Col. Grant.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Col. Grant makes public to-night a very long statement in reply to General Badeau's address to the American people upon the controversy which has arisen between General Badeau and the family of the late General Grant. Colonel Grant says it is his last word in the matter prior to the hearing of the case in court, and for that reason he presents a history of the case in extenso. Under the circumstances, therefore, he goes over much ground which has already been covered, chiefly in regard to the negotiations with a view to a settlement of the case without resort to the courts, to a personal denunciation of Badeau, and to arguments going to show that General Badeau's services was of a much less important character than Badeau claims they were. Nearly all of Badeau's most prominent assertions are denied in toto.

WASHINGTON.

President Cleveland's Decision—The Records of the Rebellion.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—A telegram has been received from Mrs. Waite acquiescing in the suggestion that the funeral services of the late chief justice be held in the hall of the House of Representatives next Wednesday and that the body be privately interred at Toledo the next day. Mrs. Waite left Los Angeles for the east at 10 o'clock last night.

The White House was draped in mourning today. Members of the bar will meet at 11 o'clock Monday to take action for attendance at the funeral of the chief justice and for a subsequent meeting in commemoration of his eminent character and public services.

At a later conference it was decided that the ceremonies in Washington shall take place in the hall of the House of Representatives at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, Bishop Paret and Doctors Bodine, Leonard and Mott of the Episcopal Church officiating. There will be no oration. The judges of the Supreme Court, including ex-Judge Strong, will act as pall bearers. The President and Cabinet and both houses of Congress and the bar of the Supreme Court will attend the funeral as a body and a committee of the two houses will accompany the remains to Toledo.

The lard hearing was resumed before the House committee on agriculture, the representatives of Fairbanks & Co. testifying at length and defending refined lard as a pure, wholesome food product.

William Bartle, an ex-packer, of St. Louis, continued his testimony. He repeated the statement that in most packing houses smothered hogs, pregnant sows and hogs suffering from cholera were used indiscriminately with good hogs to make prime steam lard. He could, as a pork packer and experienced farmer, verify all the statements he had heard about the manufacture of prime steam lard. He had only gone out of business because he could not pursue it longer and deal honestly. When he was in business he necessarily packed cholera hogs, because they are mixed with other hogs. He had cut hogs into hams, etc., knowing them to be diseased, just as every other packer did. The meat of the cholera hog was not poisonous. One of the crying evils of the time was the shipping of diseased hogs to market by the farmer. The man would immortalize himself who would frame legislation which would prevent refiners and packers from acting improperly in the manufacture of food products.

Representative Felton, of California, presented Claus Spreckles to the President today.

The sub-committee of the House military committee today began the investigation of the alleged insertion in the rebellion records of unofficial matter, as set out in the Grosvenor resolutions. Lieutenant Col. Mel Lasalle, Assistant Adjutant-General Kelton and others were examined regarding the purported list of members of Anderson's cavalry of Pennsylvania.

General Kelton said all the Adjutant-General's office knew about the newspaper slip was that it had been handed in by Chief Clerk Tweedale, with the request that it be compared with the muster rolls and verified. It has been compared, verified and certified. Witness produced the muster rolls to show how the compilation had been made. There was no report from Gen. Rosecrans in the War Department.

Henry Douglas, chief clerk in the adjutant general's office, said he had compared the newspaper slip with the muster roll and made up the list of names in the appendix, but had not placed the caption on it, nor had he stated that it was made up from the official reports to Gen. Rosecrans. Upon being shown the manuscript of the list, witness said it was not the list he made up. His recollection was that all of the names found in the newspaper article had been found in the muster rolls. Adjourned till Wednesday.

President Cleveland in the exercise of his functions as arbitrator between the republics of Costa Rica and Nicaragua, has announced his decision on the question in dispute. The President decides that the treaty of April, 1858, is valid, and then goes into details as to the rights of the two governments under said treaty, definite boundary lines, questions relating to harbors, canals, etc.

Railroad Rumblings.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The switchmen in the Chicago yards of the Chicago, California & Santa Fe Railway struck this morning owing to the difference with the company about the yard master. Only a few men are concerned in the strike, and it will probably be settled this afternoon.

Chief Arthur denies that the Brotherhood have any connection with the switchmen's strike, and he wishes it distinctly understood that the Brotherhood have not entered into any combination with the switchmen or any other organization, and have no intention of doing so.

