrs. W. H. Wright and A. W. Child were sureties. Annie C. Hansen, the alleged second wife of defendant, was also bound over in the sum of $200.—Ogden Herald, April 28.

Gone to Her Rest.—The service over the remains of Grandma Nicholson was conducted yesterday afternoon. The opening prayer was offered by Elder Robert Patrick. Appropriate and feeling remarks were made by Bishop O. F. Whitney and Elders John T. Caine and R. Patrick. The benediction was pronounced by Elder C. W. Stayer. At the grave the dedicatory prayer was offered by Elder W. B. Barton. Brother John Nicholson and family have received numerous expressions of sympathy, which they highly appreciate, from many kind friends since the deplorable accident which resulted in death and bereavement. Among these was a sympathetic note, received this morning, from Rev. T. C. Hiff, written on the Utah & Northern train. Mr. Hiff was an eyewitness of the accident last Monday, and kindly assisted to carry the venerable lady to her home after she was hurt.

Salt Lake Stock Association.—This association has filed its articles of incorporation with the clerk of the Third District Court. The names of the shareholders are here given with the amount of stock credited to each: George Romney, 166 2/3 shares; James Sharp, 166 2/3 shares; George H. Taylor, 166 2/3 shares; Frank W. Jennings, 166 2/3 shares; Le Grand Young, 166 2/3 shares; Abram H. Cannon, 166 2/3 shares. The capital stock is placed at $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares, each valued at $100.

The directors elected for the first year are as follows: George Romney, President; James Sharp, Vice-President; Abram H. Cannon, Secretary and Treasurer; Frank W. Jennings and Le Grand Young.

The closing section of the articles states: "We the undersigned have subscribed the amount of stock set opposite our respective names, and we have paid 50 per cent. thereon by conveying to the association 15,000 head of sheep including all dues and increase therefrom for the ensuing year, which sheep are hereby declared to be the property of the corporation with their profits and increase."

A Fatal Accident.—Our correspondent at Plain City, G. G., furnishes the following.

Wednesday evening our quiet little village was startled with the news that our old and faithful citizen, James P. Robson, was severely injured by receiving a kick from a colt which he was breaking to work.

The deceased was plowing in his orchard. His wife noticed him turning the corner of the land, she then turned her head away, but looked around again in time to see him falling. She and her son James hastened to the spot, but found him insensible.

Dr. Driver was telephoned for and did all in his power to relieve the sufferer but little could be done. The colt kicked him in the left side of the head, breaking his jaw bone in two places, and the hoof sinking partly into his ear. He received the blow about 5:30 p. m. and died 11:30 a. m. of the 28th. He never recovered consciousness nor spoke and only moved his hands twice.

It is supposed he was in the act of pushing in the clevis pin and stooping over, the animal kicking him and knocking him back. He lived and died a faithful Latter-day Saint; and leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. Brother Robson was one of the most cautious men that could be found around horses and the accident is therefore more painful. His family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day:

Wm. B. Jones, Wm. H. Tolhurst and James Blake were admitted to citizenship.

The People vs. George Lawrence; selling liquor on Sunday; sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs of prosecution.

United States vs. James Woods; unlawful cohabitation; sentence postponed to September, 1887, term.

The People vs. Charles Crow and Alma Crow; battery; three cases; defendants arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

United States vs. John T. Gerber; unlawful cohabitation; defendant arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Solomon Brisacher vs. Frank H. Dyer; trial before jury in progress.

Application of Herald Company to disincorporate; order fixing time for hearing.

United States vs. Alexander Edwards; unlawful cohabitation; sentenced to six months in penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

United States vs. Richard Collett; unlawful cohabitation; sentenced to six months in penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

An Example Wanted.—What some deputy marshals have done to work up cases, we are all pretty familiar with; but we have not learned it all yet. Provo furnishes a specimen that ought to be patented at once. On Wednesday last, says the Enquirer one Jared Davis of Salem was arrested on the usual charge and taken before the commissioner on Tuesday evening, when the examination was postponed till the following morning at 10 o'clock. At the appointed hour the defendant appeared with his attorney, Mr. Thurman, with the expectation of making an interesting "fight against justice." Mr. Thurman asked for the complaint in the case and was informed by the Commissioner that no subpoenas had been returned and no witnesses were necessary; the defendant and his bondsman would be discharged.

The complaint was afterwards shown to Mr. Thurman upon request and proved to have been sworn to by one Deputy Dykes as a fact. But the real fact of the matter is that Davis is not and never has been a polygamist, and the prosecution was one of those too frequently repeated schemes apparently hatched up to provide some destitute deputy marshal with funds.

