M. H. LEMAN, Esq., starts for Hailey, Idaho, to-morrow morning.

The entertainment by Miss Ida Hitchcock in the Theatre on Thursday evening.

The Careless grand orchestral concert in the Theatre on Wednesday evening.

Col. E. T. HOOKER, of the C. R. & P. came to this city over the broad gauge, last evening.

Large quantities of agricultural machinery are being brought up from the depot daily.

SHARPER quotations, corrected daily by Wells, Fargo & Co. New York, 21 1/2, London 19 1/2.

Home missionary meeting at the usual hour and place on Wednesday evening, the 23rd inst.

FRANKLIN COOPER, Esq., Utah Central General Passenger Agent, will return from Denver this evening.

TICKETS for Miss Ida Hitchcock's benefit are for sale at the book stores and railway offices in this city.

Mr. W. H. S. DODGE, of St. Louis, is spending a few days in this city. He is on his way to San Francisco.

A MAN who lives a short distance south of the city, had a new plow stolen from his field last Saturday.

JAMES S. CROCKER, who has been in the British crown on Saturday, and became a citizen of the United States.

The grand jury examined some witnesses on Territorial business this morning, and adjourned until 10 a.m. to-morrow.

Dr. S. L. RICHARDS, who recently graduated as a veterinary surgeon, expects to commence business in our city this week.

J. C. GOSSELIN, president of the Queen mine company, went to Wood River this morning, on business connected with the strike.

A TEAM and wagon were stolen in Ogden on Friday. The thief was supposed to have left for Salt Lake, but nothing has yet been heard of him.

The town is well built for the mammoth orchestra. It will be a treat that none can afford to lose. Remember the box office will be open on Wednesday, the 23rd.

The panorama of the seven wonders of the world, and great events in history, by Robert Smith, will be exhibited in the 12th Ward Assembly Rooms on Thursday evening next, in the 17th Ward on Friday evening, and in the 12th Ward on Saturday evening. It is worth witnessing.

A SMALL canoe, in front of Barratt's furniture store, attracted considerable attention this afternoon. Each of the oars accompanying it is made of two pieces joined by a double-acting mechanism, which causes the flat end of the oar to move in the same direction as the handle. By this arrangement the oarsman, while pulling in the ordinary way, is propelled forward instead of backward.

LOCAL NEWS.

Musical.—Music lovers should not forget the chamber concert to be given at Father's Hall to-night. A rare treat is in store for all who attend.

Police Court.—H. Moore, for his spree on Saturday, paid $5.

Mrs. Simpson and George Bailey, arrested yesterday for being drunk, were each fined $5.

Morbid.—Kaiser, for creating a disturbance in a house of worship, yesterday, paid $10 to-day as a fine.

Dramatic.—A dramatic and musical entertainment will be given in the Seventh Ward Assembly Hall, to-morrow evening, at 8 p.m., for the benefit of the Sunday school of that ward. The programme is an attractive one, and this fact, coupled with the worthy object for which the performance is given, should insure a full house.

Fine Paintings.—To-day we were shown two fine pictures, from the illustrious brush of Brother Martin Lund, of the Twelfth Ward. The first, taken from nature, is a sporting picture, and represents a brace of ducks landing by the sea, and, though dead, they look very life-like. The second is a full blooded rose, by the side of which is a burning ball, and is so natural that one would almost be inclined to pick it up, were it not for the sharp thorns on the stem. Both pictures are in still life objects and droll paintings.

District Court Proceedings.—Saturday afternoon, in the case of H. Donahue et al. vs. Wm. M. Lacy, judgment was given for defendant for costs of suit.

The case of the United States vs. J. M. Gibson, for perjury, was dismissed.

The case of E. D. Egan vs. A. P. Hodge occupied the attention of the court to-day. A jury was waived, and the trial is in progress. The plaintiff in this suit is the owner of the White House, and is seeking to recover the $2,000 damages on the ground that the defendant, who is the lessee of the building, has broken the conditions of the lease.

Evading the Law.—Some of the saloons in the suburbs of our city, which have ostensibly closed since the action of the County Court in raising the license, are still disposing of liquor in such a way that they imagine the law is powerless to reach them. They give away the intoxicating beverages to known customers whom they can trust, and by means of a mutual understanding do not receive the pay for it until a few days later, when it is quietly presented to the proprietor.