The strike is not because of the pay. The men object to working on engines not handled by Brotherhood men. The general impression among brakemen is that the officials of the road will order them to turn and help out with the switching, and in case such a demand should be made on them they would strike from one end of the system to the other, rather than do the work of the striking switchmen. It is thought that as fast as the grievance committees return to their homes all switchmen between here and Denver will quit.

GALESBURG, Indiana, March 24.—About fifty switchmen struck in the Burlington yards this morning. Freight trains are all laid up, but passenger trains are moving as usual.

The Boycott Raised.

DENVER, March 24.—The boycott on the Burlington was raised at Denver today. One hundred and twenty loaded cars were taken out by the roads centering here. Of this number one hundred were pulled out by the Denver & Rio Grande.

The Rock Island Responsible.

CHICAGO, March 24.—The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway filed in Judge Gresham's court today an answer to the petition of the Burlington Railway, asking that the former road be compelled to handle "Q." cars. The answer states the relations existing between the railroad systems in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado, and alleges that in the month of January last the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy inaugurated a war of rates, and prosecuted the same so vigorously that on the 15th of the present month the rates through these States were reduced to about one-third of the rates which existed before the war commenced; that it has avowed to the management of other railway companies that the purpose of the war was to compel the railroads in the States named to place the exclusive and absolute control of all rates in the hands of a trust to be controlled by the commissioners, who should also have power to pay compensation to lines for losses sustained because of any rates fixed by the trust and to impose fines and forfeitures for disobedience to orders. It also alleges that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Company permitted the strike which is now in progress so that it would aid the rate war, demoralize business, reduce the revenues and bring about a state of things which would compel the railroads of the West to submit to the Burlington scheme for placing the railroads under the control of the proposed Burlington Company and by bringing about a strike on its own line first, to absorb all of the engineers and firemen of the United States who are not members of the Brotherhood, and thereby render it impossible for their competitors to man their roads. That its demand for an interchange of traffic with competing lines has not been made in good faith but for the express purpose of bringing about a strike on those lines well knowing that the places of the striking engineers could not be filled.

The answer discloses that before this bill was filed the Rock Island Company had arranged with its engineers and firemen to raise the boycott, and that orders had been issued before this suit was commenced, directing that business be interchanged with all railroads as before the commencement of the strike.

General Passenger Agent Morton of the Burlington road, asked tonight as to the truth of the "trust" and other allegations in the Rock Island road's answer, asserted it was not only false, but ridiculous and that affidavits to that effect would be filed Monday.

ST. JOSEPH, Missouri, March 24.—The switchmen of the Burlington at this point have not yet struck, but the officials of the road are very uneasy.

A Venezuelan Patriot.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The removal of the body of the Venezuelan patriot, General Paez, from the armory of the Twelfth Regiment, where it has been lying in state for several days to the United States frigate Pensacola for transportation to Venezuela, took place today. An imposing military and naval procession accompanied the remains, and numerous prominent officers of both branches were present, including Generals Sherman, Sheridan and Sickles, Admiral Gherardi and others. The Pensacola sailed this afternoon for Laguayra. The body is to be placed in the national pantheon at Caracas.

A Murderous Mother.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Mrs. Minnie Lebkuenchaner, is locked up at the police station for poisoning her three children. Two are dead and the other is dying. The mother is also suffering from the effects of poison taken at the same time. She tells a pitiful story. Her husband died two years ago. She had struggled to keep her children together, but failed. They were taken from her and sent to a juvenile asylum. Only recently, she got them back with infinite trouble, opposed by poverty on one side and the persecution of her husband's relations on the other. Work was failing and food was getting scarce. She foresaw she must lose them soon, and decided to kill them. On Wednesday she sent Anthony, the eldest of the boys, to a drug store with a quarter to buy rat poison. The child bought ten cents worth of "Rough on Rats." Mrs. Lebkuenchaner stirred it in the tea, and dividing the draught in three equal parts, gave it to the boys to drink. Very soon after all three of the boys were taken ill. Watching their sufferings, the mother staid with them all day, going about the house without exciting the attention of the tenants. Wednesday night and all day Thursday the little sufferers lay in their dying agonies, with the mother hovering about seeing their little lives ebbing out slowly and surely. They begged for water, and with the merciless cruelty of a fiend, the mother gave them whisky to drink. The two oldest drank and cried that they were on fire. They begged to be taken out in the back yard and have the hydrant turned on them, but their feeble cries found a deaf ear. Thursday afternoon Charles died. Three hours later his eldest brother breathed his last. Still the youngest, a baby of three, was left. With the two victims of her awful crime lying dead, the mother held to her fiendish purpose. She sat by her dying child until Saturday morning. When the little one's grip on life still refusing to yield she wearied of waiting, and went out to tell the police. This morning the mother was committed to the Tombs. Before being taken to prison she drew the photographs of her children from her pocket and asked if she would be permitted to keep them. When told that she could she shouted excitedly, "They wanted to take my children from me, but they can't do it now."

