Bereft of Three.

Brother John P. Wright, of Mill Creek, in this county, has recently met with a succession of misfortunes calculated to appeal forcibly to the sympathies of his numerous friends and acquaintances. In the latter part of February last he lost an infant daughter by the hand of death, and since then has been called on to part with two daughters aged respectively seven and five years—the two latter by that dread disease diphtheria.

The Pall Bearers.

Had it been possible it would have been eminently proper that the pall-bearers of President Taylor should have been the Twelve Apostles, members of the organization with which the President had been so long identified. But as, for reasons well known to the public, this was manifestly impracticable, it was deemed advisable to select twelve members of the family from the seventeen ones present at the funeral. This was accordingly done.

Dated this 20th day of July, 1887.

By the Court.

C. S. ZINE, Chief Justice.

JACOB S. BOREMAN, Associate Justice.

Following are the provisions of law under which the foregoing proceedings are taken:

(From the Act of Congress, July 1, 1862.)

Sec. 1. And be it further enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any corporation or association for religious or charitable purposes to acquire or hold real estate in the Territory of Utah during the existence of the territorial government of a greater value than fifty thousand dollars, and all real estate acquired or held by any such corporation or association contrary to the provisions of this act shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

(From the Act of Congress of Feb. 10, 1867.)

Sec. 17. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 18. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 19. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 20. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 21. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 22. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 23. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 24. That the acts of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, incorporating, continuing, or providing for the incorporation known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the ordinances of the said corporation, shall be null and void, and the said corporation shall be dissolved, and the real estate acquired or held by the said corporation shall be forfeited and escheat to the United States.

Sec. 25.
