By Universal Accord,
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use by Physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effective purgative Pills that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use. In intrinsic value and curative powers no other Pills can be compared with them, and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in health the action of the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effective, they are specially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure. If timely taken, they are the best and safest physic to employ for children and weakened constitutions, where a mild, but effective cathartic is required.
For Sale by all dealers. dsw 1 w

CHIEF JACKSON'S Best Sweet Navy Tobacco
dsw

THE scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.
Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has been met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its merits might as well be tried to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a tear.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections, it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the facsimile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.
For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Z. C. M. I. Drug Department and Moore Allen & Co., Salt Lake City.

DR. LYON'S TOOTH TABLETS sweeten and purify the breath.

EVENING NEWS.
Friday, November 14, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

New Floor.—Mr. D. O. Calder is having a new double floor laid along the front apartment of his music store on Main Street.

Call for Them.—There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph office for J. M. Caldwell, May Lord, Miss Kate E. Sheehan and F. J. Herman.

Coming to the Front.—The Globe Bakery is undergoing more improvements. The main building is being brought out to the sidewalk line, even with the new addition recently finished.

Late Trains.—The Utah Southern express was half an hour late last evening. It waited at Santaquin for the southern bound freight train to pass, the latter being behind time also.

Nothing to See.—Star gazers who sat up all night watching for the meteoric showers which didn't shower, are now going around talking about how they "couldn't see" nothing like a shooting meteor, or anything else.

Home Station.—Should the citizens of Provo decide on purchasing the right of way for the extension of the Pleasant Valley railroad from Springville to the former place, Provo will become a home station, with the machine shops of both companies erected contiguous to the new depot. This will necessitate some changes in the present time table.

Information Wanted.—Information is wanted of the whereabouts of Edward Baynam, who emigrated to Utah from Newport, Monmouthshire, England, in or about the year 1867. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by his son, Henry Baynam, Vienna, Trumbull County, Ohio.

Who's to Blame?—We have no desire to grumble without cause, but really we would like to receive our Territorial exchanges, occasionally, within a week after they are published, if it is only for the novelty of the thing. A copy of one of our northern papers, issued on the 6th inst., reached us yesterday.

A Musical Mule.—The story of Orpheus, whose music is said to have exerted a moving influence on the hearts of beasts, trees and rocks, is widely numbered among the most mythical of Grecian legends. An incident occurred yesterday afternoon, however, which might indicate, to some, a shadow of truth. It happened around a portion of the tale. Mr. David O. Calder was sitting at his desk in his music store, figuring over some accounts, while several employees were engaged in various parts of the house, when the proprietor, noticing something darkening the doorway, glanced up, and to his half horror and astonishment saw the tall figure of a large black mule standing in the centre of the room, with eyes protruding in amazement at the magnificent surroundings into which he had strayed, and his ears outspread in threatening proximity to the rows of fiddles and guitars hanging along either side of the apartment. Fearing to move, lest the ungainly visitor should take umbrage and depart, sans ceremonie, via the show window, the owner of the premises and his clerks remained in their places for some minutes, while his muleship becoming embarrassed at finding himself in such luxurious quarters, badly dressed to appear in company, and seeing nothing in his immediate vicinity bearing any closer resemblance to corn and oats than piano keys and Jew-harps, turned around slowly and, much to the relief of the proprietor of the establishment, made his exit by the door, in the same solemn and methodical way he had entered.

Keep at It.—Strangers lately visiting our city, and gazing down the length of East Temple Street, have expressed their admiration at the open and cheerful vista stretching into the distance. This is in great measure due to the city ordinance requiring the removal of awnings, in all their unsightly variety, and also to the labors of Messrs. Morris & Evans, and their workmen, in grading and asphaltizing the sidewalk. In this connection, it would be well for those interested, to see to the filling up of the small slough of despond just south of Squire's barber shop, so that pedestrians, and especially ladies, may not have to tack about and dodge the mire thereabouts, as they have had to do for several winters past. Let a substantial crossing be laid down suitable for the heavy wagons passing along the alley way, and the admirers of the march of improvement would be correspondingly grateful.

Painful Accident.—On Thursday, the 30th ult., a boy named Albert Stephenson, aged 15 years, met with a very painful accident at the Temple wood camp in Logan Canyon. He was walking through the brush carrying a sharp ax over his shoulder, when his foot caught in a knotted bush and he was thrown forward with his face to the ground. The ax penetrated his back about two-thirds of the way down to the hips from his shoulder, inflicting a frightful wound. He was immediately brought to this city and placed in the care of Dr. Crumley, who examined the wound and found that one of the principal muscles of the boy's back had been cut through—the gash being about three inches long and one inch in depth, and only half an inch from the spinal column. He was at that time quite helpless, being utterly unable to walk a single step; but he is now able to move about and will in all probability entirely recover.—Logan Leader.

