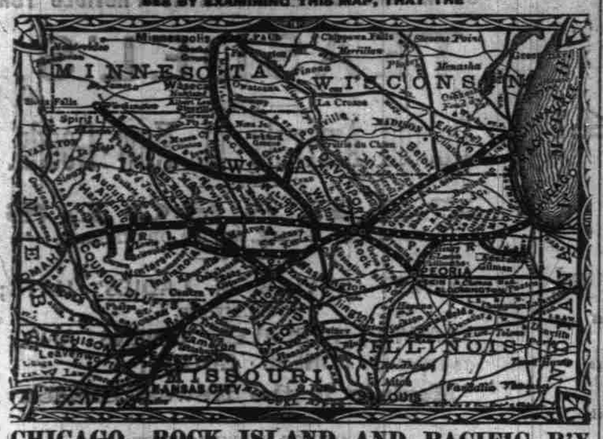
A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE



CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC R'Y

Being the Great Central Line, affords to travelers, by reason of its unrivalled geographical position, the shortest and best route between the East, Northeast and Southeast, and the West, Northwest and Southwest.

It is literally and strictly true, that its connections are all of the principal lines of road between the Atlantic and the Pacific

By its main line and branches it reaches Chicago, Joliet, Peoria, Ottawa, La Salle, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Keokuk, Knoxville, Oskaloosa, Fairfield, Des Moines, West Liberty, Iowa City, Atlantic Avoca, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Center and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri, and Leavenworth and Atchison in Kansas, and the hundreds of cities, villages and towns intermediate. The

"GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE,"

As it is familiarly called, offers to travelers all the advantages and comforts incident to a smooth track, safe bridges, Union Depots at all connecting points, Fast Express Trains, composed of COMMODIOUS, WELL VENTILATED, WELL HEATED, FINELY UP HOLSTERED and ELEGANT DAY COACHES; a line of the MOST MAGNIFICENT HORTON RECLINING CHAIR CARS ever built; PULLMAN'S latest designed and handsomest PALACE SLEEPING CARS, and DINING CARS, that are acknowledged by press and people to be the FINEST RUN UPON ANY ROAD IN THE COUNTRY, and in which superior meals are served to travelers at the low rate of SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS EACH.

THREE TRAINS each way between CHICAGO and the MISSOURI RIVER.

TWO TRAINS each way between CHICAGO and MINNEAPOLIS and ST. PAUL via the famous

ALBERT LEA ROUTE.

January 1882, a new line will be opened, via Seneca and Kankakee, between Newport News, Richmond, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and La Fayette, and Council Bluffs, St. Paul, Minneapolis and intermediate points.

Milwaukee, LaCrosse, Sparta, Madison, Fort Howard (Green Bay), Wis., Winona, Owatonna, Mankato, Minn., Cedar Rapids, Des Moines, Webster City, Algona, Clinton, Marshalltown, Iowa, Freeport, Elgin, Rockford, Ill., are amongst its 800 local stations on its lines.

Among a few of the numerous points of superiority enjoyed by the patrons of this road, are its DAY COACHES which are the finest that human art and ingenuity can create; its PALATIAL SLEEPING CARS, which are models of comfort and elegance; its PALACE DRAWING ROOM CARS, which are unsurpassed by any; and its widely celebrated the like of which are not run by any other road anywhere. In short, it is asserted that IT IS THE BEST EQUIPPED ROAD IN THE WORLD.

All points of interest North, Northwest and West of Chicago, business centres, summer resorts and noted hunting and fishing grounds are accessible by the various branches of this road.

It owns and controls over 5,000 miles of road and has over four hundred passenger conductors constantly caring for its millions of patrons.

Ask your ticket agents for tickets via this route. AND TAKE NONE OTHER. All leading ticket agents sell them. It costs no more to travel on this route, that gives first-class accomodations, than it does to go by the poorly equipped roads.

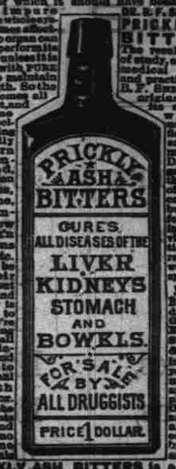
THE LIVER AND ITS FUNCTIONS.

