Representatives From Two Wards Fail to Put in Appearance.

INTERESTING MEETINGS.

Those Who Will Go to the Final Contest: H. E. Jenkins, D. H. Elton, D. Clayton, A. O. Taylor, R. M. Owen. &

The district contests in the Y. M. M. I. . oratorical tournament were held last third. In that district the speeches were to have been delivered in the Twenty-second ward meeting house, but the representatives of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth wards, William Phillips and Parley P. Jensen respectively, failed to put in an appearance. The latter, it is said, laid down to take a rest late yesterday afternoon, having worked hard all day, and his folks went to the meeting house and neglected toawaken him. So he siept soundly un-til nearly 9 o'clock, when he worke up and hastened to the church. But in the meantime Don Clayton, of the Twenty-Second ward had delivered his speech on "Mormons and Education," and neither of the other contestants responding to numerous calls for them, the victory was awarded Mr. Clayton on motion of Alonzo P. Kesler, of the Sixteenth ward. Miss Amy Smith, of the Seventeenth ward, arose indignantly and denounced the proceedings as unjust. No one knew what was detain-ing Mr. Jensen, and he should be given an opportunity to be heard. There seemed to be little sympathy for her cause, however, and the meeting was dispersed amid many sounds of disap-proval. As the people were leaving the church Mr. Jensen came riding upon his wheel like a madman. But there was nothing for him to do but turn around and go home. He feels very much disappointed as his friends bear him out in the opinion that he had a good chance of winning.

THE FIRST DISTRICT.

The victor in the First district was H. E. Jenkins, of the Fourth ward, whose theme was "Knowledge." He received a per centage of 83½ out of a possible 100. George Bowles, of the Second ward, came next with a score of 80 1-3, his subject was "The Second Coming of Christ." Edward Braby, of the First ward, was third, receiving a score of 78, his theme being "Some Aspects of the Divinity of Joseph Smith's Mission," and Foster W. Jones, of the Flfth, scored 65½. His topic was "Character." The speeches were in-terspersed with musical numbers by the young ladies of the First ward, solos by S. B. Young, Jr., and Miss Lena Bell Davis, organ selection by Miss Annie Burton and an anthem by the

The contest was held in the Second by Carl A. Badger, The judge on delivery were Parley Christensen, E. C. Woolley, Jr., and C. B. Felt; on thought and composition, James H. Anderson, D. B. Richards and Eugene B.

SECOND DISTRICT. David H. Elton secured the honors in the Second district with a score of His competitors were George A. Langs ton and Hyrum Popp who scored 81 and 79 respectively.

The speeches were delivered in the Sixth ward meeting house and Joseph A. West presided. The subject of Mr. Elton's oration was "The Immortality of Man;" that of Langston's was "The Futility of Hate," and Popp's was "The Redemption of the Dead." All three young men acquitted themselves proudly. There were two very fine solos by Miss Lucy Wright and Miss Ruth Wil son, Mrs. Freda Barnum Cluff, one of the judges on delivery, gave a recita-tion in a most excellent style. The other judges on delivery were H. S. Tanner and Eugene B. Lewis.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

At the Thirteenth ward, where the fourth district contest was held, there was a veritable feast of oratory, and a flow of music, and at the conclusion everyone united in saying the evening

The judges were as follows: On thought and composition, H, S. Tanner, Prof. Wm. Bradford, Dr. J. T. Tanner; on delivery, Prof. Doxey, Geo. F. Gibbs and T. D. Lewis. The points awarded were as follows:

Mr. Howard, 253

All the orations were of a high order excellence and all were heartily aplled with friends of the young men from both the Thirteenth and Eighteenth wards. A fine musical program was rendered by Mr. Goddard, Mr. Pyper, Mr. Whitney, Mr. Spencer, Miss Lutie Grant and Miss Thomas.

CADET C. TELFORD OF UTAH SUSPENDED

Suspension is Without Pay Until April 1, 1902—Stood Very High in His Class— Effect on Mr. Jarvis' Appointment.

dismissed from the military academy as the result of the recent disturbances

Henry L. Bolby, Nebraska; John A. Cleveland, Alabama; Trangett F. Tell er, New York; Raymond A. Linton, Michigan; Birchie O. Mahaffey, Texas. All these cadets are of the second

The following cadets have been suspended:

Olan C. Aleshire, Illinois; Benjamin F. McClellan, Mississippi; James A. Shannon, Minnesota: Charles Telford, Utah, of the second class; also Thomas N. Gimperling, Ohio, and Harry Hawley, New York, of the third class.

These cadets are suspended without pay until April I, 1902,

The order of dismissal is signed by Seey, Root and states that it is issued "by direction of the President up.

There was no court martial of these cadets, but under the law the secretary superintendent. A board of officers in this particular case was appointed, the facts to the superintendent and he made his report and recommendations to the secretary of war and upon this the secretary acted.

