EVENING NEWS.

April 26, 1884.

BY TELEGRAPH PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE. XLVIII CONGRESS. SENATE.

Washington, 25.—The Chair laid be-fore the Senate a message from the House non-concurring in the Senate amendments to the naval appropriation bill, with the exception of the amend-ment providing for the armament of the steel cruisers already in course of con-steel cruisers already in course of construction.

Hale moved that the Senate insist on its amendments and appoint a committee of conference. Agreed to.

Sherman reported favorably from the committee on library a resolution providing for the deposit in the Smithsonian Institution of the silk flag presented the Senate by Joseph Newman, of California, being the first American flag make of American silk. Agreed to.

Blair, from the committee on education and labor, reported favorably the House bill to establish and maintain a bureau of labor statistics; also the bill introduced in the Senate to provide for the study of physiological effects of intoxicating narcotics and poisonous substances on the life, health and welfare among the people of the Territories fare among the people of the Territories and the District of Columbia. Calen-

Wilson addressed the Senate on his joint resolution, recently submitted, and the several bills already introducted relating to inter-State commerce. He said that while our material resources had been rapidly advancing, our science of law making had not kept pace with our necessities. We have not been able to fit our laws to new conditions, hence we painfully felt the joit of our onward movement. The speaker then proceeded to sketch the conditions, hence we painfully felt the joit of our onward movement. The speaker then proceeded to sketch the railway growth of the country, discriminations practiced against persons and places, and the necessity of regulation, and said he was not sure but the best thing to do, would be for Congress to put land grant forfeitures into the courts, which would be notice to everybody of the questions in dispute, while the consideration in Congress was notice to nobody. The great economic question of railway regulation would still he before Congress. The joint resolution was referred to the committee on railroads. tee on railroads.

The pleuro-pneumonia bill was then taken up, and Plumb said that on Monday he would ask the Senate to come to a vote on the bill. Adjourned until

Just before the adjournment a mes-sage was received from the House of Representatives announcing its nonconcurrence in the Senate amendments to the postoffice appropriation bill.

The Senate insisted on its amendments; and the chair appointed Plumb, Allison and Beck a committee on the part of the Senate to confer with a like committee on the part of the House.

Another message was received stat-ing that the House had agreed to the report of the conference committee on the differences in relation to the spe-cial deficiency appropriation bill.

Washington, 25.—In his prayer the chaplain invoked divine protection on the Greely relief expedition.

The House went into committee of the whole. After extended discussion, the bill for the relief of Maria Clark Gains was laid aside with favorable recommendation. It gives her so much of 38,457 acres claimed, as has not been disposed of and $1.25 an acre for the remainder. After considering a number of other private bills, the committee rose and the House took up as unfinished business the bill relieving certain soldiers from the charge of desertion. Pending the vote on the motion to refer it to the committee on military affairs, the House took a recess.

The evening session is for the consideration of the pension bill.

The House at the evening session passed fifteen pension bills and adjourned until to-morrow.