It has become a well established fact that the largest portion of diseases to which the human family is subject arise in the first place from some derangement of the Liver. This organ is not only the largest, but at the same time one of the most important. The venous blood, on its return to the heart, carries with it the poisons of which it should have been relieved. With impure blood the vital organs become affected, and no organ can properly perform its function unless it is supplied with PURE BLOOD to maintain its strength. So the Liver becoming all important, and when one half or two thirds of it is destroyed, wherever the blood goes it is sure to carry with it the poisons of which it should have been relieved.



DR. F. SHERMAN'S PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. The result of years of study, experience and medical research, is offered to the public by DR. F. SHERMAN, its originator, and, like its name, wherever used is sure to be found a friend ready for its introduction. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Sick Stomach, Sallow Complexion, Eruptions of Skin, etc., they may be set down as a remedy required to relieve the system itself of all accumulations, and restore it to its original Strength and Vigor. For all the complaints of which kind there is no medicine that can be relied upon as readily as PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. Sold by druggists generally, and is as readily taken by children as adults.

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is a medicine of rare merit, and not an intoxicating beverage, and is purely vegetable. Its ingredients can be used at all times with benefit to health. It is not claimed as a cure-all, but for derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, it is a BLOOD PURIFIER, makes above all other preparations. Ask your druggist for it, and give it a fair trial. If he has not on hand, and think to be ordered for you.

THE UTAH BILL IN THE SENATE.

SPEECH OF SENATOR BROWN.

Mr. Brown. Mr. President, I agree with the Senator from Massachusetts that section 7 should be stricken off this bill, and in that connection I wish to say distinctly that I am opposed absolutely to female suffrage and would under no circumstances vote for it in my State, but I think it is a local institution that belongs to the different States and Territories; and as it has been established in Utah by a vote of the people of Utah, I would not vote to disturb it. I shall, however, vote for the amendment of the Senator from Missouri first, to see whether we can perfect this section. If the section is to pass, then I say it ought to apply alike to all places where the United States have jurisdiction. If it is a proper rule in Utah, it ought to be in Washington or any other Territory, or in the District of Columbia. Therefore if we are going to pass a law of that character, I should want it to apply alike to all, but I should be opposed to the passage of any of it. Hence I shall vote for the amendment of the Senator from Missouri; and if it should succeed I shall then vote against the entire section and leave the question to the local authorities to establish female suffrage or as they think proper.

While I am on the floor I wish to say a few words about this bill and the original Edmunds act, as it is called, and I was about to read one section of that act, but I will not detain the Senate by reading it. I will simply refer to the fact that the eighth section of the Edmunds act, as each senator knows, renders every polygamist and bigamist ineligible to vote or to hold office or to hold other public trusts. To that I make no objection. I do not object to the penalty, whatever it may be, applied to bigamy or polygamy, but I do object to inflicting the punishment until the party is convicted of the crime. In other words, when a citizen of Utah is convicted of the crime of practicing bigamy or polygamy, then I say disqualify him for voting or holding office or other public trust if you please, but understand it is a punishment. The Supreme Court of the United States has decided in the test-oath case that to deprive a person of civil rights is punishment.

Mr. Edmunds. But voting is not a civil right, as the same court has decided.

Mr. Brown. The right to hold office is a civil right. I read plenty of authorities when I first discussed this question at this session, where courts of the highest authority have decided that an office-holder has a property in his office, and the Supreme Court of the United States has decided that it is punishment to take that property from him.

Then this is in open violation of the principle laid down by the Supreme Court of the United States. We punish a party for the offense of bigamy or polygamy without convicting him by due course of law, without his having the benefit of trial by jury and confronting the witnesses against him, or having any of the other safeguards thrown around him by the Constitution of the United States. We punish him, how? The commission that we have sent to Utah has prescribed a test-oath. Looking at the eighth section of the Edmunds act, that which disqualifies a man to vote or hold office, instead of prosecuting those who are guilty and getting judgment against them and having them legally convicted and then disqualifying them, they did it by the shorter and I suppose simpler process of a test-oath, which they tender to every voter, and if he does not take it they deny to him the right to vote or hold office or hold any of the other civil positions provided against in the eighth section of the act.