The news of the suspension of Mr Telford will be received with profound regret by his friends in Utah educational circles, particularly those of the University of Utah where his capabilty and popularity were well es-

Telford's home was at Bountiful. Davis county. He was the son of John and Maria Telford, His father has been dead for several years and his widowed mother lives on the old homestead upon which young Telford has spent his vacations each summer since he entered West Point three years ago hood and has enjoyed an excellent repwhat his specific offense is, though it is less serious in its nature. For some trouble caused by cadets at the military have been dismissed from the insti-tution altogether. It is a matter of congratulation that Telford's offending was ot so grave as to cause dismissax simply suspended until April 1, 1892 without pay. That implies that he wil return to the academy to complete his course at the expiration of the suspension period. He will have just one more year in which to graduate after

Cadet Telford was appointed by Ex-Congressman King and has made a splendid record at West Point. Speak ing of him today Senator Rawlins said he had heard that the young man stood in the very first ranks of his class and Judge King stated that his efficiency made him No. 2 in the class which is extremely high. He was to graduat next year and was to be succeeded in the academy by Clarence S. Jarvis of St. George who was just given the ap-pointment from Unifn by Congressman

The suspension of Telford at once raised the point today as to the status of young Jarvis. It is feared by number of those well informed that not only jeopardizes his chances for appointment but that it throws it on altogether. Utah is entitled to but one cadet at a time, of congressional appointment. At the present Telford holds that position. His suspension does not create a vacancy. The implication is that he will go back in 1962 present himself for admission until af-ter Telford has been graduated. At that time Jarvis will have passed the age limit of admission, which is twen ty-two years. Mr. Jarvis was calle ap by the Descret News, at the Brig-ham Young Academy, this afternoon, of which institution he is a student, and informed of the situation. It was the first intimation he had received of lisappointment to him-the most serious that he had ever had.

Senator Rawlins without knowing anything as to the age of young Jaris, gave it as his opinion that there mission to West Point until after the graduation of Telford. Ex-Congressnan King stated that while he did not absolutely know, it would seem to him

Washington, May 22.—The cadets that the rules governing the admission of students to West Point should be sufficiently elastic to permit Mr. Jar vis to enter. Were they not it would mean that he must be the victim of another's offending, a condition which he did not believe should obtain. Congressman Sutherland left for the east this morning, and consequently his views on the subject could not be obtained. Senator Kearns was in Park City during the day.

RECEPTION TO JARVIS.

Was Royally Acclaimed by Brigham Young Students Last Night.

(Special to the "News.") Provo, May 22 .- The students of the Brigham Young Academy gave a most enthusiastic welcome to Clarence S. Jarvis, the successful candidate for the West Point cadetable last night, and though honors and plaudits may be won by him in after life, it is doubtful if he will ever be the hero of a more sincere demonstration or of one that will give him greater pleasure than the memory of the rejoicings of the fresh young hearts, who with the noble un-selfishness of youth welcomed as their own the triumph he won in the morn-

When he arrived from Salt Lake at 7.45 o'clock he was met at the depot by a large delegation of students carving the Stars and Stripes, Many of the young ladies brought flowers, and a carriage had been provided for con-veying Mr. Jarvis to the academy, young soldier was drawn by his fellow students through the streets to the ac. companiment of college yells and songs an the pelling of flowers. At the bank corner a stop was made and a college cong rendered; then Mr. Jarvis made brief speech, thanking the students for their welcome, and asked to be al-lowed to walk with them to the academy; but they would not have it so, and proceeded to the school.

An interesting impromptu reception was given in college hall, Prof. Caleb Tanner acting as toast master. After singing "America" by the large audience Prof. Tanner briefly expressed his pleasure at the success of Mr. Jarvis, and that a student of the academy had appointed a student of the academy to West Point

Brief speeches, full of enthusiasm, and of pride in the success of Mr. Jar-vis and that the school had been honored through him, and abounding in expressions of good will and faith in an honorable and successful future for the guests of the evening, were made by Prof. Hickman, President Brimhall, Francis Kirkman, O. W. Jarvis, Misses Edna Hacket, Neilie Schofield and Ida

Mr. Jarvis was called upon for a speech and was greeted with most enhusiastic applause. He expressed himself in a modest, manly way, thanking the students for their exhibition of rlendship. He did not take the demon. stration as a personal honor, but rather as a tribute to the school, which had made his success possible. He paid a oretty compliment to the young ladies ho had brought flowers in his honor and love, and hoped the carriage ride he had enjoyed would not prove to be typical of a ride on a rail at West Point. He closed with the hope that he night ever retain the friendship of fellow students, and that death might any act whereby he should forfeit the right to their confidence and love. Vocal selections were given by Miss Alice Reid. Horace Sechrist and Miss Agnes Austin.