The First District.—The following is a list of cases of alleged violations of the Edmunds law to be tried at the next term of the First District Court at Ogden:

The United States vs. Barnard White; unlawful cohabitation; new trial.

The United States vs. Joseph H. Dean; polygamy.

The United States vs. Wm. Skeen; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Soren L. Petersen; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Elijah Box; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Geo. Chandler; unlawful cohabitation; for trial on second and third counts.

The United States vs. Richard Fry; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Thomas McNeal; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. James McFarland; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Peter Peterson; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Francisco Duffey; polygamy and unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Wm. Butler; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Jas. Burton; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. Mark Bigler; unlawful cohabitation.

The United States vs. A. J. Kershaw; unlawful cohabitation.

TWO MORE.

RICHARD COLLETT AND ALRX. EDWARDS IMPRISONED.

To-day Brothers Richard Collett and Alexander Edwards appeared in the Third District Court to receive sentence for violating the Edmunds law. In reply to Judge Zane, both stated that they had no promise to make in regard to the future, and also that they were poor men, having to depend on their daily labor for a living. They were sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100 and costs, and taken to the bastille this afternoon.

PROPOSED TRIP TO ENGLAND.

FAVORABLE TERMS TO EXCURSIONISTS.

Messrs. William C. Spence and William A. Rossiter have completed arrangements for an excursion party from Utah to England. The rate of passage is quite low, being $140 for the round trip between Salt Lake City and Liverpool. The accommodations for this fare will be excellent, being first-class on the railroad lines and second-class (intermediate) on the ocean steamer. Those who prefer to cross the Atlantic with first-class saloon accommodations can do so by simply changing their intermediate tickets at New York for first-class ones and paying the necessary advance in price.

The outgoing journey will be taken in the most delightful part of the year, as the company will leave Salt Lake City on the 30th of May. The tickets will be good for the return trip at any time at the option of the holders within six months, with a choice of any one of three of Gulon and Co's commodious and handsome ocean steamers. This will provide an excellent opportunity for people to pay a visit to the Old Country, to see relatives, compile genealogical information, transact business or for any other purpose. Doubtless many will take advantage of it. The enterprise is under good and reliable management. Those who wish to make the trip on the terms specified can obtain all needed information by applying to W. C. Spence or William A. Rossiter, Box B., Salt Lake City.

PRINCE LEOPOLD

AND SUITE IN SALT LAKE.—THEY INSPECT THE TABERNACLE.

This morning the city flag was run up the liberty pole and hung to the breeze. Many wondered why. Prince Leopold of Prussia was to arrive by the train from the north. Hence the display. This prince is a son of Prince Frederick Charles, deceased, younger brother of the Emperor, and one who distinguished himself in the late Franco-German war. He is accompanied by Von Niekisch-Roseneck, Major a la suite des Generalstabes u. Militairischer Regleiter S. K. H. des Prinzen Friedrich Leopold von Prussen; and Le Comte de Kautz, Marechal de la cour de S. A. R. Mgr. le Prince Frederic Leopold de Prusse.

Though it was known the Prince and his suite were coming, it was also ascertained that he was, in a degree, traveling incognito and was averse to the ostentation which would follow a public recognition of his distinguished position as a member of the Royal family of Germany. For this reason and in deference to his wishes, no public reception or recognition was accorded him.

The party was received at Ogden by Ferdinand Dickert, Alexander Niedringhaus and Dr. Bredemeyer, the latter acting as escort here to the party. The train was late and on its arrival the party was driven to the Walker House where they remain until tomorrow, when the journey east will be resumed.

In the afternoon they visited the Tabernacle where they were shown about the building and while there Professor Jos. J. Daynes played a number of selections on the organ. The first selection played was "God Save the Queen" with the full power of the organ; then came "The Pilgrim's Song of Hope," and lastly a fantasia by Professor Daynes himself. The Prince expressed himself as delighted with the acoustic properties of the large building, and the party was astounded at the power and sweetness of the organ, the first as shown in "God Save the Queen," and the shading and delicacy of tone displayed in the succeeding selections.

When through this there were presented to the party of the city authorities. Mayor Armstrong, Aldermen Webber and Pyper, Councilors J. F. Wells and D. L. Davis, Recorder H. M. Wells, Treasurer O. F. Whitney, Marshal Alfred Solomon and also Hon. John Sharp, Hon. Jas. Sharp, Judge E. A. Smith and others. The party then visited the Assembly Hall and looked through the Temple.

The Prince is quite a young man, his companion much older. They resume their journey to-morrow morning over the D. & R. G.

Bradstreet shows that from April 1st to 23d there were in the United States forty-five strikes, the number of men striking being 2,500.