In this way a number of young men who were at a party in one of the adjacent wards south of the city, last Friday evening, obtained sufficient liquor to get drunk. They engaged in a free fight, in which one of them got badly beaten. The proper officers should take the necessary steps to detect such of the saloons as are conducted in this manner, and bring the proprietors to justice.

More "Counterfeit" Proposals.

A few weeks ago we published an article concerning a gentleman in this city having received a letter from a party in the east, proposing to furnish counterfeit currency. A similar letter has been received by Mr. Hall, of this city, enclosing a slip on which is written, as the address of the party, "H. W. Tuttle, West 14th Street, New York City, care of T. J. Potter, Room 1." Mr. Hall also received another letter, which reads as follows:

"Dear Sir: Thinking you are in a position to safely handle my goods, I have concluded to write you. I have made a mistake, do me no harm, but let me make a drop. I am willing to prove myself your friend. If you are desirous of engaging in this speculation: If you don't like to invest in counterfeit money, I have you will cease the liberty I have taken in making the proposition. My business is not legitimate, but my goods are safe and profitable to handle. The sizes are One, Two, Five, Ten and Twenty. I will send you on every point that if you are my friend I will prove a true and lasting one to you. If you have been unsuccessful in your business, I can supply you with goods with which you can pay off all your debts and secure your property. I can purchase mortgages, in fact my stock can be safely used the same as any money you ever handled in your life. It was never intended that one man should have millions of dollars, and another nothing, so don't throw away this chance to make a fortune. Others have grown rich around you (no one knows how), why not help yourself? I manufacture the goods, so in trading with me you purchase from first hands, and no one shall ever know what passes between us. Answer at once and be sure to return this letter or you will not hear from me again. I will return your letter and give you the same. Write me one line about this business for you do not know it. I intend sending letters to see if you write to any one else; remember this and look out for other letters. I don't think it safe to trust people with my goods who are willing to write any one else on such a subject. As subject of evidence of good faith on your part I ask you to send me all letters you may receive in relation to this matter. I shall send others to you, and will know whether you return them or not. All letters enclosed slip. I will never write any one else. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain

"Always your friend,

"Give me your name and post office address plainly written, so I can make no mistake in your directions."

There is no signature to the letter, and the slip enclosed contains the following:

"Keep this slip so you will not forget my name, and address all letters, James O'Neil, Box 23, 214 Broadway St., New York City, N.Y. Write me one line on this subject."

The letters are in Mr. Hall's possession, and, of course, he has not the slightest intention of having anything to do with the parties who wrote them. We are informed that several others have received similar proposals, and to these we repeat the advice to leave all such severely alone, except as may be proper in exposing their nefarious designs.

From the "Old Dominion."—We received a call this morning from Elder Joseph Smith, eldest son of President Wm. R. Smith, of Davis Stake, who returned last Thursday from a mission to the Southern States, which extended over a period of almost two years, he having started on the 10th of April, 1883. He labored during the whole of his absence in Virginia, visiting many different parts of it—some places where the Gospel was preached upwards of forty years ago, and other districts where a "Mormon" Elder had not been seen before, and where the utmost ignorance in regard to the Gospel prevailed. Not many converts are being made in this State at the present time. A feeling of indifference in regard to the Gospel prevails to a great extent, but occasionally persons are met with who are willing to investigate the principles which the Elders have come to offer. Elder Smith has no complaint to make of violent persecution. While there are plenty of people in that State who are opposed to their feelings to the Latter-day Saints and their religion, their opposition does not often take that active, violent shape that it does in some other portions of the South. He found many kindly disposed persons in his travels, and the treatment extended to him was, as a rule, kind and hospitable. No out-door preaching is done in that State, and as the Elders are seldom able to obtain halls to preach in, most of their meetings are held in private houses. Elder Smith assisted in holding a great many meetings of this class, having for his companions in labor at various times Elders Levi J. Taylor, Nereel W. Kimball, Landon J. Rich and J. U. Eldredge, and took a great deal of pleasure in his labors. He feels thankful to be at home once more, but appreciates his experience in the missionary very highly, and does not regret having gone upon his mission.

Y. L. M. I. A. Conference.—On Saturday, at 2 p.m., the Quarterly Conference of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association of Salt Lake Stake convened in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. There was a large attendance, the hall being crowded. Counselor Mrs. Maria Y. Dougal presided. After the opening exercises, Stake Secretary Augusta Joyce Crocherson read reports from twenty associations, which made a very satisfactory showing. Sisters M. Y. Dougal, Elmina S. Taylor, M. L. Horne, Minnie E. James, and Brothers George H. Taylor and S. Hill addressed the conference; their remarks were instructive and encouraging, and general good feeling prevailed.

