GOING ONE BY ONE.

Death of Maria L. Gandy, a Pioneer of 1847.

Editor Deseret News.

It would seem from the reading of your excellent journal that the pioneers of 1847 are rapidly diminishing in numbers. "We by no means drop away," and the drooping way is evident on the part of the elderly. It is evident that the last named generation was still living in that capacity, having passed down and in fact out.

It is evident that there was a great deal of unnecessary injury, however, to the health of the elderly.