Now, I submit with all due deference that that is in open violation of the Constitution of the United States. It is in open and palpable violation of the constitution of the State of Massachusetts. The constitution of the State of Massachusetts is very emphatic and very positive that no one shall be punished for any offense until he has been convicted by due course of law. This is the constitution of my own State and I presume the constitution of every State in the Union, and yet we violate that principle openly and palpably in our practice in Utah. We say, and I do not object to that, that the bigamist or polygamist shall not vote or hold office; but how do we determine whether he is a bigamist or polygamist? We do it by putting a test-oath to him, and if he will not take the test-oath we exclude him; in other words, we convict him because he refuses to take it and we inflict a punishment on him because he will not take the test-oath.

I think every Senator here must know that we have no right to take from a man his office because he refuses to take a test-oath or to swear whether he is guilty or not guilty of a particular offense. Not only that; the commissioners have gone further, and in a case where the party practised polygamy prior to the passage of the act of 1862 in the case of Neslin, where he practised polygamy four years before the passage of the act of 1862 by marrying a second wife, and was afterward divorced from that wife and had never practiced polygamy since, the commissioners ruled that he was ineligible to vote or hold office because in 1858 he had practised polygamy.

How do you reconcile that with the provision of the Constitution of the United States that there shall be no ex post facto law? You punish a man by denying him the right to hold office in which he has a property and take his office from him because he committed a certain crime in 1858. You could not convict him of the crime in any court in the world. Why? Because at the time he committed the crime there was no law against it. In 1858 there was no law in Utah, so far as I am advised or believe, against the practice of polygamy. I know of none prior to the passage of the act of Congress of 1862. Still, the commission take a case four years prior to that time where the party was married and soon after divorced from his wife, and was so divorced long before the passage of the act of 1862, and they solemnly decide that he can neither vote nor hold office in the Territory because in 1858 he did practice polygamy. It is an unreasonable violation of every constitutional principle. If you were to put him on trial in court you could not convict him. What right have you to convict him, then, by a test oath and take from him the right to vote or hold office or any other civil trust, because at that time he committed this offense? How can any Senator ever justify it?

Then, again, there was the Jennings case, where Mr. Jennings was twice married soon after the passage of the act of 1862, and one of his wives died a few years afterward, and he has since never practiced polygamy. He was in the case of Neslen, had registered, and on these facts being brought before the commission they solemnly decided that he was ineligible and could neither vote nor hold office because in 1863, 1864, or at some period about that time, he had practiced polygamy. What court in the United States could have entertained an accusation against him for it? What court could have convicted him and rendered him ineligible to office on account of it? Yet this high court of ours there, the only court that we have there, decides solemnly that he can neither vote nor hold office because at that time he practiced polygamy. What right have they to do it? It is an open, palpable violation of every constitutional principle.

I do not wish to take up any large portion of time, however. I simply want to present that view, for I intend to move an amendment to that provision, and while I was on the floor I preferred to say this much about it.

SCIENTIFIC AND USEFUL.

Artificial Cork has been invented.

There are different grades of oil-stones, hard and soft. The best oil to use on an oil-stone is paraffin; water is better on a hard stone.

The sawdust and refuse of the saw-mill is now made to yield fourteen gallons of turpentine, three to four gallons of resin and a quantity of tar per cord.

Z. Wucklemann, of Augsburg (Germany), obtains a fire extinguishing powder by stirring three parts oxalate of potassium (which gives up carbonic acid when heated), five parts borax, thirty-five parts sulphate of magnesia, twenty parts ammonium chloride, and ten parts ammoniacal alum.

Blotting paper, saturated with a solution of oxalic acid and dried, will not only absorb the ink of a blot but will remove the blot itself if the ink is unmixed with indigo or aniline color. It might be dangerous in removing signatures from important papers, but a trace of the writing will remain, and can be made legible by adding ferrocyanide of potassium or gallic acid.

A perfect imitation of black walnut or teak can be obtained by using a preparation of Brunswick black, thinned down with turpentine until it has attained the proper tone and color. A little varnish should be added—about one-twentieth of the bulk of the black and turpentine. There is no trouble in getting the mixture to dry hard, and it will take very kindly to a coat of varnish.

A pint of linseed (not linseed oil) used weekly, in connection with a thorough washing with hose, has been found to be one of the best substances to prevent scale in steam boilers. The linseed softens the scale so much that it comes away like sludge. Ground slippery elm bark also gives good results. Potatoes have also been found useful for the purpose. They surround the particles of lime in the water with starch and prevent them forming in a mass.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS and DISORDERED LIVER.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Exctation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, a feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work, and are a perfect