The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, There is being carried on in this Territory, by a clique of despicable scoundrels, an infamous warfare against the peace and liberties of the Latter-day Saints, in conducting which the rights of the virtuous and innocent are trampled under foot; and

"Whereas, We view the course of these scoundrels against the rights and privileges of our relatives and friends with abhorrence; therefore:

"Be it resolved, That from this time forward, we will abstain from giving any business patronage to the promoters of, and active participants in, the said infamous warfare; and

"And all those who assist it or give it their sympathy, also abstain from doing so; and

"Be it further resolved, That we will in future make our purchases from our friends only, and so far as lies in our power, give the patronage and the preference over those imported, and use our best endeavors to sustain such friends.

The Conference then adjourned for three months.

A Misunderstanding.—It was stated on Friday evening's issue that the entertainment which was to have been given on Thursday evening last by the Fourteenth Ward choir, for the benefit of Mr. H. Gardner, in the Salt Lake Music Hall, had been postponed until Tuesday evening next, and on Saturday evening, we announced, by request, that a performance for the benefit of Joseph Nattress would be given at the same time and place. On inquiry, it was learned that arrangements had been made by the choir for the date advertised, but through a misunderstanding on the part of those giving the Nattress entertainment, they had billed Tuesday as the date of their performance. The matter has been satisfactorily arranged, however, the choir waiving their claim, and naming Thursday evening next as the time of their appearance.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—A fire department was organized at Eagle Rock, Idaho, last week.

—Last Friday evening the City Council of Ogden appointed Judge R. K. Williams City Attorney.

—It is expected that the U. P. R. R. will charter a large hotel at Soda Springs in the near future.

—Several days ago a fellow named Joseph Jenkins had his arm broken at the skating rink in Park City.

—The Butte Miner claims that a hen in that town recently laid a black egg. This sounds to us exactly like a fovea fabrication.

—A fire at Leadville late last Thursday night destroyed the butter storehouse of James Sullivan; loss about $7,000; insurance, $3,000.

—Last week a young man of Butte attempted suicide by taking morphine. Timely medical assistance, however, was given and he is still in the flesh. It was the result of a love affair.

—Friday evening the citizens of Provo held a mass meeting for the purpose of uniting in the most practical method of destroying the eggs of the caterpillar. A good idea.

—A Chinaman committed suicide last Wednesday at one of the mines near Evanston, Wyoming. He was buried by his countrymen with great noise and splendor, in oriental style.

—A subscription is circulating among the business men of Evanston, Wyoming, for the purpose of raising money to sink an oil well near that town, and thus demonstrate the existence of that article in that vicinity.

—Several days ago a man named John Sharaff was seriously if not fatally injured in the U. P. freight yard at Cheyenne. He was standing on a box car on a side track, fastening a nut, when a couple of other cars were butted against it, and all three pushed along. The unfortunate man was badly crushed by the moving cars and now lies in a critical condition.

—A runaway occurred in Ogden on Thursday evening, in which a man named Thomas Bennett was seriously hurt. He and another man were in a delivery wagon when the horse became frightened and started to run. The vehicle was upset in crossing the street car track and both men thrown violently to the ground. The driver was uninjured, but Mr. Bennett was badly bruised about the head.

Immigration Matters.—We announced some time since that reduced rates for immigrant fares had been obtained by the Church agency, and stated that $8 would now purchase a ticket from New York to Salt Lake, and $3 from Liverpool to Salt Lake. We now learn that a rate of $39 has been obtained between the Scandinavian ports of Copenhagen and Christiania, and Salt Lake. These rates from Europe, however, are only guaranteed for the first three companies of this season's emigration, which sail from Liverpool April 11th, May 10th and June 20th. There is an effort now being made to pool the various steamship lines and advance the rate of passenger fares over the sea, and should this effort prove successful, higher prices will have to be paid by the latter companies of the season. In view of the probability of an advance, we would recommend those who contemplate sending means to assist in the emigration of their friends to do so in time for them to come by one of the first three companies.

Commission.—The Governor to-day commissioned M. L. Ensign as coroner of Box Elder County.