Land Jumping.—The Idaho Banner, of the 11th inst., contains an account of a case of land jumping at Oxford. Mr. Alma Ellsworth bought a piece of property near that city, over two years ago, filed on it according to law and cultivated and improved it until the beginning of the present season, when he let it out on shares to Morris Bell, who let a portion to his father, William Bell. The Bells refused to divide the crop with Ellsworth, and Wm. Bell subsequently jumped the land and refused to restore it to the rightful claimant. Ellsworth instituted a suit for damages, which we are pleased to record, has been decided by Justice Finney in favor of the plaintiff. The defendants are about to appeal the case.

Refuses to Die.—An attempt has been made to "squell" the Silver Reef Miner, by shutting off its supplies. A number of the citizens of that place profess to have taken umbrage at some article published in its columns reflecting on the management of the Leeds Mine, and are using their influence against the business of the paper. The editors, however, don't feel a bit like being "squellied," and express the utmost confidence of continued prosperity, notwithstanding the withdrawal of patronage on the part of the aggrieved and their sympathizers.

Pyramids of Power.—Mr. Chas. W. Stayner opens the lecture season in the 17th Ward Assembly Rooms, next Wednesday evening. "The Pulpit, the Press and the People; the Pyramids of Power," his new lecture, will there and then be submitted to the public for the first time. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement Association.

Tour of Cache Valley.—Mr. Willard Wells, the talented young violinist, contemplates the tour of Cache Valley. He will visit all the principal settlements of that region and hold concerts, at which he will give exhibitions of his rare skill as an instrumentalist. Our friends up north have a treat in store. We wish Mr. Wells every success.

Moore's Examination.—The examination of Alexander Moore, for the murder of John Kemple, at Bingham, a few weeks ago, was concluded this morning. The prisoner was committed for trial on a charge of murder in the first degree, and remanded to the custody of the U. S. Marshal.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House, on Wednesday the 19th inst., at 10 a. m.
WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Police Court.—Three boys were arrested last evening for whipping a Chinaman on Commercial Street. As there was another party to the assault, the trial was postponed until Monday, in order that the missing offender might be found.
A civil case, Woods and Gee vs. James Allen, for the recovery of legal fees, is going on this afternoon.

None too Soon.—The advice of City Watermaster Wilkeson, to clean out the water seals, came none too soon, as the flooded streets in various parts of the city testify. If our citizens would clean out the seals and preserve the vegetable matter thus gained, and also gather the decaying leaves on the sidewalks and place them where they would decay to advantage during the winter, tons of valuable manure, especially suited for flower gardens, would be available when spring comes, and our sidewalks present a less uninviting appearance.

Sudden Death.—A young man named Pat Reggel, aged about 21 years, son of Mr. L. Reggel, merchant of this city, died at 8 o'clock this morning, after an illness of 7 or 8 hours. He came home after midnight and retired soon afterward, his mother, hearing him breathing very heavily, went to his bedside and spoke to him, but he made no reply. A physician was sent for immediately, but was unable to restore the patient permanently, and after lingering until this morning, the young man breathed his last. We sympathize with the parents in their affliction.

District Court.—Proceedings Friday morning, Nov. 14th, 1879, Chief Justice Hunter presiding.
T. C. Bailey vs. Joseph Marion; referred to clerk to compute. Judgment for plaintiff.
Lane and Bodley Co. vs. W. H. H. Bowers. Judgment against defendant for costs. Other matters in suit settled.
Nelson Boukotsky vs. John Pape et al.; ordered that the writ of scire facias issue as petitioned by plaintiff.
Last Chance S. M. Co. vs. Flagstaff S. M. Co., two cases; attorneys for defendant, Robertson & McBride withdraw appearance for defendant.

Morris Goldberg vs. Thos. Taylor et al.; trial before the Court. Plaintiff rests. Defendants move for non suit. Case in progress.

A boy who is polite to his father and mother is likely to be polite to everybody else. A boy lacking politeness to his parents may have the semblance of courtesy in society, but is never truly polite in spirit, and is in danger as he becomes familiar, of betraying his want of courtesy.

LOST.
BETWEEN Salt Lake City and Midway, a one bundle of bedding and clothing, belonging to Christian Muri, one of the immigrants of the week's company. Information of the missing property will be given to the owner at Midway, by H. Reiser, watchmaker, or at 300 Office.