Convicted.

OZARK, Mo., March 24.—John Matthews was convicted of murder in the first degree today. He is the third of the Bald Knobbers who have received the extreme verdict for the murder of Eatons and Green. Several more are to be tried.

Killed by His Son.

LOUISVILLE, March 24. — James Mains, a farmer living near Frankfort, was shot and killed today by his son. The father became angry because his wife wanted a new pair of shoes, and threatening to kill both her and her boy, drew a revolver. The boy was quicker, however, and shot him down. He is lodged in jail.

Full of Police.

DUBLIN, March 24.—The meeting announced to be held at Youghal tomorrow has been proclaimed. The town is full of police.

William O'Brien arrived at Cork today and proceeded to Youghal. He declared the meeting would be held. Before he left London his friends advised him not to take a return ticket, and he accordingly did not.

Queen Victoria.

ROME, March 24.—Queen Victoria arrived at Florence at noon today. General Driquet, representing King Humbert, Count Forfa and Cavalier Brinda, who were delegated by King Humbert for her service during her stay, received her at the railway station. The Queen was driven to the Villa Palmieri in an open carriage. She was escorted by a guard of honor consisting of a detachment of carbiniers. The populace accorded her an enthusiastic reception.

LONDON, March 24.—The Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh have arrived at Florence.

Ridiculous Fabrication.

PARIS, March 24.—In the Chamber of Deputies today, M. Michelin produced a handbill which had been circulated in Paris inviting the attendance of the public at a meeting to be presided over by General Boulanger, the speakers to include Rochefort, Laisant, Boulanger and Michelin. Michelin declared that the placard was a malicious fabrication—a manœuver of the basest kind against a man whom his enemies desired to ruin.

Protection.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 24.—Before the Commercial Club tonight Senators Chace and Aldrich spoke in reply to Representatives Mills and Breckenridge, who addressed the club a month ago. The senators both said it would be a most fatal step to admit wool free and argued generally in favor of protection.

The Crown Prince Ill.

BERLIN, March 24.—Empress Victoria gave a court reception today at which it was announced that Emperor Frederick continued to improve and that he is stronger. His throat affection is being relieved.

BERLIN, March 24th.—The situation between the central allies and Russia remains unchanged.

The only alteration arising from the visit of the King of Roumania to Vienna is a definite treaty under which Austria pledges herself to resist any violation of Roumanian territory.

The Emperor's decree of March 21, authorizing Crown Prince William to represent him in the transaction of state business is now recognized as tantamount to the creation of a coregency. Besides the published decree, another exists which gives Crown Prince William fuller powers in the event of the Emperor suddenly growing worse.

Regarding the real state of the Emperor's health it is difficult to obtain authentic information of his private life. What is known is that he is able to take daily exercise in the orangery and heated conservatory at Charlottenberg. He receives family visits and listens to the reading of official reports.

A medical consultation has been held regarding the condition of Prince William who is suffering from general ill health.

Famine in Hungary.

PESTH, March 24.—A famine prevails in the Schult district owing to the floods. At Pressburg two thousand persons are being relieved, partly by the government and partly by Count George Apponyi.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Stone from the committee on public lands reported a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Interior for information in relation to the alleged frauds upon the government by the California Redwood Company. Adopted.

Steele, from the committee on military affairs, reported a bill providing for the promotion of army officers after twenty years continuous service in one grade. Committee of the whole.

The floor was then accorded to the committee on judiciary and the House went into committee of the whole on the bill to define and regulate the jurisdiction of the United States courts.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

The Queen of Portugal has gone to Oporto to assist in relieving the sufferers by the Banquet theatre fire.

The first business meeting of the International Council of Women was held in Washington on Saturday afternoon. Not all the delegates had arrived. The National Association gave a reception that evening at the Riggs House.

Frank A. Dearborn, a lawyer of Boston and Newton, has assigned. Liabilities $170,000, including unsecured debts of $50 375. The assets consist principally of bonds and stocks.

At St. Louis the measles are raging in a virulent form among the United States recruits of Jefferson barracks. Seven deaths have already occurred, and the hospital is crowded.

In New York, March 24, the republican State committee met and decided to hold a State convention at Buffalo, May 19th.
